B-3 (the “BIA”). A copy of the Interim Receiver’s Report is attached hereto as Appendix “3” without appendices.
4. Pursuant to an order of the Honourable Mr. Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020, GTL was appointed as the Receiver (the “Receiver”) over the assets, undertakings and properties of the Debtors, as well as certain real property owned by each of Jaimak Real Properties Inc. DISCLAIMER

27. In preparing this ninth report of the Receiver to Court (the “Ninth Report”), the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information relating to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”), or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.

28. This Ninth Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Ninth Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
29. All references to dollar amounts in this Ninth Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE NINTH REPORT

30. The purpose of this Ninth Report is to advise the Court on the Receiver’s activities since the date of the Eighth Report and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver’s request for Orders:
 - a) approving the Ninth Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;
 - b) approving distributions to Clearflow and Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”);
 - c) approving the Receiver’s Interim Statement of Receipts and Disbursements as at October 31, 2022 (the “SRD”);
 - d) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period July 1, 2022 to October 31, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn November 9, 2022; and
 - e) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (“BLG”), legal counsel to the Receiver, for the period July 1, 2022 to October 31, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn November 9, 2022.

BACKGROUND

31. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario.
32. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
33. In the Second Report, the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger.
34. In the Second Report the Receiver requested an Order authorizing the Receiver to market for sale the Real Property (as defined in the Second Report) including Lions Court which was owned by Ms. Gdak, but which was not purchased with Trigger Funds.
35. Ms. Gdak filed a cross motion seeking to remove Lions Court from the within receivership proceedings.
36. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions refused Ms. Gdak's request to remove Lions Court from the receivership, however it did not authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court in furtherance of a sale of Lions Court.
37. In the Endorsement of Justice Dietrich dated March 31, 2021, Her Honour reasoned that the decision not to authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court for a possible sale, was due to the issue of Ms. Gdak's liability on her personal guarantee not having been determined at that time.

38. On May 26, 2021, Justice Dietrich released her Reasons for Decision (the “Guarantee Decision”) which found Ms. Gdak liable on her personal guarantee.
39. As previously noted, Ms. Gdak appealed the Guarantee Decision, which appeal was dismissed by the Court of Appeal for Ontario on February 17, 2022. Ms. Gdak did not seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.

SALE OF 250 LIONS COURT

40. In the Eighth Report the Receiver detailed the sales process undertaken to sell Lions Court and the July 18, 2022 Orders approved the Lions Court Transaction.
41. In the Eight Report the Receiver advised that Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak (the “Gdaks”) advised they would fully cooperate with the Receiver’s sale of Lions Court if the Receiver agreed that any sale transaction would not close prior to June 30, 2022 to allow their children to finish the school year before moving and that the Receiver had agreed to this request.
42. On June 16, 2022 the Gdaks requested to remain at Lions Court until the closing of the Lions Court Transaction which was scheduled for August 16, 2022. The Receiver agreed that the Gdaks remain at Lions Court until August 9, 2022 on the following conditions:
 - a) the Gdaks agreed to pay the mortgage, utilities, insurance, property taxes, property and maintenance costs, including lawns, gardens, pool, hot tub, etc. until and including August 9, 2022;
 - b) the Gdaks agreed to pay all costs associated with the pool opening expenses; and
 - c) the Gdaks agreed to fully cooperate with the Receiver in connection with any requests that the Receiver might make involving the sale of the Lions Court property, including visits to the Lions Court property by the prospective purchaser, as contemplated in the Lions Court sale agreement.
43. The Gdaks abided by these conditions and vacated Lions Court on August 9, 2022.
44. The Lions Court Transaction closed on August 16, 2022.

45. The Receiver subsequently paid the BMO Mortgage in accordance with the July 18, 2022 Orders.
46. The net proceeds from the sale of Lions Court were $1,212,421.73 (the “Lions Court Net Proceeds”), which is calculated as follows:

Selling Price	$ 1,450,000.00
Credit for realty taxes paid	$ 2,893.24
Real estate commission	$ (50,750.00)
BMO Mortgage	$ (189,721.51)
Net Sale Proceeds	$ 1,212,421.73

DISTRIBUTION TO CLEARFLOW AND CRA

47. As detailed in the Fourth Report, Clearflow holds a first ranking security interest in all of Trigger’s personal property assets and the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order authorized the Receiver to distribute the proceeds from sale of Trigger’s personal property assets to Clearflow.
48. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Trigger Real Property (as defined in the Second Report) are assets of Trigger and the August 20, 2021 Distribution Order authorized that the proceeds from the sale of the Trigger Real Property be distributed to Clearflow.
49. Clearflow does not however have a security interest in Lions Court and the Court has not declared Lions Court to be property of Trigger.
50. Lions Court was purchased by and registered to Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak on December 16, 2005. As described in the Second Report, Mr. Gdak transferred his interest in Lions Court to Ms. Gdak on July 2, 2019 for natural love and affection such that Ms. Gdak was the sole registered owner of Lions Court when the Receivership Order was granted on October 13, 2020.
51. The Guarantee Decision declares that Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak are liable for Trigger’s indebtedness to Clearflow. In the Seventh Report the Receiver detailed its calculations which determined that the amount owing to Clearflow by Trigger, as at the date of the Receiver’s appointment, was $48,543,731.75 (the “Trigger Indebtedness”). Clearflow has advised that it agrees with the Receiver’s calculation and the Gdaks have not disputed the Receiver’s calculation.

52. To the date of this Ninth Report the Receiver has distributed $8,620,000.00 to Clearflow, pursuant to various Orders issued by the Court. The amount remaining owing to Clearflow by Trigger is therefore $39,923,731.75 (the “Remaining Trigger Indebtedness”), plus interest accrued and costs subsequent to the date of the Receiver’s appointment.
53. The Receiver has obtained a statutory declaration from Ms. Gdak (the “Ms. Gdak Statutory Declaration”) sworn August 25, 2022, wherein Ms. Gdak declares that her only creditor, other than Clearflow, is CRA in the amount of $36,837.56 (“Ms. Gdak’s CRA Indebtedness”). A copy of the Ms. Gdak Statutory Declaration is attached hereto as Appendix “28”.
54. The information in the Ms. Gdak Statutory Declaration is similar to what Ms. Gdak would provide to a trustee in bankruptcy, in the event that Ms. Gdak was a bankrupt, as part of completing a Statement of Affairs pursuant to section 158 of the BIA.
55. Ms. Gdak’s liabilities therefore total $39,960,569.31 calculated as follows:
- | | | |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------|---------|
| Remaining Trigger Indebtedness | $ 39,923,731.75 | 99.908% |
| Mrs. Gdak’s CRA Indebtedness | $ 36,837.56 | 0.092% |
| | $ 39,960,569.31 | |
56. The Receiver proposes to distribute the proceeds from the sale of Lions Court to Clearflow and CRA on a pro rata basis. The Receiver believes that this is the most expeditious and cost-effective manner to distribute the Lions Court Net Proceeds.
57. The Receiver does not believe that it needs to incur the costs of running a claims process in the receivership proceedings, given the information in the Ms. Gdak Statutory Declaration.
58. Clearflow could alternatively bring an Application seeking a Bankruptcy Order against Ms. Gdak in order to have the Lions Court Net Proceeds be distributed to creditors through the bankruptcy. Given that Ms. Gdak has already sworn an affidavit declaring CRA is her only creditor other than Clearflow, a bankruptcy would not likely reveal any other creditors who could share in the distribution. A bankruptcy would simply add costs related to the Trustee’s fees and the Superintendent’s Levy, which would reduce the amount distributed to Clearflow and CRA. Additionally, Ms. Gdak may defend a Bankruptcy Application, which would further increase costs unnecessarily.

59. The Receiver therefore requests that the Court authorize and direct the Receiver to distribute the Lions Court Net Proceeds to Clearflow and CRA, as follows:

Clearflow	$ 1,211,304.06	99.908%
CRA	$ 1,117.67	0.092%

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

60. In the Sixth Report, the Receiver advised that it understands that Lerner's LLP ("Lerner's"), counsel for Mark Gdak, and the Debtors, have been able to access certain insurance coverage to pay their legal fees and disbursements throughout the receivership proceedings. Lerner's also advised that the insurer does not pay an amount equivalent to the standard rates of Lerner's. Accordingly, Lerner's has advised the Receiver that it may seek an Order directing the Receiver to pay to Lerner's the difference between the hourly rates paid by the insurer and the Lerner's standard hourly rates. The Receiver understands that this differential is approximately $130,000. As of the date of this Ninth Report, Lerner's has not brought a motion seeking this relief from the Court.
61. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees and disbursements.
62. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge (the "Receiver's Charge") was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.
63. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from July 1, 2022 to October 31, 2022 amount to $67,609.35 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn November 9, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "29".
64. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver's counsel, BLG, from July 1, 2022 to October 31, 2022 amount to $65,667.81 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn November 9, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "30".

65. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

66. The SRD, including the proposed distributions, is attached hereto as Appendix "31".

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

67. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 30 of this Ninth Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Endorsement of Gilmore, J.

The Applicant seeks appointment of an interim receiver on this ex-parte motion pursuant to s.47(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (“BIA”). The Receivership Order is intended to cover the assets of the Respondents Trigger Wholesale Inc. (“Trigger”) and The En Cadre Group (“En Cadre”).

Clearflow provides financing to medium-sized businesses typically through factoring of accounts receivable. The total credit facility owed by Trigger to Clearflow as of October 6, 2020 was $48,625,279.75. Trigger is in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition in Canada. Its customers include the military, Home Hardware and Canadian Tire.

The Respondents Jamiee and Mark Gdak are directors of Trigger and both are actively involved in the business.

The fraud perpetrated on Clearflow as outlined in the affidavits in support of this Application is significant and includes allegations of hundreds of falsified invoices as evidence of accounts receivable that did not exist, falsified purchase orders, a forged transfer of real property owned by Mark Gdak on behalf of En Cadre, fake email addresses of executives at Canadian and Home Hardware, verbal and email impersonations of executives employed by Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, and forged cheques made to look like payments by Canadian Tire and Home Hardware to Trigger for the alleged purchase of firearms.

Clearflow is necessarily concerned that it has advanced tens of millions of dollars to Trigger based on misrepresentations and falsified documentation. It is also concerned with a massive increase in 90 day accounts receivable and Trigger’s resistance to providing agreed upon financial information upon request.

I am satisfied pursuant to the principles set out in 2092280 Ontario Inc v. Voralto Group Inc., 2018 ONSC 2305 (CanLII) that where a strong prima facie case of fraud has been made out, “the law’s reluctance to allow prejudgment execution must yield to the more important goal of ensuring that the civil justice system provides a just and enforceable remedy against such serious conduct.” (para 28). There is substantial evidence of a significant fraud in this case that goes beyond simple manipulation but includes fake emails, documents and pre-meditated actions on the part of the Respondents to induce further advances from the Applicant.

In terms of irreparable harm I find that there is an extreme risk of the destruction of documents if the Respondents are given notice of this proceeding which may impede their ability to collect on real invoices.

With respect to the balance of convenience, the interim receivership is only for a period of 30 days and a comeback date will be set for October 23, 2020. There is also provision for Jamiee and Mark Gdak to access funds for personal use.

I am also satisfied that the appointment of an interim receiver is necessary to protect the debtor's estate, enforce rights between the parties, and protect assets in the face of a serious apprehension about the safety of the assets.

Given all of the above, I make the following Orders:

1. The Order attached hereto is immediately in effect.
2. The Applicant to forthwith serve all material on the Respondents.
3. The matter to return for a comeback hearing before any judge on October 23, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. or such other time on that date that the Trial Coordinator may set.

AFFIDAVIT OF MARTIN NICHOLAS REES

OATH AND SAY:

1. I am a shareholder and employee of the Applicant (“Clearflow”) in this proceeding, and as such, have knowledge of the following matters, either through my direct knowledge or by informing myself in respect thereof, in which case I indicate the source of my information and belief.

INTRODUCTION

The Parties

2. Clearflow is a federally-incorporated Canadian company that has been in business for the past five years of providing financing to medium-sized businesses in Ontario, typically through factoring of accounts receivable, although as will be seen below, Clearflow occasionally extends other types of credit facilities to its customers in addition to factoring of accounts receivable.

3. The Respondent Trigger Wholesale, Inc. (“Trigger”) is one of Clearflow’s customers pursuant to three separate credit facilities, summarized in the Affidavit of Sandy Kanichis filed in support of this Application. The total amount owed by Trigger in favour of Clearflow was, as of October 6, 2020, $48,625,279.75.¹

4. The Respondents The En Cadre Group Inc. (“En Cadre”) Mark Gdak (“Gdak”) and Jaimee Gdak (“Jaimee”) have each executed continuing and unlimited guarantees of the indebtedness of Trigger in favour of Clearflow. Clearflow holds security against all of the personal property and assets of Trigger and En Cadre in the form of separate General Security Agreements over each company.

Attached hereto as Exhibit “A” are true copies of the guarantees referred to above

Attached hereto as Exhibit “B” are true copies of the General Security Agreements in favour of Clearflow executed by Trigger and En Cadre

Attached hereto as Exhibit “C” are copies of an Ontario Personal Property Security Act searches on Trigger and En Cadre

5. Trigger is an Ontario-incorporated company that is allegedly in the business of importing and distributing firearms, particularly shotguns, and associated ammunition to customers throughout Canada. Trigger did also sell certain other weapons until banned by recent federal legislation. Trigger’s customers allegedly include small gun shops, the military, police forces and large retailers, specifically, Canadian Tire and Home Hardware. I attach as an Exhibit hereto a copy of the Home page of Trigger’s website, which will provide the Court with additional details regarding the business and operations of Trigger.

from Trigger’s website

6. Trigger and/or En Cadre’s assets consist of:
- (a) accounts receivable due and owing from customers of Trigger;
 - (b) firearms and ammunition inventory owned by Trigger allegedly stored in a secured and licensed facility in Waterloo, Ontario;
 - (c) an alleged interest in real property located in Waterloo, Ontario, purportedly owned by the Respondent En Cadre, with a purported value of $48 million, pursuant to an as-of-yet uncompleted, executed Agreement of Purchase and Sale provided to Clearflow by Trigger as evidence of the asset owned by the Respondents; and
 - (d) miscellaneous assets including office equipment and computers, a large and sophisticated 3D printer, goodwill, and customer lists.

7. The Respondents Jaimee and Jaimak Real Properties Inc. (“Jaimak”) own certain real property located in Waterloo Ontario, and in Huron County, Ontario that I believe may have been acquired with the proceeds of the fraudulent activity perpetrated by the Gdaks. There is good reason to believe that title to these properties has been placed in the names of Jaimee or Jaimak in an effort to shield assets from the reach of Clearflow and other creditors in the event that the fraudulent scheme was discovered.

8. The directors and officers of Trigger include both Gdak and his spouse Jaimee. Jaimee has been actively involved in Trigger’s business and has served in a senior accounts receivable collection capacity. I believe that, as a result of her position with Trigger and her involvement with the day-to-day affairs of Trigger, Jaimee was at all material times aware of and participated in the fraudulent action described below. Jamiee is the sole officer and director of Jaimak Real Properties Inc..

Attached hereto as Exhibit “E” is a true copy of a Corporation Profile Report in respect of Trigger

Attached hereto as Exhibit “F” is a true copy of a Corporation Profile Report in respect of En Cadre

Attached hereto as Exhibit “G” is a true copy of a Corporation Profile Report in respect of Jaimak Real Properties Inc.

9. Although I hold no formal title in this regard, I am essentially the “account manager” and main contact person at Clearflow in respect of the Trigger account. I have over 35 years of experience in the banking and lending industries in Canada and in the United Kingdom. I have been a partner at Clearflow since it was incorporated in 2014.

Nature of this Proceeding and Allegations of Fraudulent Activity

10. This Application has become necessary as a result of:

- (a) the occurrence of certain events of default on the part of Trigger pursuant to the relevant credit facilities between Clearflow and Trigger. Copies of the Demand Letters (the “Demands”) and the Notice of Intention to Enforce Security (the “NITES”) that are about to be sent to Trigger and its guarantors are attached hereto as Exhibits. The Demands and NITES indicate to the Court the nature of the events of default on the part of Trigger that give rise to the Demands, as well as the total indebtedness owed by Trigger in favour of Clearflow, which as stated above, is nearly $50 million; and
- (b) a long-standing, organized pattern of fraud on the part of Trigger and Gdak that has come to the attention of Clearflow very recently, based on multiple instances of clear and convincing evidence from different and independent sources. Clearflow is not aware of the extent of its losses resulting from this fraud, except that it is in the millions and possibly tens of millions of dollars. The fraud consists of knowingly-false misrepresentations made by Gdak and Trigger to Clearflow, assisted by Jaimee, backed up by falsified invoices, a forged transfer of real property, fake email addresses, a falsified Real Property Agreement of Purchase and Sale, impersonations of executives employed by Canadian Tire and Home Hardware stores, and phony cheques. I believe that the evidence supports the conclusion that Gdak personally has orchestrated the fraud in an effort to induce Clearflow to advance millions of dollars to Trigger, which it has done in good faith reliance on the truthfulness of the representations made, and documentation supplied, by Gdak.

Attached as Exhibit “H” are true copies of the Demands and NITES that are about to be sent by Clearflow

11. As a result of the events of default summarized in the Demands, Clearflow is hereby applying, in this Application, for the appointment of a Court-Appointed Receiver over the assets and undertaking of Trigger and En Cadre.

12. The recently-discovered evidence of a massive fraud, however, makes the normal receivership procedure inappropriate in this case. Given the previous conduct of the Respondents summarized herein and in the other Affidavit sworn in support of this Application, I believe that it is not only possible, but likely, that the Gdaks will destroy or alter evidence, remove assets from the jurisdiction and conceal the existence of assets during the 10-day period after service of the Demands and NITES. Presumably Trigger will wish to respond to this Application for the appointment of a Receiver, which could result in a delay significantly longer than the statutorily-required ten days between service of the Demands and NITES and the hearing of the Application.

13. Clearflow is of the view that its security position will significantly erode if the Gdaks are permitted to remain in control of the assets, premises, inventory, books and records, computers and other property of Trigger, En Cadre, Jaimak or owned personally, during that period.

14. Any indication that Clearflow is about to enforce its security or seek the appointment of a receiver will likely result in the spoliation of evidence, and concealment of assets by Gdak.

15. Accordingly, in addition to the usual receivership Order appointing Grant Thornton as receiver over the assets of the Respondents, Clearflow is also applying to the Court for an interim Order, without notice to the Respondents, appointing Grant Thornton as Interim Receiver over Trigger, En Cadre and Gdak personally, with immediate effect. The purpose of the requested interim receivership is to preserve evidence and assets pending a full hearing, on notice to the affected parties, with respect to the appointment of a receiver over the asset of these three parties, on the usual terms. I believe that the Interim Receivership is necessary in order to protect the interests of Clearflow and preserve the estate of the Respondents.

16. Clearflow's plan is to arrange for the Receiver, without advance notice to Gdak or Trigger, to attend at all the Trigger business premises and the Gdak's personal residence, immediately after the issuance of the requested interim receivership Order, for the purpose of taking control of such assets, books and records, bank accounts, computers, and other property that the Interim Receiver may deem necessary.

17. The Demands and NITES will be served on Trigger and the guarantors at that time, and will not be served in advance so as not to tip off Gdak that Clearflow is aware of his fraudulent activities and is taking action as a result.

18. The overall purpose of the requested receivership herein is for the Receiver to undertake an investigation into the fraud committed by Gdak and Trigger with a view to determining the actual financial position of Clearflow and other stakeholders, if any, with respect to Trigger and to realize on the assets of Trigger and the other Respondents for the purpose of recovering the debt owed to Clearflow.

19. Jaimee, Gdak and En Cadre each executed separate continuing and unlimited guarantees of the indebtedness of Trigger in favour of Clearflow, and accordingly Clearflow is requesting judgment against those parties in this proceeding in connection with those guarantees.

BACKGROUND

20. In 2014, I was introduced to Gdak by a common contact person who was familiar with Trigger's business potential. Gdak subsequently discussed with me the possibility of Clearflow extending credit facilities to Trigger, partly to retire prior indebtedness of Trigger in favour of another lender.

21. I took the lead in conducting due diligence in respect of Trigger on behalf of Clearflow. I learned that Gdak had commenced the business as a sole proprietorship in 2012 and incorporated 2014. I also learned that it typically takes a 2-year period to acquire and establish the necessary licenses, distribution agreements and delivery channels before one can commence business as a firearms distributor in Canada.

22. I also learned that the firearms distribution business in Canada is heavily regulated, as one might expect. Below is a summary of the regulatory measures in place:

- (a) DFAIT (Department of Foreign Affairs & International Trade) verify every transaction;
- (b) DFAIT issues IIC's (International Import Certificate) which are required to import firearms into Canada;
- (c) DFAIT works with the RCMP to ensure that all licensees, including Trigger, hold appropriate Licenses
- (d) All firearms are registered and approved on the FRT (Firearms Reference Table), a table of approved firearms for importation;
- (e) Each model of firearm is assigned unique FRT reference number;

- (f) Trigger lists the FRT numbers on all TWI Import permits;
- (g) CBSA (Canadian Border Services Agency) requires advance notice of all shipments of firearms;
- (h) Any Distributor needs to hold a BFL (Business Firearms License) issued by Chief Firearms Office (CFO) and BFL's are managed and supervised by RCMP
- (i) Each firearm (unit with corresponding serial number) is inputted into the online RCMP firearms control systems a Trigger's facility upon arrival
- (j) All transfers to Trigger's customers are required to be completed through RCMP online systems; and
- (k) Trigger is required to keep records for 7 years.

23. Given the specialized and heavily-regulated nature of this business, Clearflow was attracted to Trigger on the basis that the barriers to entry in this industry are considerable, and Trigger had spent the time and money to gain the required licenses, approvals relationships and experience necessary to rapidly become a profitable company with positive long term prospects. A committee consisting of all partners of Clearflow decided to put forward an offer of financing to Trigger.

24. These credit facilities were summarized in an Offer letter dated April 5, 2015 (the "Offer Letter") and are set out in more detail in the Affidavit of Sandy Kanichis filed in support of this Application.

GROWTH IN TRIGGER'S BUSINESS

25. For the initial 12 months of the relationship between Trigger and Clearflow, Trigger's sales remained relatively flat. Over the next four years, however, Trigger's business appeared to take off. Sales started expanding at a rapid rate.

26. As a result of this phenomenal growth, the amount of AR factored by Clearflow increased exponentially. Although some customers appeared to be late in paying, prior to fall, 2020, Clearflow did not encounter major difficulties in collecting accounts receivable.

27. Contrary to usual practice in the factoring industry and contrary to the provisions of the MPSA, at the request of Gdak, Trigger handled its own cash, including receipt of cheques from its customers, and made payment to Clearflow as required. Typically, Clearflow would control those cheques, which would be sent by customers directly to Clearflow. In addition, Trigger was perennially late in making its required financial reporting and Gdak always seemed to have an excuse as to why he could not provide required information and documentation to verify the accounts receivable. We believed that there were legitimate reasons for all of these unusual items, including the rapid growth of Trigger's business and a lack of experienced management..

28. Clearflow maintains industry-standard account verification measures to ensure that the accounts receivable that it is purchasing are true and accurate. This process involves periodic field audits conducted by an independent field auditor. I also personally visited the Trigger firearms warehouse in Waterloo and I can verify that there existed a real warehouse, with real firearms, and that a small number of employees, including the sons of Trigger's legal counsel, Brian Kelly, worked in the business. I kept in close contact with Gdak through this period, and I can verify that I persisted in requesting that he provide all required back up to Clearflow as part of its usual verification procedures. I attended firearms trade shows with Gdak (always at the expense of Clearflow, not Trigger) in Canada and in the US and can confirm that he appeared to be a well-known player in the firearms importation and distribution business.

ANOMALIES DISCOVERED IN FIELD AUDIT

29. Gdak was never particularly preoccupied with providing financial reporting to Clearflow in a timely manner and by 2020 this was starting to become a problem for Clearflow. Clearflow's field auditor, Steven Adler reported certain anomalies in Trigger's financial reporting to Clearflow, particularly an inability to provide verification of information provided to Clearflow. As just one example among many, Gdak was asked to produce the vendor number for Home Hardware, which he never did produce to Mr. Adler. This number would normally appear on every Home Hardware purchase order and would be easy for Gdak to obtain. Mr. Adler later advised us that, in fact, Trigger had "failed" the field audit, meaning Trigger had failed to supply sufficient evidence to Clearflow to support the existence of the accounts receivable against which Clearflow had lent Trigger tens of millions of dollars.

PHONY EMAIL ADDRESSES AND IMPERSONATIONS OF EXECUTIVE OF CANADIAN TIRE AND HOME HARDWARE

30. By early 2020, the amount of over 90-day accounts receivable owed by Canadian Tire and Home Hardware had increased dramatically. Accounts outstanding after 90 days are a source of great concern to Clearflow (or to any factoring lender) and Gdak was unable to provide satisfactory responses to the question of why the over – 90 AR had suddenly spiked. Pursuant to the MPSA, over-90 day AR is considered "ineligible" for factoring and Clearflow is permitted to require Trigger to re-purchase this AR from Clearflow, with the purchase price payable immediately.

31. As a result, we sought direct contact with representatives of Canadian Tire and Home Hardware in order to confirm the total amounts owing by these alleged Trigger customers and to ascertain the reason for the bulge in over-90 day AR.

32. In July, 2020, Gdak provided Clearflow with the names of two senior managers: Matthew Maguire of Canadian Tire and Cathy Shulist of Home Hardware, whom I understand to be actual senior executives of these companies. We have no basis to suspect that either of these individuals is involved in the fraudulent scheme perpetrated by Gdak.

33. Unfortunately, the email address for Mr. Maguire and Ms. Shulist by Gdak are phony. The email address provided for Mr. Maguire is matt.mcquire@cdntops.com. This is neither the correct spelling of Mr. Maguire's name nor is this actually a Canadian Tire email address. Canadian Tire's email addresses use the URL @canadiantire.com. The email address provided for Ms. Shulist is c.shulist@hhdist.ca. This is not a Home Hardware email address. Home Hardware's email addresses use the URL @homehardware.ca.

34. Mr. Adler has advised me and I verily believe that inquiries of the Canadian Internet Registration Authority (CIRA) indicate that "cdntops.ca" was created on July 12, 2020 with an expiry date of 8/12/21 and "hhdist.ca" was created on July 13, 2020 with an expiry date of 8/13/21. Both Registrant names are "Redacted for privacy purposes".

35. We duly engaged in email contact with the individuals in control of the "Cdntops" and "HHDist" email addresses, as well as conference calls, with individuals who purported to be Mr. Maguire and Ms. Shulist. I attach hereto two emails sent from these phony email addresses that purport to allay Clearflow's concerns over Trigger's escalating over-90 day AR. These two supposedly completely-separate emails sent by different individuals with no ostensible relationship to each other are remarkably similar in their structure and wording used, right down to the numbering of the points made by each of the alleged senders. Clearly, the senders of these emails were neither of Mr. Maguire nor Ms. Shulist and whomever did write and send these emails is impersonating these individuals. We believe that the retailers involved may be very interested in this information.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "I" are the two emails described above from the phone email addresses

DISCOVERY OF THE FAKE INVOICES

36. By September, 2020, the amount of over 90 day AR owed to Trigger by its customers had escalated sharply to a total of $21,644,485.76. Corresponding deposits from customers had shrunk dramatically.

37. As a result, we asked Mr. Adler to contact a statistically-significant sample of Canadian Tire stores taken from across Canada and to ask the simple question: do you carry firearms, and if so, do you have in stock or carry certain models of firearms (being the models of firearms allegedly sold by Trigger to these particular stores)? Each store that was contacted had, according to invoices provided to Clearflow by Trigger, ordered significant volumes of firearms in the preceding month (typically with a value of over $20,000 and often much more in the preceding month).

38. Mr. Adler contacted 40 stores which had collectively ordered, according to the invoices provided by Trigger, $1,347,246 worth of firearms from Trigger in the previous month. 28 of those stores, representing $939,321 of the total value of firearms alleged to have been ordered by Canadian Tire in the preceding month, do not sell firearms at all.

39. Twelve stores confirmed that they do carry firearms, but none carry the makes of firearms indicated in the invoices, namely, The Hunt Group or Balikili shotguns. Although they do carry shotgun ammunition, in many cases the representative of the particular store gave a consistent response: this type of firearm and ammunition are too “tactical” (to use the word that Mr. Adler advises was used by at least one representative of one particular Canadian Tire store), and are not consistent with Canadian Tire’s corporate image. Mr. Adler was told that only ammunition commonly know to be used by recreational hunters in Canada is carried by any Canadian Tire stores.

Attached hereto as Exhibit “J” is a copy of a summary of Mr. Adler’s report dated October 7, 2020

40. Mr. Adler has also advised me and I verily believe that as part of his investigation, which focused mainly on Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, he contacted one small firearms shop located in Thunder Bay, Ontario. The proprietor of this store told Mr. Adler that although he had ordered products from Trigger in the past, he had not ordered any product from Trigger in a considerable period of time. Trigger had provided Clearflow with an invoice showing that this particular small store had ordered a number of shotguns and ammunition within the past month. The proprietor of this shop indicated to Mr. Adler that this was simply impossible. He had not ordered nor been invoiced for those products.

41. Mr. Adler has terminated his engagement with Clearflow, and an Affidavit is not available from him on an immediate basis. He is aware very specifically of Clearflow’s intention to bring this proceeding and has been advised that Clearflow will be including the results of his investigations in the evidence before the Court. My personal belief is that at least part of the reason Mr. Adler is unwilling to proceed further with investigations into Trigger’s affairs may be his concern for his own personal safety. The fact is that Clearflow’s records indicate that $306,357,777.75 has been deposited into Trigger’s bank account since 2015. The evidence seems to suggest that a large portion of these funds may not have originated with customers of Trigger. If indeed I am correct in assessing Mr. Adler's fears, those fears may not be overly-dramatic given all of the circumstances. It should be noted by the Court that Gdak is a firearms enthusiast who personally owns a number of firearms and is, or was at one time, one of the few non-peace officers in Canada to hold a license to carry a concealed firearm.

THE FICTITIOUS REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION AND THE FORGED TRANSFER OF REAL PROPERTY

42. In or about the first week of September, 2020, Clearflow requested yet again that Trigger catch up on providing required financial disclosures, and that Gdak advise how Trigger proposed to retire at least a portion of Clearflow's indebtedness,

43. In response, Gdak forged documents to make it appear that En Cadre owned real estate located in Waterloo, with a substantial value, that it was in the process of selling.

44. Specifically, Gdak advised me that Trigger owned a large parcel of land located in Waterloo that had received a special designation from the RCMP that permitted the storage of firearms, which Gdak claimed added enormously to its value. The alleged municipal address of the property was 1343 Martin Grove Rd., Township Road 43, consisting of some 90.0003 acres of land (the "Martin Grove Property").

45. Mr. Gdak advised that En Cadre held title to the Martin Grove Property and was in the process of selling same to two purchasers. Gdak provided me with a copy of the Transfer allegedly registered in the Waterloo Land Titles Office confirming that he personally was the owner of the Martin Grove Property in trust for En Cadre.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "K" is a copy of the forged Transfer referenced above

46. Gdak also provided me with an alleged Amended Agreement of Purchase and Sale in respect of the Martin Grove Property. The purchase price was shown as $48 million and the transaction was set to close at the end of September, 2020 (later extended to the end of November, 2020). The purchasers are shown as Abina Holdings Inc and Paul Dietrich Developments Inc.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "L" is a copy of the Agreement of Purchase and Sale referenced above

47. Gdak advised me that the sale of the Martin Grove Property his was to be the source of repayment of the $5.6 million in non-factoring loans outstanding from Trigger in favour of Clearflow. He also advised that Trigger owed a significant amount, in excess of $15 million in taxes to CRA, which also needed to be paid from the proceeds of the sale. Gdak indicated that he was prepared to execute a direction to the purchasers such that the non-factoring debt owed to Clearflow would be paid in full from the proceeds of the sale.

48. In fact, we went to the trouble of having our real estate financing counsel at Torkin Manes, Jeffrey Alpert, prepare the directions for signature and send them to counsel acting for En Cadre in connection with the sale of the Martin Grove Property. The directions have never been signed, nor would they be of any use in any event since the entire transaction is a fraud.

49. Both the Transfer produced by Gdak and the Agreement of Purchase and Sale are forgeries/fakes. I am advised by Mr. Alpert, and verily believe that:

Transfer

- (a) Torkin Manes pulled from title the real instrument number WR1267136, which is the registration number shown on the alleged transfer of the Martin Grove Property to Gdak. The actual Instrument number WR1267136 is the Transfer pursuant to which the Respondent Jaimee Gdak took title to an entirely different property located at 652 Colby Dr., Waterloo, Ontario.

- (b) The municipal address shown on the forged Transfer/Deed of land, namely 1343 Martin Grove, Waterloo, does not match the legal description or the PIN identifier of the property, which is 22281-0110. That PIN identifier corresponds with 652 Colby Dr. which is a property owned by either Jaimee or Jaimak Properties
- (c) 1343 Martin Grove Rd. is not owned by En Cadre or any other related company to Trigger and consists of raw land located in an agricultural area;
- (d) the names of the vendor and purchaser are entered on the document are incorrect. The name of the Transferor is shown as “Mr. Cleason Martin” and the name of the Transferee is shown as “Mr. Mark W. Gdak”. In the Ontario land titles system the title “Mr.” is never used, and the names of individuals always appear last name first, followed by a comma, followed by the first name. I am advised by Mr. Alpert that the land titles system will not accept entry of the names of vendors and purchasers in this way, so it is impossible that this is an actual, valid Transfer. It would not have been accepted for registration by the land titles computer system.

The Fake Agreement of Purchase and Sale

50. The Agreement of Purchase and Sale provided to me by Gdak is also a forgery or a fake. Corporate searches conducted in every jurisdiction in Canada on the two alleged purchasers indicate that these alleged corporations do not exist. Further, the land described therein, namely, 1343 Martin Grove Rd., Township Rd 43, is not owned by En Cadre or any entity or individual related to it. There is no evidence that the real owner of this property has any connection with En Cadre or Gdak.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "M" is a copy of the parcel page relating to the true property known municipally as 1343 Martin Grove

51. I believe that these documents were provided to me in a fraudulent effort on the part of Gdak to induce Clearflow to continue the business relationship and to advance additional funds to Trigger.

MEETING WITH GDAK

52. On September 28, 2020, my Clearflow partners Sandy Kanichis and Glenn Petersen and I met with Gdak and his accounts receivable manager Mike Nero. Without disclosing all that we knew to Gdak, we advised that Trigger had failed the field audit and that we needed Trigger's cooperation in a continued investigation by Mr. Adler. Gdak responded that he was very busy trying to complete his tax filing by the end of that date or he faced penalties of over $1 million. On behalf of Clearflow, I then demanded that Trigger permit Clearflow to take over the cash management of Trigger's business as required pursuant to the MPSA. The cash management system, as we understand it, consists of a post office box to which cheques are sent by customers of Trigger. We demanded access to the post office box or that a second post office box be opened that we would have access to, so that we could take over processing cheques from customers.

53. This request was refused, on the basis that at times the post office box contains firearms and the regulator would not permit any party other than a duly authorized representative of Trigger to have access to same. This strains credulity. In the ordinary course, firearms would not be sent in the mail to a post office box for any reason.

FULL DISCLOSURE OF ALL RELEVANT FACTS

54. I am advised by Clearflow counsel in this case, Jeffrey Simpson of Torkin Manes LLP that because we are moving without notice to Trigger, we are required to disclose to the Court all relevant facts, even those that do not support our theory of the case, and to present to the Court any facts or arguments that Trigger and Gdak would make if they were given the chance to respond. In compliance with that requirement:

- (a) Trigger has a high visibility in the industry, and it does indeed operate a real firearms warehouse, which I have personally attended at. I have seen many government/regulatory documents over the years that I do not believe are forgeries all of which suggests that Trigger does indeed exist as a business and does import and distribute firearms in Canada.
- (b) Trigger has detailed information about executives working at Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, suggesting that there is exists a real business relationship;
- (c) Although it seems impossible that this could be the case given the circumstances of this case, it is theoretically possible that Gdak could take the position that Clearflow won't suffer any loss at all if it can collect all outstanding accounts receivable, assuming that they do indeed exist;
- (d) Trigger has always benefitted from the assistance of professional chartered accountants and reputable legal counsel in the Waterloo area.
- (e) Trigger and Gdak hold the required licenses and designations from, as well as the trust of, the various regulatory authorities, whom I understand conduct exhaustive background checks into individuals involved in this business. These authorities are presumably aware of the sale of every firearm in Canada and keep careful track of the shipping, purchase and handling of every firearm sold.

- (f) There does not appear to be any obvious motive for Gdak and Trigger to engage in such a massive fraud in circumstances where his business appears to be growing exponentially.
- (g) There is no direct evidence that Gdak himself has personally benefitted from the fraud. There is no direct evidence that proceeds of fraud were utilized to acquire the real properties in Waterloo and Port Elgin.

55. Despite all of the above factors, my partners at Clearflow and I remain convinced that the preponderance of evidence of fraud is too overwhelming in this case. While we admit that we don't at this time have all the answers, there can be no reasonable explanation for the forged purchase orders, fake email addresses, the impersonation of others in emails and on conference calls, the forged transfer of real property, the phony agreement of purchase and sale and the indisputable massive exaggeration of accounts receivable by way of fabrication of invoices. Simply put, I cannot think of any way in which these items can be explained away by Mr. Gdak.

56. In any event, the unacceptable levels of over-90 day AR and constant default in providing required financial reporting would, in any event, have resulted in Clearflow terminating the credit facilities, issuing the Demands and NITES, and moving for the appointment of a Receiver even in the absence of evidence of fraud. While the evidence of the fraud demonstrates the need for the Court to appoint an Interim Receiver on an immediate basis for the protection of Trigger's estate and to protect the interests of Clearflow, Clearflow would in all likelihood be taking steps to place some or all of the Respondents into receivership within a short period of time anyway. It appears to Clearflow that Trigger may actually be insolvent. In these circumstances, I do not believe that it is possible that the Respondents will suffer any actual damages as a result of the interim Orders requested on this Application.

UNDERTAKING AS TO DAMAGES

57. In the event that the Court grants the interim receivership appointment as requested, and the Court subsequently decides that such order ought not to have been made as a result of material misrepresentations by Clearflow in its Court materials, and it is proven that Trigger or any of the Respondents have suffered damages as a result, I am authorized by Clearflow solely in my capacity as a representative of Clearflow, and not in my personal capacity, to undertake on behalf of Clearflow to be responsible for any such damages incurred.

AFFIDAVIT OF ALEXANDRA (SANDY) KANICHIS

I, Alexandra (Sandy) Kanichis, of the Town of Woodbridge, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am the Director of Operations of the Applicant in this proceeding, and as such, have knowledge of the following matters, either through my direct knowledge or by informing myself in respect thereof, in which case I indicate the source of my information and belief.
2. I have read the draft Affidavit of Martin Rees to be filed in support of this Application and to the extent I have personal knowledge of the facts set out therein, I agree with his evidence.

3. I am the partner at Clearflow who supervises the day to day administration of the Trigger credit facilities. I swear this Affidavit for the following purposes:

- (a) To supply additional details regarding the Trigger credit facilities;
- (b) To provide additional details regarding the growth in over-90 day AR with respect to Trigger's accounts receivable and other details regarding the growth in Trigger's business over the years;
- (c) To provide details with respect to Clearflow's suspicions that certain cheques allegedly issued by Trigger customers are forgeries;
- (d) To provide details of measures taken by Clearflow in response to Gdak's chronic lack of financial reporting; and
- (e) To provide additional details as to the involvement of Jaimee Gdak in the business operations of Trigger.

DETAILS OF THE CREDIT FACILITIES

4. The total amount owed by Trigger in favour of Clearflow was, as of October 6, 2020, $48,625,279.75. The credit facilities extended by Clearflow to Trigger were summarized in an Offer letter dated April 23, 2015 (the "Offer Letter"), and consisted of:

- (a) a Master Purchase and Sale Agreement dated April 30, 2015 (the "MPSA");
- (b) a Master Purchase Order Financing Agreement dated April 30, 2015 (the "PO Financing Agreement"); and

- (c) a Royalty Agreement dated April 30, 2015 (the “Royalty Agreement”).

Attached hereto as Exhibits “A”, “B” and “C” respectively are copies of the Offer Letter, the MPSA, the PO Financing Agreement and the Royalty Agreement.

THE MPSA

5. Pursuant to the terms of the MPSA and the standard terms which form part thereof, Trigger is required to provide Clearflow with a monthly list of all outstanding invoices issued by it to its customers. Clearflow then has the option to purchase all or a portion of these accounts receivable based on a payment to Trigger of 85% of the amounts shown as due and outstanding.

6. Clearflow then collects those receivables in the ordinary course as they are paid by Trigger’s customers, which are typically retail stores ranging from small, “mom and pop” shops to, as indicated above, national chains such as Canadian Tire and Home Hardware. These customers remit payment to Trigger on 30-60 day payment terms from the invoice date in respect of products ordered and delivered. Unless and until Clearflow receives payment in respect of its financed purchase orders, any funds advanced to Trigger are considered loans outstanding from Clearflow to Trigger.

7. As of October 6, 2020, Clearflow had purchased accounts from Trigger with a total value of $43,025,279.75, based on total accounts receivable allegedly due to Trigger by all of its customers collectively of $64,074,258.69.

8. At the request of Gdak, Clearflow has not followed its usual procedure for collection of accounts receivable, provided for in the MPSA, Gdak’s stated reason for this request is that the regulations imposed by the RCMP and other federal agencies, require that only Gdak could collect and handle the payments received from customers in respect of sales of firearms.

9. In addition to the accounts receivable financing described above, Clearflow also advanced the sum of $10,284,932.38 in the form of purchase order financing pursuant to the PO Financing Agreement. This amount is included in the total indebtedness indicated in my Affidavit above.

10. In addition to the financing summarized above, Clearflow has made occasional advances to Trigger based on discrete requests for specific financing for various business purposes. The aggregate total of these various one-time loans advanced by Clearflow to Trigger is $5,600,000.00. This amount is included in the total indebtedness owed to Clearflow set out above.

RAPID EXPANSION OF TRIGGER'S BUSINESS

11. As stated by Mr. Rees in his Affidavit, for the initial 12 months of the relationship between Trigger and Clearflow, Trigger's sales remained relatively flat. Over the next four years, however, Trigger's business appeared to take off. Sales started expanding at a rapid rate. I attach hereto review engagement financial statements for Trigger for the financial years ending March 31, 2019 and March 31, 2020. The 2019 statement, for example, shows sales in 2018 of $19,482,802, which increased to $60,980,735 in 2019. The internal statement for the year ended March 31, 2020 showed that annual sales had increased to $151,310,849.30. Gross profits for the same period increased from $7,509,508 in 2018 to $59,017,623.91 in 2020.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "D" are the draft review engagement financial statements for Trigger for the year ended March 31, 2019 and the draft, internal financial statement for the year ended March 31, 2020

12. In particular, over the years, it appeared that the largest growth in Trigger's business was with the major retail channels, specifically Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, which were allegedly purchasing from Trigger a large volume of firearms. As of October 6, 2020, Clearflow has purchased, since the beginning of the relationship with Trigger, Canadian Tire accounts receivable with a total value of $131,390,049 of which $84,744,429.38 has been collected, and $35,637,636.27 remains outstanding. The corresponding figures for Home Hardware are $58,083,426 of purchases of which $41,716,118.67 has paid and $16,367,307.58 remains outstanding respectively.

13. According to information furnished by Gdak, in December 2015, Trigger's sales started increasing from approximately $100k per month to over approximately $1 million per month by the end of June, 2017. This was accompanied by increases in the balance of AR owed to Trigger by its customers.

14. By June 2018 sales had increased to $5.1 million per month and the accounts receivable ending balance as of the end of June, 2018 was $13.45 million. Two years later, by the end of June, 2020, those figures had increased to sales of $16.31 million per month with an Ending AR Balance of $58.75 million.

15. By September, 2020, the amount of over 90 day AR owed to Trigger by its customers had escalated sharply to a total of $21,644,485.76. Corresponding deposits from customers had shrunk dramatically.

REQUIREMENTS IMPOSED ON TRIGGER AFTER THE SEPT. 28/20 MEETING WITH GDAK

16. After the September 28th, 2020 meeting between Gdak and Clearflow, Mr. Rees was temporarily unavailable and Mr. Petersen subsequently dealt with Gdak. Glenn and I had one additional meeting with Mr. Gdak on October 1, 2020, and I have spoken to Gdak a number of times since then.

17. In addition to demanding that Trigger allow Clearflow to control its cash management and cheque deposits, we subsequently demanded that Trigger agree to install at Trigger's premises a cheque deposit machine that will electronically provide Clearflow with notice of all cheques in favour of Trigger that pass through the Canadian cheque clearing system. Gdak agreed to this request, and since installing the machine, activity in Trigger's accounts has dropped to almost nothing and Trigger has never used the machine. A small fraction of the deposits that would historically have been made into Trigger's bank account are now being made.

FORGED CHEQUES

18. We then obtained and examined a series of Canadian Tire and Home Hardware cheques allegedly deposited into Trigger's bank account during the months of July and August, 2020. These cheques are obviously suspicious:

- (a) The bottoms of each cheque have been cut off in the photocopy provided by Gdak, such that account numbers and other information is not visible;
- (b) The cheques are stamped on the front with the name of an "attention of" person, namely Mr. Maguire and Ms. Shulist. I have never seen business cheques in my years of banking that would include an “attention of” name of an individual. There would be no reason for same;

- (c) These cheques, if they had been negotiated, would have stamps on the front or the back. The front sides of the cheques have no endorsement stamps and the backs of the cheques were not included in the copies sent by Gdak;
- (d) Finally, and perhaps most conspicuous is the fact that Mr. Maguire’s name is spelled differently (“Matt Maguire”) on the face of the supposed Canadian Tire cheques than the spelling of his name in the fake email address supplied by Gdak (“Matt Mcguire”). At the very least, this confirms that one or the other, if not both, of the cheques or the email addresses are faked.

INVOLVEMENT OF JAIMEE GDAK IN TRIGGER’S BUSINESS

19. The Respondents Jaimee and Jaimak Real Properties Inc. (“Jaimak”) own certain real property located in Waterloo, Ontario, and in Huron County, Ontario that I believe may have been acquired with the proceeds of the fraudulent activity perpetrated by the Gdaks. It appears to me that it is entirely possible that title to these properties has been placed in the names of Jaimee or Jaimak in an effort to shield assets from the reach of Clearflow and other creditors in the event that the fraudulent scheme was discovered.

Attached hereto as Exhibit “E” are copies of parcel pages showing that Jaimee or Jaimak hold title to the following real properties:

265 Old Post Road, Waterloo ON

250 Lion’s Court, Warterloo, ON

652 Colby Dr., Waterloo ON

47 Baker Rd., Port Elgin ON

157 Saugeen Beach Road, Port Elgin, ON

20. Jaimee Gdak is involved with daily accounting operations of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. Literally hundreds of emails have been exchanged between Jaimee, myself and the Clearflow admin Team with respect to:

- (a) processing credit card payments;
- (b) deposits made into the Trigger Ops Account and the Trigger Blocked Account;
- (c) deposits made into BMO Bank Trigger Ops Account that consisted of non factored payments.

21. The last email that she sent us was August 13, 2020 for credit card processing. After that date a new email address was created called Accounting@triggerwholesale.com, which I believe is another email for Jaimee Gdak and the admin team at Trigger. We also have an email from February 21, 2018 in which Jaimee submitted a schedule for funding. In a September 11, 2018 email Jaimee advised that she physically went to BMO Bank to make a deposit, and we have an email confirmation that she completed that day's deposit.

Attached hereto as Exhibit "F" are copies of all of the above-noted emails

22. In addition, at our meeting at Trigger Wholesale, Inc., on October 1, 2020, in attendance was Mark Gdak, Mike Nero from Trigger and Glenn Petersen and myself from Clearflow. Mark stated that Jaimee was working from home due to the Corona Virus Pandemic but that she was making collection calls on all the past due accounts of Independent Stores.

23. Lastly, I conducted a Google search against "Jaimee Gdak". One of the first entries that comes up on that search is a Zoom info page in the name of Trigger. In other words, if one Googles Jaimee, a Trigger Zoom info page comes up as one of the first entries.

24. Jamie is deeply involved in the day to day financial administration of Trigger, and takes an active part in managing the financial and accounts receivable side of Trigger's business. She is one of individuals at Trigger whom I would describe as part of the senior management team. It is impossible that she could not be aware of, and most likely actively participating in, fraud on such a massive scale.

25. I make this Affidavit in support of Clearflow's application for the appointment of a Receiver and for no other or improper purpose.

AFFIDAVIT OF GLENN PETERSEN

I, Glenn Petersen, of the City of Surrey, in the Province of British Columbia, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am a director and one of the four partners of the Applicant in this proceeding, and as such, have knowledge of the following matters, either through my direct knowledge or by informing myself in respect thereof, in which case I indicate the source of my information and belief.

2. I have reviewed the draft Affidavits of Martin Rees and Sandy Kanichis, both of which were prepared in support of this Application. To the extent I have personal knowledge of the contents of those Affidavits, I confirm and agree with the evidence contained therein (other than evidence that is specific to Mr. Rees or Ms. Kanichis, such as conversations at which I was not present, in which case I verily believe their evidence to be true). All capitalized terms herein have the same meaning ascribed to them in Mr. Rees' Affidavit.

3. In Mr. Rees' Affidavit, he testifies as to fraudulent invoices allegedly rendered to Canadian Tire by Trigger. I wish to add to Mr. Rees' testimony the following evidence that has very recently come to my attention with respect to Home Hardware.

4. On October 7, 2020, I was able to obtain from a third party (i.e., not connected in any way to Trigger) a standard form purchase order dated "06/20" (the "Home Hardware P.O.") issued by Home Hardware to one of its vendors. I understand that the issuance of a purchase order is the usual method by which Home Hardware procures stock from its vendors. This is an example of the format of purchase order that I believe is used by Home Hardware's in respect of goods ordered for the St. Jacob's location to be delivered by the vendor to the Home Hardware distribution centre.

Attached as Exhibit "A" is a copy of the legitimate Home Hardware purchase order referenced above

5. I also attach for comparison a copy of a purchase order sent to Clearflow by Trigger as evidence of an order for a large quantity of ammunition allegedly placed by Home Hardware on July 6, 2020 (the "Forged P.O.") to be delivered to the St. Jacobs location. I believe that this is not a legitimate Home Hardware purchase order. I believe that this is a falsified document that did not originate with Home Hardware. I believe that Gdak forged this purchase order in order to create the impression that Home Hardware had actually ordered the products listed thereon in order to induce Clearflow to make further advances to Trigger.

Attached as Exhibit "B" is a true copy of the Forged P.O.

6. A cursory review of the Home Hardware P.O. compared to the Forged P.O. reveals that the two documents are very different in design, format and tone of language used. In addition, the Forged P.O. contains at least three fairly-egregious spelling errors. While this is not determinative, in my experience, the presence of spelling errors in purchase orders of this type is not common.

7. Most importantly, the Home Hardware P.O. contains a significant amount of information that is missing from the Forged P.O. The legitimate purchase order sets out the delivery method, "routing" information, UPC codes for the products being ordered, the store number and the vendor number. None of this information appears on the Forged P.O. In addition, the Home Hardware PO identifies a specific "buyer" in relation to the products involved and does not contain a reference to a department. Based on my experience, information such as the vendor number and store number are absolutely critical information that are always set out in this type of purchase order.

8. Finally, I attach hereto a document that I believe to be a forged purchased order created by Gdak in respect of Canadian Tire. The design, format and type of language used in this document are so remarkably similar to the Forged Home Hardware P.O. that I cannot come to any other conclusion that they were prepared by the same person. I note as well that the forged Canadian Tire P.O. is missing the exact same information that is notably missing from the Forged Home Hardware P.O., specifically, delivery method, "routing" information, UPC codes for the products being ordered, the store number and the vendor number, all of which, as stated above, are almost always specified in purchase orders such as these.

9. I swear this Affidavit in support of Clearflow's Application for the appointment of a receiver over Trigger and for no improper purpose.

INTRODUCTION

1. Grant Thornton Limited (“GTL”) was appointed as Interim Receiver (the “IR”) of Trigger Wholesale Inc. (“Trigger”) and The En Cadre Group Inc. (“En Cadre”) (collectively, the “Debtors”) by order of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) dated October 13, 2020 (the “Interim Receivership Order”). Copies of the Interim Receivership Order and the Endorsement of the Honourable Madam Justice Gilmore are attached hereto as Appendix “1”.
2. Background information pertaining to the Debtors, including the circumstances leading to the appointment of the IR, are contained in the affidavits of Martin Rees, Sandy Kanishis and Glenn Peterson, each sworn October 9, 2020 (the “Clearflow Affidavits”) in support of Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp.’s (“Clearflow”) application for the appointment of the IR. A copy of the Clearflow Affidavits without appendices is attached hereto as Appendix “2” and are accessible on the IR’s case website at www.GrantThornton.ca/TWI. Clearflow is the primary secured creditor of the Debtors.
3. The Debtors are both companies that are incorporated in Ontario and are allegedly in the business of importing and distributing firearms, particularly shotguns, and associated ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtor’s customers allegedly include Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as small gun shops, outdoor stores, the military and police forces. The registered address for Trigger is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario. The directors of Trigger are Mark Gdak, Jaimee Lynn Gdak and Brian Richard Kelly. Although the IR understands that recently Mr. Kelly has resigned as a director of Trigger.
4. The IR does not have any knowledge at this time as to the precise nature of the business that En Cadre was engaged in prior to the granting of the Interim Receivership Order. The registered address for En Cadre is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario. The directors of En Cadre are Mark Gdak and Jaimee Lynn Gdak. The Debtor’s assets consist of:
 - a) accounts receivable due and owing from customers of the Debtor’s (“AR”);

- b) firearms and ammunition inventory owned by the Debtor's and stored in a secure facility located at 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Premises"); and
- c) miscellaneous assets, including office equipment and computers, goodwill, and customer lists.

DISCLAIMER

- 5. In preparing this report, the IR has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information related to the Debtors. While the IR has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards ("GAAS") or International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). Accordingly, the IR expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.
- 6. This report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to approve the relief sought by Clearflow, in respect of motion that is scheduled to be heard by the Court on October 22, 2020. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
- 7. All references to dollars in this report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF FIRST REPORT

- 8. The purpose of this, the IR's first report to Court (the "IR's First Report") is to advise the Court on the IR's activities since its appointment and to provide information to the Court pertaining to Clearflow's request for an Order, inter alia,
 - (a) converting the Interim Receivership Order into a Receivership Order (the "National Receivership Proceedings") pursuant to section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended (the "BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, as amended (the "CJA"), and appointing GTL as receiver (in such capacity the "Receiver") without security, of all of the assets, undertakings and properties of Trigger, En Cadre and certain real property owned by each of Jaimak Real Properties Inc. ("Jaimak") or Jaimee Lynn Gdak, (collectively, the "Property"), as specified in the draft Order included in the Clearflow Motion Record (collectively the "Debtors");

- (b) continuing the Mareva injunction relief set out in paragraphs 8, 9 and 10 of the Interim Receivership Order, subject to such amendments and additional terms, as set out in the draft Order included in the Clearflow Motion Record;
- (c) authorizing, but not obligating, GTL to file assignments in bankruptcy for each of Trigger and En Cadre under the BIA;
- (d) authorizing GTL to act as trustee in bankruptcy for each of Trigger and En Cadre;
- (e) authorizing GTL to transfer $30,000 from the National Receivership Proceedings to GTL, in its capacity as proposed trustee in bankruptcy, to fund the administration of the proposed bankruptcy proceedings of Trigger;
- (f) authorizing GTL to transfer $30,000 from the National Receivership Proceedings to GTL, in its capacity as proposed trustee in bankruptcy, to fund the administration of the proposed bankruptcy proceedings of En Cadre;

- (g) requiring Brian Kelly to provide information or documents to the Receiver, to aid in the Receiver's efforts to take control of the Property and discharge its duties under the National Receivership Proceedings;
- (h) authorizing the Receiver to conduct examinations of each of Mark Gdak, Jamiee Lynn Gdak, Brian Kelly, Mike Nero and Phil Searles, in respect of the Property that pertains to the National Receivership Proceedings; and
- (i) granting certain other ancillary relief, as detailed in the draft Order included in the Clearflow Motion Record.

TAKING POSSESSION

- 9. Prior to the IR's appointment, Clearflow management advised GTL that the Premises contained a large number of non-restricted, restricted and prohibited firearms, as well as ammunition and that the principal of Trigger, Mr. Gdak, had a permit to carry a concealed firearm.
- 10. In anticipation of being appointed as IR, GTL contacted the Chief Firearms Office for Ontario (the "CFO") to enquire if it was possible for a civilian to have a permit to carry a concealed firearm. The CFO advised that while such permits were very rarely granted, they did exist.
- 11. Upon its appointment, the IR attended at the Waterloo Police North Division station and sought assistance from the Waterloo Police Department in gaining entry to the Premises, due to the Premises containing firearms and ammunition.
- 12. There was no one present at the Premises when the IR arrived at approximately 6:00PM on October 13, 2020. Therefore, the IR called Mr. Gdak, notified him of the appointment of the IR, and asked that he attend the Premises to allow the IR to take possession thereof.
- 13. Mr. Gdak cooperated and attended at the Premises, provided the IR with the keys to the Premises, as well as the passcodes to the alarm system, names of the security monitoring company and Information Technology ("IT") consultant used by the Debtors. Mr. Gdak also provided the IR with a tour of the Premises prior to departing after advising that he was not prepared to answer any additional questions without speaking with his counsel. Mr. Gdak agreed to meet the IR at the Premises at 9:30AM the next day, October 14, 2020, to assist the IR with fulfilling its duties.

14. The CFO has advised that pursuant to section 91 of the Criminal Code (R.S.C., 1985, c. C-46) (the “Criminal Code”):

- a) anyone with access to non-restricted firearms must either hold a Non-Restricted Possession and Acquisition License (“NRPAL”), or be under the direct and immediate supervision of someone with an NRPAL; and
- b) anyone with access to restricted firearms must either hold a Restricted Possession and Acquisition License (“RPAL”) or be under the direct and immediate supervision of someone with an RPAL license.

15. Pursuant to Section 91 of the Criminal Code:

Unauthorized possession of firearm

91 (1) Subject to subsection (4), every person commits an offence who possesses a prohibited firearm, a restricted firearm or a non-restricted firearm without being the holder of

- (a) a licence under which the person may possess it; and
- (b) in the case of a prohibited firearm or a restricted firearm, a registration certificate for it.

Exceptions

(4) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to

- (a) a person who possesses a prohibited firearm, a restricted firearm, a non-restricted firearm, a prohibited weapon, a restricted weapon, a prohibited device or any prohibited ammunition while the person is under the direct and immediate supervision of a person who may lawfully possess it, for the purpose of using it in a manner in which the supervising person may lawfully use it; or
- (b) a person who comes into possession of a prohibited firearm, a restricted firearm, a non-restricted firearm, a prohibited weapon, a restricted weapon, a prohibited device or any prohibited ammunition by the operation of law and who, within a reasonable period after acquiring possession of it,
 - (i) lawfully disposes of it; or

16. The IR’s representative responsible for taking possession of the Premises holds the appropriate licenses to possess restricted and non-restricted firearms and provides direct and immediate supervision of anyone that entered the warehouse at the Premises where the firearms are stored in accordance with Section 91(4)(a).

17. The IR has also confirmed with the CFO that since the IR has come into possession of the firearms as a result of the Interim Receivership Order the exception provided in Section 91(4)(b) applies.
18. The IR has arranged for a security consultant, locksmith, security camera consultant and IT consultant to attend the Premises and proceeded to take possession of the Premises, which included:
 - a) changing the locks on the Premises;
 - b) reviewing the internal security of firearms and ammunition;
 - c) reviewing the setup of security cameras; and
 - d) reviewing the IT setup, backing up email and accounting data and disconnecting remote access to the Debtor's computer server.
19. The IR was unable to make arrangements to change access to the alarm system on the evening of October 13, 2020, therefore a security guard was posted outside the Premises, with instructions not to allow anyone to enter the Premises, other than the IR and its consultants.
20. At approximately 9:00AM on October 14, 2020, Mr. Gdak called the IR and advised that he would be unable to attend the Premises to assist the IR, as he would be meeting with his counsel. The IR requested that Mr. Gdak provide usernames and passwords to Trigger's accounting software ("Quickbooks"), so that an inventory and AR listing could be obtained. Mr. Gdak said that he could not remember the passwords and would provide them later in the day along with the inventory and AR listings.
21. On October 14, 2020, the IR spoke with The Waterloo Networking Company ("TWNC") which managed the Debtor's IT and arranged for only the IR to have access to Trigger's physical and virtual servers. The IR also spoke with the Summit Group, which hosts Trigger's Quickbooks and arranged for only the IR to have access to Quickbooks.
22. In addition, on its appointment, the IR notified Bank of Montreal, where the Debtors held certain bank accounts, to freeze the existing accounts for withdrawals, and make them for deposit only. At the time of the Interim Receivership Order, there was approximately $16,000 in aggregate in the bank accounts. In parallel with this, the IR opened new trust accounts for Trigger and En Cadre, as required by paragraph 17 of the Interim Receivership Order.

23. The IR has also confirmed that insurance is currently in place, however the policy was renewed in June, 2020 and no premiums have been paid. Premium arrears are currently $71,668 and are $14,343 per month going forward. The IR is investigating other more economical insurance options.
24. As required by the Interim Receivership Order, the IR set up and is maintaining a case website containing all publicly available information in these proceedings.

ASSETS

Accounts Receivable

25. Clearflow advises that it has currently factored Trigger's outstanding AR totalling $64,074,258 and provided the IR with a listing of this AR (the "Clearflow AR Listing"). A copy of the Clearflow AR Listing is attached here to as Appendix "3".
26. The IR has accessed Trigger's Quickbooks records and was able to print a report detailing amounts outstanding from customers, as at October 13, 2020 (the "Trigger AR Listing"). The Trigger AR Listing details amounts owing from customers totalling $1,510,458. A copy of the Trigger AR Listing is attached hereto as Appendix "4".
27. The IR asked Mr. Gdak to confirm that the Trigger AR Listing was correct, to which Mr. Gdak provided an alternative AR listing totalling $1,411,812 (the "Mr. Gdak AR Listing"), of which $467,738 represents inventory held at customers on consignment and based on the typical terms of consignment, has likely not been sold to the customer. The actual amount owing from customers according to Mr. Gdak is therefore $944,073. A copy of the Mr. Gdak AR Listing is attached hereto as Appendix "5".
28. The invoices listed on the Trigger AR Listing and the Mr. Gdak AR Listing are mostly less than $10,000 each. Clearflow advises that they did not factor invoices under $10,000. The IR has confirmed that none of the AR included on the Trigger AR Listing and the Mr. Gdak AR Listing is included on the Clearflow AR Listing.

29. On October 19, 2020 the IR asked Mr. Gdak if any of the AR on the Clearflow AR Listing were collectible to which Mr. Gdak replied that Trigger's only AR are those listed on the Mr. Gdak AR Listing. Based upon the IR's initial findings, it is concerned that all of the invoices factored by Clearflow totalling $64,074,258 may not be real, but further investigation is required with respect to this matter.
30. The IR is in the process of contacting all customers and requesting that they verify the amounts owing to Trigger.

Inventory

31. Clearflow advised the IR that on September 28, 2020 Trigger told Clearflow that the inventory at the Premises had a cost value of approximately $6 million.
32. While there were firearms and ammunition at the Premises, it was apparent to the IR, based on the quantity onsite, that the value was significantly less than $6 million.
33. The IR opened numerous boxes of handguns, which are restricted firearms, and noted that they were all in disrepair and rusted. These firearms are unusable in their current condition and have very little value.
34. The IR also opened numerous boxes of rifles, which are non-restricted firearms, and noted that they appeared to be in new condition.
35. On the afternoon of October 14, 2020, Mr. Gdak emailed the IR an inventory listing which states the cost value of the inventory at the Premises is $1,999,058 (the "Inventory Listing"). The Inventory Listing appears to be prepared in Excel rather than a printout from Quickbooks. A copy of the Inventory Listing is attached hereto as Appendix "6". The IR has not been able to generate a similar listing in Quickbooks, therefore it appears that Trigger may not have maintained its inventory records in Quickbooks.

IR'S PRELIMINARY FINDINGS TO SUPPORT CLEARFLOW'S CONCERNS

Discussion with Mr. Gdak

36. On October 19, 2020, the IR received a call from Mr. Gdak in which he advised that he was preparing a plan to repay part of the funds advanced by Clearflow. This plan included handing over five properties with equity of approximately $7 million to Clearflow, two of which were under contract to be sold. Clearflow is aware of the following five properties that are owned by either Jaimak or Mrs. Gdak:

- a) 652 Colby Dr, Waterloo, ON N2V 1A2;
- b) 250 Lions Ct, Waterloo, ON N2L 6M8;
- c) 157 Saugeen Beach Rd, Port Elgin, ON N0H 2C5;
- d) 43 Baker Rd, Port Elgin, ON N0H 2C5; and
- e) 265 Old Post Road, Waterloo

The IR believes that Mr. Gdak was referring to these five properties.

CFO Audit Letter

- 37. The IR contacted the CFO and has requested that an inventory audit be completed to ensure that all restricted firearms registered to Trigger are located at the Premises. The CFO has acknowledged the IR's request and advises it will schedule an audit as soon as possible.
- 38. The CFO also advised that the last audit was completed in December 2019. Clearflow has provided the IR with copies of the CFO audit letters it obtained from Trigger dated March 5, 2020 and May 11, 2020. The IR has provided these letters to the CFO, who has advised that while a letter dated March 5, 2020 was issued to Trigger in respect of the December 2019 audit, the letter provided by Clearflow has been substantially altered from the original letter issued by the CFO. Examples of alternations include:
 - a) changing the number of restricted firearms located at the Premises from 1,114 to 31,114, the number of self audited items from 200 to 3000 and the number of CFO audited items from 162 to 3162; and
 - b) changing the number of reported cameras on the premises from 16 to 32;
 - c) changing the number of motion sensors in the warehouse from 11 to 14;
 - d) removing a sentence that advised the panic alarms were not in use at the time of inspection;
 - e) stating that an audit of Trigger's service ledge was completed finding no issues to report when there is no mention of such an audit in the original letter; and

- f) adding a statement that this is the 24th inspection without issue and continuous advancements in security and operations when there is no such statement in the original letter.

The CFO also advised that the letter dated May 11, 2020 was not issued by the CFO and the audit referred to therein never occurred. Copies of the letters provided to Clearflow by Trigger and the actual letters provided to Trigger by the CFO are attached hereto as Appendices “7” and “8” respectively.

Customer Email Accounts

39. The Clearflow Affidavits state that Trigger created fake email addresses for supposed Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees, which Trigger used to provide false sales and AR information to Clearflow.
40. The Receiver located emails from Phil Searles (“Mr. Searles”), a Trigger employee, to TWNC requesting that the following new domains be created on August 12 and 13, 2020:
- @hhdist.on.ca
 - @cdntops.com
41. The Receiver also located emails from Mr. Searles and Mr. Gdak to TWNC dated August 12, 13 and 18, 2020, requesting that the following email addresses be urgently created:
- matt.mcguire@cdntops.com
 - c.shulist@hhdist.ca
 - r.egan@hhdist.ca

Copies of the August 12, 13 and 18, 2020 emails are attached hereto as Appendix “9”. An excerpt from one of the emails is provided below.

From: Mark Gdak <Mark@triggerwholesale.com>
Sent: August 12, 2020 1:49 PM
To: Phil Searles <Phil@triggerwholesale.com>; twnc.ucr <ucr@twnc.com>
Cc: Scott Downing <SDowning@twnc.com>
Subject: RE: NEW DOMAIN AND NEW EMAIL USER REQUEST

Here is the user that needs to be set up:
Name: Matthew McGuire
Email: matt.mcguire@cdntops.com

42. The IR also located two laptop computers in Mr. Gdak and his spouse, Jaimee Gdak's ("Mrs. Gdak") office. These computers were logged into the email accounts for r.egan@hhdist.ca and matt.mcguire@cdntops.com. Print screens of these two email account pages are attached hereto as Appendix "10".
43. It would appear that Mr. Gdak and/or Mrs. Gdak were using these computers to impersonate Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees.

Cheques Located Onsite

44. The IR located 27 uncashed cheques from what appear to be Trigger customers totalling $1,654,693.75 (the "Uncashed Cheques"), including the following two cheques from what appear to be Home Hardware Building Centre:
- a) cheque number 350015 dated August 18, 2020 in the amount of $696,150.00; and
 - b) cheque number 336201 dated July 24, 2019 in the amount of $382,222.50.
45. The Uncashed Cheques were all drawn on accounts from either Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC"), Bank of Nova Scotia ("BNS") or Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC"). It appeared that all cheques drawn on accounts from each financial institution used the exact same background and same font. Copies of Uncashed Cheques with a schedule summarizing same are attached hereto as Appendix "11".
46. The IR also located boxes of paper printed with the exact same cheque stock for each of CIBC, BNS and RBC. The cheque stock paper was located in the office of Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak.
47. Clearflow has advised that in early August 2020, it requested that Trigger provide scanned copies of cheques it was depositing into the Clearflow blocked account at BMO (the "Blocked Account"). While 5 of the Uncashed Cheques are dated in July 2019, the remaining 22 cheques are dated in August 2020. Therefore, it appears that Trigger created cheques in the names of certain customers to provide to Clearflow in support of deposits it was making to the Blocked Account.

The IR continues to investigate the true source of funds being deposited into the Blocked Account.

Accounting Entries

48. Quickbooks maintains a log of all entries made by each user (the “Audit History”). The IR has reviewed this Audit History which shows that entries for what appear to be false sales were largely made by Mr. Searles. Numerous AR collections were recorded by Mrs. Gdak. It therefore appears that both Mr. Searles and Mrs. Gdak may have participated in manipulating the accounting records.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

49. The preliminary investigation conducted by the IR has revealed that Trigger’s management, specifically, Mr. Gdak, Mrs. Gdak and Mr. Searles, appears to have been involved in the following activity:
- a) entering false customer sales and payments in Trigger’s accounting records;
 - b) creating email accounts to impersonate Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees;
 - c) preparing false customer cheques on false CIBC, BNS and RBC accounts and providing same to Clearflow, as evidence of customer payments;
 - d) providing false AR information to Clearflow; and
 - e) falsifying letters from the CFO and providing such falsified letters to Clearflow.
50. The IR is of the view that in order to understand what happened to Clearflow’s advances and the use of those funds, a more extensive investigation will be required, including, but not limited to, a full review of the Debtor’s banking activity and reconciliation of customer balances.

51. Based on the foregoing, the IR respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant an Order, in respect of the relief sought by Clearflow, as detailed in paragraph 8 of the IR's First Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

 - c) approving the sale transaction (the “Transaction”) contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated October 9, 2020 between J. Gdak, as vendor, and Paul German and Julie German (collectively, the “Purchasers”), as purchasers, as amended by an amending agreement dated October 30, 2020 between the Receiver and the Purchasers, and as further amended by a second amending agreement dated November 6, 2020 between the Receiver and the Purchasers for the purchase and sale of a property located at 43 Baker Rd., Port Elgin, Ontario (the “Purchased Property”) (the “Sale Agreement") and authorizing the Receiver to take such steps and execute such documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction;

- d) vesting in the Purchasers all of J. Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property, free and clear of all encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances;
- e) sealing certain Confidential Appendices to the First Report;
- f) approving the fees and disbursements of the IR and the Receiver for the period from October 8, 2020 to October 31, 2020, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn November 20, 2020; and
- g) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), legal counsel to the IR and the Receiver for the period from October 9, 2020 to October 31, 2020, as set out in the Affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn November 20, 2020.

Sale of 43 Baker Road, Port Elgin, Ontario

- 9. Prior to the appointment of the IR and the Receiver, J. Gdak entered into an agreement of purchase and sale dated October 9, 2020 with the Purchasers for the Purchased Property. The closing date stated in the Sale Agreement was October 30, 2020. A copy of the redacted agreement of purchase and sale dated October 9, 2020 is attached hereto as Appendix "5". A copy of the unredacted Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix "1".
- 10. On October 30, 2020, the Receiver and the Purchasers executed an amendment to the Sale Agreement to extend the closing date to November 6, 2020, to allow the Receiver to obtain a valuation of the Purchased Property (the "October 30 Amendment").
- 11. The Receiver engaged a realtor to provide an opinion of value on the Purchased Property (the "Opinion of Value"), in order to assess the reasonableness of the proposed selling price. A copy of the Opinion of Value is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix "2". The Opinion of Value verified that the proposed selling price in the Sale Agreement is reasonable.
- 12. On November 6, 2020 the Receiver and the Purchasers executed a further amendment to the Sale Agreement (the "November 6 Amendment"). The Transaction is subject to Court approval, since the amount of the selling price exceeds the Receiver's limit to sell assets, as specified in the Receivership Order. Copies of the October 30 Amendment and the November 6 Amendment are attached hereto as Confidential Appendices "3" and "4".

13. The Receiver reviewed the Sale Agreement and the Opinion of Value with Clearflow, who supports the proposed Transaction.
14. The Receiver recommends that the Transaction be approved by the Court for the following reasons:
 - a) the Transaction was originally entered into by J. Gdak;
 - b) the Receiver has obtained an Opinion of Value which supports the economics of the proposed Transaction; and
 - c) the Transaction is in the best interests of the stakeholders in the within receivership proceedings.

Confidentiality

15. The Receiver believes that the Confidential Appendices should remain sealed until the closing of the Transaction as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the sale of the Purchased Property. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer for the Purchased Property, should the proposed Transaction not close.
16. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices are sealed in this manner.

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

17. The IR, the Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
18. Pursuant to paragraph 22 of the IR Order and paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the IR and the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.

19. The total fees and disbursements of the IR and the Receiver from October 8, 2020 to October 31, 2020 amount to $138,262.97 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly describe in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn November 20, 2020, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "6".
20. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver's counsel, BLG, from October 9, 2020 to October 31, 2020 amount to $46,400.06 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly describe in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn November 20, 2020, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "7".
21. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

22. Based on the foregoing, the IR and the Receiver respectfully request that this Honourable Court grant an Order, in respect of the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 8 of the First Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Lawyers for Grant Thornton Limited, in its capacity as Court-appointed Receiver of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. and The En Cadre Group Inc.

Two motions were brought in the in above-noted matter via Zoom video conference today.

The counsel in attendance are those whose names appear on the attached counsel slip.

Endorsement

The Receiver brings the first motion seeking approval of the sale transaction of one of five real properties owned by the respondent Jaimee Lynn Gdak. The property is municipally known as 43 Baker Road, Port Elgin, Ontario (the "Property"). Ms. Gdak was served on the motion and is now represented by counsel. The motion is unopposed.

Ms. Gdak had entered into an agreement of purchase and sale with the purchasers and the Receiver will complete that transaction. The Receiver's report states that it obtained an opinion of value that supports the transaction and that the transaction is in the best interests of the stakeholders in these receivership proceedings. I am satisfied that the Soundair principles have been met in this case and that the transaction should be approved.

I have reviewed the First Report of the interim Receiver and the First Report of the Receiver, and the Receiver's activities as described in its respective reports should be approved. The fees and disbursements of the interim Receiver, the Receiver and its counsel, as set out in the First Report, appear to be in order and should be approved.

Approval and Vesting Order to go in the form attached hereto and signed by me. The Order is effective as of today's date and does not need to be entered.

The Approval and Vesting Order contains a sealing order with respect to the Confidential Appendices. I am satisfied that the Sierra Club test has been met for these materials. On the resumption of regular court operations, it will be the responsibility of counsel for the Receiver to ensure that the subject materials are properly identified and protected under seal in the court file.

Ms. Gdak brings the second motion for an order that the Receiver be authorized to pay her counsel the sum of $30,000 as a retainer when any one of the five real properties owned by her or Jaimak Real Properties Inc., which are included in the receivership assets, is sold and the Receiver is in possession of sale proceeds.

There is no opposition to this order. A similar order was made by Justice McEwen on October 22, 2020, when the Receiver was appointed, with respect to the respondent Mark Gdak. At the time of Justice McEwen's order, Ms. Gdak had not yet retained counsel. Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak are subject to a Mareva injunction.

Order to go in the form attached hereto and signed by me. The Order is effective as of today's date and it does not need to be entered.

BACKGROUND

12. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms, particularly shotguns, and associated ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors’ customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, the military and police forces. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the “Premises”). The directors of Trigger are Mark Gdak (“Mr. Gdak”), Jaimee Lynn Gdak (“Mrs. Gdak”) and Brian Richard Kelly (“Brian Kelly”). Brian Kelly also acted as the Debtors’ legal counsel. Brian Kelly resigned as director of the Trigger shortly after the Interim Receiver was appointed.
13. Clearflow provided accounts receivable (“AR”) factoring services to Trigger. Trigger provided Clearflow with a listing of AR that qualified for factoring and Clearflow would transfer funding to a bank account at Bank of Montreal (“BMO”) (the “Clearflow Funding Account”). Trigger would then transfer the funding to its operating account at BMO (the “Trigger Operating Account”). When customers paid their account, the amount was deposited to a blocked account from which Clearflow would sweep funds in repayment of its advances to Trigger (the “Trigger Blocked Account”). Trigger would provide Clearflow with a list of receivables that were collected such that Clearflow could maintain a record of outstanding AR that remained eligible for factoring.

Fictitious Accounts Receivable

14. As noted above, Clearflow factored Trigger's AR and advises the Receiver that it had factored Trigger AR totalling $64,074,258 (the "Factored AR"), as at the date the Interim Receiver was appointed.
15. Mr. Gdak provided the Interim Receiver with an alternative AR listing totalling $1,411,812 of which $467,738 represents inventory held at customers on consignment. The actual amount owing from customers according to Mr. Gdak is therefore $944,073. This AR was not included in the Factored AR. Mr. Gdak advised that all the Factored AR was fictitious, as the inventory detailed on these invoices had never been shipped to customers.
16. Trigger reported significant sales to Canadian Tire and Home Hardware. When Clearflow requested to Mr. Gdak that it be permitted to communicate directly with these customers to verify sales and outstanding AR, Mr. Gdak created fictitious email accounts for Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees as follows:
 - matt.mcguire@cdntops.com;
 - c.shulist@hhdist.ca; and
 - r.egan@hhdist.ca.
17. The Interim Receiver located two laptop computers in Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak's shared office that were logged into the email accounts for r.egan@hhdist.ca and matt.mcguire@cdntops.com. It would appear that Mr. Gdak and/or Mrs. Gdak were using these computers and email accounts to impersonate Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees in order to respond to Clearflow inquiries and avoid detection of the fictitious activity.
18. In order to demonstrate that the fictitious AR was being collected, Trigger would write cheques from the Trigger Operating account in the amounts of fictitious AR invoices and would deposit those cheques into the Trigger Blocked Account.
19. In August 2020 Clearflow required that Trigger provide copies of customer cheques that were being deposited to the Blocked Account. Trigger thereafter printed fictitious blank cheque stock for Bank of Nova Scotia, Royal Bank of Canada and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, on which fictitious customer payment details were printed. Copies of these cheques were then provided to Clearflow to correspond with the cheques drawn on the Trigger Operating Account that were being deposited to the Trigger Blocked Account.

Chief Firearms Office

20. In the Interim Receiver's Report the Interim Receiver advised that its discussions with the Chief Firearms Office ("CFO") revealed that Trigger had altered a letter from the CFO in respect of its inventory audit in December 2019 and that Trigger had created an entirely fictitious letter from the CFO in respect of a 2020 audit that never occurred.

Trigger Operations Summary

21. Mr. Gdak created an elaborate system to mislead Clearflow into believing that the Trigger business was much larger than it actually was in order to obtain financing far in excess of what would have been available based on Trigger's actual sales.

ACTIVIES OF THE RECEIVER

The BMO Overdraft

22. Trigger's banking facilities were with BMO. Beginning on July 31, 2020 Trigger began running an overdraft in the Trigger Operating Account such that by August 19, 2020 the overdraft had reached $3,500,260.53 (the "Overdraft").
23. BMO does not have security over the assets, properties and undertaking of Trigger, nor does it have a registration against Trigger under the Personal Property Security Act (the "PPSA"). A copy of the Enquiry Response Certificate with a file currency of November 2, 2020, with respect to registrations made against Trigger under the PPSA is attached hereto as Appendix "7".
24. In light of the foregoing, the Receiver made an enquiry with BMO as to the nature of any security held which would support an overdraft of this magnitude. BMO advised that it held no security and that the Overdraft was unauthorized. BMO further advised that it had requested that the Overdraft be repaid immediately, but did not take action against Trigger since Mr. Gdak provided copies of email correspondence between Trigger and Clearflow indicating that funding was imminently being provided by Clearflow. BMO provided this correspondence to the Receiver.
25. The Receiver reviewed this correspondence with Clearflow, who advised that the email communications were from email accounts that were similar to actual Clearflow accounts, but were in fact fictitious. The email correspondence was from SandyK@clearflowfinanceinc.com. The real email address of the Clearflow employee being impersonated is SandyK@clearflowfinance.com. Additionally, the contact phone number provided to BMO was 647-284-2622. Clearflow has advised that this phone number is incorrect. The Receiver called this number and it is no longer in service. Copies of this email correspondence is attached hereto as Appendix “8”.

26. It appears that the fictitious email accounts were created to convince BMO that Clearflow was providing funding to clear the Overdraft. The correspondence provided to BMO seems to have provided comfort to BMO that the overdraft was a result of a funding delay from Clearflow.
27. Trigger advised Clearflow that this funding was needed to complete the prepayment of inventory. Clearflow advises that it was unaware that Trigger was in overdraft with BMO.
28. Clearflow provided funding in the amount of $4,068,155 on August 20, 2020, which funds were deployed to clear the Overdraft with BMO. By August 24, 2020, Trigger was again in overdraft with BMO by $3,319,383.93 (the “Second Overdraft”), after which Clearflow provided additional funding of $4,000,000 between August 24 and 25, 2020, which funds were deployed to clear the Second Overdraft with BMO.

THE PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSETS

29. Since being appointed, the Receiver has undertaken a review of Trigger’s bank accounts, having regard to the allegations set out in the Clearflow Affidavits. The Receiver’s review of various transactions from Trigger’s bank account has uncovered payments to purchase numerous personal property assets. The Receiver was able to contact the various sellers of each of these assets and has learned that each asset was sold to and/or registered in the name of Mr. Gdak or Mrs. Gdak. The following is a listing of these assets:
 - a) 2018 Sea Ray SLX400 (the “Sea Ray”);
 - b) 2018 Scarab 255 Impulse boat with 2018 Karavan 255 trailer (the “Scarab”);
 - c) Two 2018 Can Am Outlander 850 XMR all terrain vehicles (the “ATVs”);

- d) Two 2018 Sea Doo GTI SE155 personal watercraft with 2018 Sea Doo Move II trailer (the “Sea Doos”);
- e) 2019 CTC 7X9 Black and Red Trailer (the “Trailer”);
- f) 2017 Land Rover Range Rover Sport (the “Range Rover”); and
- g) Rolex Diamond Dial Watch, Rolex Datejust Diamond Watch, Breitling Watch, Omega Watch, and a ladies 18 Karat Paladium Diamond Necklace (collectively, the “Jewelry”);

(all collectively herein referred to as the “Personal Property Assets”).

30. The Receiver conducted an examination of Mrs. Gdak on November 16, 2020, in accordance with paragraph 8 of the Receivership Order, at which time counsel for the Receiver questioned Mrs. Gdak about, inter alia, the purchase of certain of the Personal Property Assets (the “Examination”). A copy of the transcript of the Examination (the “Examination Transcript”) is attached hereto at Appendix “9”. A number of undertakings were provided at the Examination. On February 5, 2021, Benjamin Blay, a partner with Cohen Highley LLP, counsel to Mrs. Gdak, sent an email to Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (“BLG”), counsel to the Receiver, attaching a letter and various documents, providing various answers to the undertakings. A copy of Mr. Blay’s correspondence of February 5, 2021, together with the documents provided, is attached hereto as Appendix “10”.

The Sea Ray

31. On or about November 10, 2020 the Receiver learned that Mr. Gdak or Mrs. Gdak owned the Sea Ray, which was stored at Pride Marine Group Limited (“Pride Marine”) in Orillia, Ontario and that Mr. Gdak may have been attempting to sell the Sea Ray. The Receiver therefore contacted Pride Marine and advised them of the Mareva provisions included in both the Interim Receivership Order and the Receivership Order and advised that the Sea Ray was not to be sold without Court authorization.
32. Pride Marine confirmed that they were in possession of the Sea Ray, that there were interested purchasers, and that Mr. Gdak was in the process of negotiating the sale of the Sea Ray. Pride Marine however advised that they would not complete a sale without the Receiver’s authorization.

33. On January 8, 2021, Pride Marine contacted the Receiver and advised that Mr. Gdak had advised that his legal issues were about to be resolved and that he wished to complete the sale of the Sea Ray. The Receiver advised that this was not accurate and that the Sea Ray could still not be sold.
34. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that the Sea Ray was registered in her name (question 237 of the Examination Transcript) and had been purchased using funds from her and Mr. Gdak's personal bank account and investments (see questions 236 and 247 of the Examination Transcript).
35. The Receiver asked Pride Marine to provide a copy of the original bill of sale for when the Sea Ray was purchased (the "Sea Ray Marine Purchase Contract") which confirms that, contrary to the statement made by Mrs. Gdak during the Examination, the purchaser was Mr. Gdak. The Sea Ray Marine Purchase Contract was also provided by Mr. Blay, as an attachment to his correspondence to BLG of February 5, 2021, as noted above. Pride Marine also provided the Sea Ray registration showing the Sea Ray is registered to Mr. Gdak (the "Sea Ray Registration"). The payment schedule provided by Pride Marine (the "Sea Ray Payment Schedule") details that the purchase price of $797,094.75 was paid as follows:
 - a) January 26, 2019 - $5,000.00 (AMEX);
 - b) March 26, 2019 – 250,000.00 (transfer);
 - c) March 28, 2019 – 250,000.00 (transfer); and
 - d) March 29, 2019 – 292,094.75 (transfer).
36. The Receiver reviewed the Trigger Operating Account details and noted that transfers were made in these exact amounts on March 26, 28 and 29, 2019 to a bank account which Pride Marine has confirmed is their account number.
37. Just prior to each payment to Pride Marine, there is a transfer from the Clearflow Funding Account. The Receiver has reviewed the Clearflow Funding Account details and notes that funds were advanced from Clearflow just prior to the transfers being made from the Clearflow Funding Account to the Trigger Operating Account.
38. The flow of funds was therefore as follows:
 - a) Clearflow to Clearflow Funding Account;
 - b) Clearflow Funding Account to Trigger Operating Account; and
 - c) Trigger Operating Account to Pride Marine.

39. Copies of the Sea Ray Marine Purchase Contract, the Sea Ray Registration, the Sea Ray Payment Schedule, the Trigger Operating Account details and the Clearflow Funding Account details are attached hereto together as Appendix “11”.
40. While Mrs. Gdak advised during the Examination that the Sea Ray was purchased with funds from Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak’s personal bank account or investments, it is clear that payment for the Sea Ray came from Trigger’s bank account, using funds obtained from Clearflow.

Sale of the Sea Ray

41. On February 8, 2021, Mr. Justice Hainey issued a consent Endorsement (the “Sea Ray Endorsement”) authorizing the Receiver to market the Sea Ray for sale and enter into any agreements for a sale of the Sea Ray, but that any sale of the Sea Ray would be subject to Court approval. A copy of the Sea Ray Endorsement is attached hereto as Appendix “12”.
42. Pride Marine advises that Mr. Gdak signed a listing agreement for the Sea Ray on October 23, 2020 (the “Sea Ray Listing Agreement”). Pride Marine also advises that it has been approached by four different purchasers for the Sea Ray and has identified Scott R. Boldt as the purchaser with the highest offer (the “Sea Ray Purchaser”).
43. In accordance with the Sea Ray Endorsement, the Receiver has negotiated a proposed transaction and a form of agreement of purchase and sale with the Sea Ray Purchaser, for a price that appears reasonable to both Pride Marine and the Receiver (the “Sea Ray APS”). The Sea Ray APS is subject to Court approval. A copy of the Sea Ray APS, along with a schedule detailing the original purchase price, the listing price and all offers received by Pride Marine are provided in Confidential Appendix “1”. A copy of the Sea Ray APS which has been redacted to remove certain sensitive information is attached as Appendix “13”.
44. If the Court authorizes the Receiver to complete the sale of the Sea Ray, the Receiver proposes to complete the sale to the Sea Ray Purchaser in accordance with the Sea Ray APS (the “Sea Ray Transaction”).
45. Pride Marine has exposed the Sea Ray to the market and the proposed purchase price is reasonable given the original purchase price of the Sea Ray and the other offers obtained by Pride Marine.

46. Given the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court issue an order authorizing and directing the Receiver to complete the Sea Ray Transaction and vesting the Debtors', Mrs. Gdak's and Mr. Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Sea Ray in the Sea Ray Purchaser, free and clear of all claims and encumbrances.
47. Upon completion of the sale, the Receiver intends to pay to Pride Marine the 10% selling commission, as specified in the Sea Ray Listing Agreement.

The Scarab

48. The Receiver became aware of the Scarab which is located in the garage of the property located at Saugeen Beach Road (as defined below).
49. In the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that the Scarab had been purchased from Team Vincent in 2017 and that the Scarab may be registered in her name. She also advised that the Scarab was purchased using funds from her and Mr. Gdak's personal bank account (see questions 256 to 262 of the Examination Transcript).
50. The Receiver located a bank draft payable to Team Vincent in the amount of $95,264.00 dated August 2, 2018 (the "Scarab Bank Draft") paid from the Trigger Operating Account.
51. Immediately prior to this payment, $300,000 was transferred from the Clearflow Funding Account to the Trigger Operating Account, and immediately prior to this transfer, Clearflow transferred $276,262.14 to the Clearflow Funding Account.
52. The Receiver contacted Team Vincent and obtained a copy of the invoice for the Scarab, which is dated July 31, 2018 and shows Mr. Gdak as the purchaser (the "Scarab Invoice").
53. Copies of the Scarab Invoice, the Scarab Bank Draft, along with the transfer details from the Trigger Operating Account and the Clearflow Funding Account are attached hereto as Appendix "14".
54. While Mrs. Gdak advised during the Examination that the Scarab was purchased with funds from Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak's personal bank account, it is clear that payment for the Scarab came from Trigger's bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

The ATVs

55. The Receiver became aware of the ATVs which were located in the garage of Saugeen Beach Road.
56. The Receiver located a cheque payable to Team Vincent in the amount of $32,336.07 dated October 26, 2018 (the “ATVs Cheque”) which cleared Trigger’s Operating Account on October 30, 2018.
57. Immediately prior to this payment, Clearflow transferred $161,063.87 to the Clearflow Funding Account, from which $175,396.25 was transferred to the Trigger Operating Account. Without this funding from Clearflow, there would have been insufficient funds in the Trigger Operating Account for the ATV Cheque to clear.
58. The Receiver contacted Team Vincent and obtained a copy of the invoice for the ATVs which is dated October 22, 2018 and shows Mr. Gdak as the purchaser (the “ATVs Invoice”).
59. Copies of the ATVs Invoice, ATVs Cheque along with the transfer details from the Trigger Operating Account and the Clearflow Funding Account are attached hereto as Appendix “15”.
60. It is clear that payment for the ATVs came from Trigger’s bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

The Sea Doos

61. During the Receiver’s discussions with Team Vincent, the Receiver became aware that Mr. Gdak had also purchased the Sea Doos. The Receiver does not know the current location of the Sea Doos. Team Vincent provided the Receiver with a copy of the invoice for the Sea Doos, which is dated May 2, 2018 in the amount of $34,897.77 and shows Mr. Gdak as the purchaser (the “Sea Doos Invoice”).
62. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that other than the Sea Ray, the Scarab, the Range Rover and the ATVs, she and Mr. Gdak did not own any other vehicles (see paragraphs 280 and 281 of the Examination Transcript).
63. The Receiver reviewed Trigger’s bank account transactions and located a bank draft payable to Team Vincent in the amount of $33,897.77 dated May 16, 2018 (the “Sea Doos Bank Draft”) paid directly from the Clearflow Funding Account.

The amount of the Sea Doo Bank Draft is $1,000.00 less than the amount of the Sea Doo Invoices, which likely represents a deposit.

64. Copies of the Sea Doos Invoice, Sea Doos Bank Draft along with the bank account details for the Clearflow Funding Account are attached hereto as Appendix “16”.
65. It is clear that payment for the Sea Doos came from Trigger’s bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

The Trailer

66. Upon taking possession of the Premises, the Receiver noticed the Trailer in the parking lot. The Receiver asked Mr. Gdak if the Trailer was an asset of Trigger, to which Mr. Gdak replied that it was. The Receiver therefore took possession of the Trailer and made arrangements for its sale through a liquidator.
67. The liquidator subsequently learned that the Trailer was in fact registered to Mr. Gdak. Therefore, the Receiver made arrangements for Mr. Gdak to retrieve the Trailer.
68. The Receiver’s subsequent review of Trigger’s bank account transactions located two transfers to Troy’s Toys in the amounts of $2,500.00 and $9,413.59 on December 17, 2018 and January 28, 2019, respectively, from the Clearflow Funding Account totalling $11,913.59 (the “Trailer Payments”).
69. The Receiver obtained a Used Vehicle Information Package from Service Ontario which states that the Trailer was registered to Mr. Gdak on January 25, 2019 (the “UVIP”).
70. The Receiver conducted an internet search on Troy’s Toys and located the website for this trailer dealer. The accounting department at Troy’s Toys provided the Receiver with a copy of the invoice for the Trailer dated January 26, 2019 in the amount of $11,913.59 (the “Trailer Invoice”) and confirmed that payment was received as detailed above.
71. Copies of the Trailer Invoice, the UVIP and the Trailer Payments are attached hereto as Appendix “17”.
72. It is clear that payment for the Trailer came from Trigger’s bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

The Range Rover

73. The Receiver was aware that Mrs. Gdak drives the Range Rover.
74. During the Receiver's review of Trigger's bank account transactions, the Receiver located a bank draft payable to Landrover Waterloo in the amount of $127,000.00 dated November 22, 2017 (the "Range Rover Bank Draft") paid directly from the Clearflow Funding Account.
75. The Receiver contacted Landrover Waterloo and obtained a copy of the invoice for the Range Rover which is dated November 21, 2017 and is in the amount of $127,000.00 and shows Trigger as the purchaser (the "Range Rover Invoice").
76. The Receiver conducted a registration search with the Ontario Ministry of Transportation, which revealed that despite the Range Rover being purchased by Trigger and paid for by Trigger, the Range Rover is registered to Mrs. Gdak (the "Range Rover Registration").
77. Copies of the Range Rover Bank Draft, the Range Rover Invoice along with the bank account details for the Clearflow Funding Account are attached hereto as Appendix "18".
78. It is clear that payment for the Range Rover came from Trigger's bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

The Jewelry

79. During the Receiver's review of Trigger's bank account transactions the Receiver located the following bank drafts payable to Raffi Jewelers:
 - a) $54,240.00 dated December 27, 2017;
 - b) $32,770.00 dated January 1, 2018;
 - c) $7,684.00 dated January 9, 2018;
 - d) $18,645.00 dated February 2, 2018; and
 - e) $25,850.00 dated November 1, 2018(collectively, the "Jewelry Bank Drafts"). The Jewelry Bank Drafts identified in items a) through d) above were all drawn on the Clearflow Funding Account. The bank draft identified in item e) above was drawn on the Trigger Operating Account.
80. The Receiver contacted Raffi Jewelers and obtained copies of the invoices (the "Jewelry Invoices") for the Jewelry related to each of the Jewelry Bank Drafts.

Each of the Jewelry Invoices disclose Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak as the purchasers.

81. The significant items detailed on each of the Jewelry Invoices, respectively, are described as:
- a) Rolex Watch Diamond Dial Watch - $54,240.00;
 - b) Breitling Watch - $32,770.00;
 - c) Omega Watch - $7,684.00;
 - d) Ladies 18 Karat Paladium Diamond Necklace - $18,645.00; and
 - e) Rolex Datejust Diamount Dial Watch - $25,850.00.
82. The Receiver has asked counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Gdak to confirm that Mr. and Mrs. Gdak remain in possession of the Jewelry and are aware the Jewelry may not be sold due to the Mareva provisions in the Receivership Order. Counsel has replied acknowledging the Mareva provisions but has not confirmed that Mr. and Mrs. Gdak remain in possession of the jewelry. A copy of the BLG email dated January 31, 2021 and the response from counsel to Mr. Gdak on February 1, 2021 is attached hereto as Appendix “19”.
83. Copies of the Jewelry Bank Drafts, the Jewelry Invoices along with the bank account details for the Clearflow Funding Account are attached hereto as Appendix “20”.
84. It is clear that payment for the Jewelry came from Trigger’s bank account using funds obtained from Clearflow.

Personal Property Assets Conclusion

85. The Receiver’s investigation into the purchase of the Personal Property Assets revealed that while the registered owner of the Personal Property Assets is either Mr. Gdak or Mrs. Gdak, all of the funds used to purchase the Personal Property Assets came from the Trigger bank accounts using funds advanced by Clearflow.
86. The Receiver requests that the Court declare that the Personal Property Assets are property of Trigger free and clear of any interests or claims of the other Respondents; are Transfers at Undervalue in accordance with the BIA and void as against the Receiver; or alternatively, are held by Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak, as applicable, in a constructive trust for the sole benefit of Trigger.

87. The Receiver requests that the Court authorize the Receiver to sell the Personal Property Assets (subject to the provisions of the Appointment Order), free of any claims by Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak and declare that the proceeds from the sale of the Personal Property Assets are the property of Trigger.

THE REAL PROPERTY ASSETS

88. The Receivership Order appointed GTL as Receiver over the Property, as defined in the Receivership Order. Property was defined to include the following real property, owned by Mrs. Gdak or Jaimak, as noted on Schedule A to the Receivership Order:
- a) 250 Lions Court, Waterloo, Ontario (“Lions Court”);
 - b) Baker Road, located at 52 Baker Road, Waterloo, Ontario;
 - c) Colby Drive, located at 652 Colby Drive, Waterloo, Ontario;
 - d) Old Post Road, located at 265 Old Post Road, Waterloo, Ontario; and
 - e) Saugeen Beach Road, located at 157 Saugeen Beach Rd., Port Elgin, Ontario
- (collectively, referred to as the “Real Property Assets”).
89. The Receivership Order also authorized the Receiver to sell the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), subject to certain sale limits, as provided for in the Receivership Order.

Baker Road

90. Baker Road was registered in the name of Mrs. Gdak and was subject to a sale agreement when the Receiver was appointed, as detailed in the First Report.
91. The Receiver completed the sale of Baker Road, as directed by the Baker Road Approval and Vesting Order. The sale was completed on December 14, 2020, with adjusted sale proceeds of $580,141.18 being paid to the Receiver. A copy of the Statement of Adjustments is attached hereto as Appendix “21”.
92. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak stated that she assumes that the funds used to purchase Baker Road came from her and Mr. Gdak’s investments.
93. The Receiver’s review of Trigger’s banking records revealed that Clearflow advanced $508,020.89 to the Clearflow Funding Account on October 31, 2019. On November 1, 2019 Trigger transferred $700,000 from the Clearflow Funding

Account to the Trigger Operating Account, from which it issued a bank draft payable to Kelly & Co. dated November 1, 2019 in the amount of $448,750.00 (the “Baker Road Bank Draft”). Without the transfer from the Clearflow Funding Account there would not have been sufficient funds in the Trigger Operating Account to draw the Baker Road Bank Draft.

94. Brian Kelly of Kelly & Co (“Kelly & Co.”) appears to have acted for Mrs. Gdak and registered the transfer. The Receiver requested that Kelly & Co. provide its trust ledger (the “Baker Road Trust Ledger”) showing the receipt and disposition of the funds received from Trigger. Kelly & Co. has provided a copy of the Baker Road Trust Ledger showing that the funds advanced by Trigger were used to complete the purchase of Baker Road.
95. Copies of the Baker Road Bank Draft, the Baker Road Trust Ledger as well as the Clearflow Funding Account and the Trigger Operating Account statements showing the flow of funds are attached hereto as Appendix “22”.
96. Contrary to Mrs. Gdak’s assumption that the funds used to purchase Baker Road came from her and Mr. Gdak’s investments, it is clear that Trigger funds were used to purchase Baker Road, using funding obtained from Clearflow.

Lions Court

97. Lions Court is the matrimonial home of Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak. The Receiver obtained a copy of the Parcel Register from the Ontario Land Registry Office (the “Parcel Register”) on February 10, 2021, which confirms that Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak acquired Lions Court on December 16, 2005. A copy of the Parcel Register is attached hereto as Appendix “23”.
98. The Parcel Register discloses that Lions Court was the subject of a transfer from Mr. Gdak to Mrs. Gdak on July 2, 2019, for natural love and affection. A copy of the Transfer dated July 2, 2019 is attached hereto as Appendix “24”.
99. The Receiver’s review of Trigger’s banking records revealed that Clearflow advanced $578,369.25 to the Clearflow Funding Account on March 21, 2018. On the same day Trigger obtained a bank draft payable to Kelly & Co. in the amount of $136,320.00 (the “Lions Court Bank Draft”). Without funding from Clearflow, there would not have been sufficient funds the Clearflow Funding Account to draw the Lions Court Bank Draft.

100. The Receiver requested that Kelly & Co. provide its trust ledger (the “Lions Court Trust Ledger”) showing the receipt and disposition of the funds received from Trigger. Kelly & Co. has provided a copy of the Lions Court Trust Ledger showing that the funds advanced by Trigger were used to repay a mortgage on Lions Court held by Pedro Cuesta (the “Cuesta Mortgage”). Kelly & Co. provided the Receiver with a copy of the mortgage discharge statement in respect of the Cuesta Mortgage (the “Cuesta Mortgage Discharge Statement”).
101. Copies of the Lions Court Bank Draft, the Cuesta Mortgage Discharge Statement as well as the Clearflow Funding Account statement showing the flow of funds are attached hereto as Appendix “25”. The Receiver continues to investigate this matter and the activities preceding the Receiver’s appointment with respect to Lions Court.

Sale of Lions Court

102. The Receiver obtained an appraisal on Lions Court from a local realtor (the “Lions Court Appraisal”), as well as an email from BMO advising of the current mortgage balance (the “Lions Court Mortgage Statement”). There appears to be significant equity in Lions Court. A calculation of the equity, along with the Lions Court Appraisal and Lions Court Mortgage Statement, are attached hereto in Confidential Appendix “2”.
103. The Receiver was previously advised that Clearflow, Mr. Gdak and Mrs. Gdak are in settlement discussions. As a result, an agreement was reached whereby the following was agreed to, to facilitate the settlement discussions:
- “Counsel for ClearFlow, each of the Respondents in these proceedings and the Receiver agree that no steps will be taken in connection with the marketing or sale of the matrimonial home at 250 Lions Court, Waterloo, Ontario until the earlier of the discontinuation of settlement discussions or March 17, 2021.”
- (the “Lions Court Agreement”).
104. The Receiver has not been advised that settlement discussions have been discontinued, therefore the Receiver has not taken any steps in connection with the marketing and sale of Lions Court.
105. The Receivership Order authorizes the Receiver to market the Property for sale, which includes Lions Court. The Receiver therefore requests that the Court authorize the Receiver to list Lions Court for sale, subsequent to March 17, 2021, in accordance with Lions Court Agreement.

106. The Receiver has received notice of a lien registration against Lions Court. The Receiver continues to investigate the validity of this lien and will report thereon in a subsequent report to the Court.

Colby Drive

107. The Receiver obtained a copy of the Transfer for Colby Drive from the Ontario Land Registry Office, which confirms that Colby Drive was transferred to Jaimak on June 30, 2020 and that the reported transaction price was $2,695,000 (the “Colby Drive Transfer”).
108. The Receiver obtained a Corporate Profile Report for Jaimak, which discloses that Mrs. Gdak is the sole officer and director of Jaimak (the “Jaimak Corporate Profile”). A copy of the Jaimak Corporate Profile is attached hereto as Appendix “26”.
109. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak stated that she believes that Jaimak obtained a loan from Trigger to purchase Colby Drive (the “Jaimak Loan”), however Mr. Gdak was responsible for all the paperwork related to the purchase. Mrs. Gdak undertook to make best efforts to obtain the documentation related to the Jaimak Loan (see questions 160 to 164 of the Examination Transcript).
110. As noted above, on February 5, 2021, counsel for Mrs. Gdak provided the Receiver with responses to the undertakings (see Appendix “10”) from the Examination, which included:
- a) an undated loan agreement between Trigger and Jaimak for $3,000,000; and
 - b) a lease agreement between Trigger and Jaimak effective July 2, 2020.
111. The Receiver has reviewed Trigger’s electronic accounting records and has found no evidence of the Jaimak Loan.
112. The Receiver’s investigation into the purchase of Colby Drive revealed that Clearflow advanced $5,850,000 to the Clearflow Funding Account on June 30, 2020. On the same day, Trigger transferred $5,750,000 from the Clearflow Funding Account to the Trigger Operating Account from which it issued a bank draft payable to Kelly & Co. dated June 30, 2020 in the amount of $2,620,000

(the “Colby Drive Bank Draft”). Without the advance from Clearflow, there would have been insufficient funds in Trigger's bank accounts to fund the purchase of Colby Drive.

113. Brian Kelly of Kelly & Co appears to have acted for Jaimak and registered the transfer. As noted above, the Receiver requested that Kelly & Co. provide its trust ledger (the “Colby Drive Trust Ledger”) showing the receipt and disposition of the funds received from Trigger. Kelly & Co. has provided a copy of the Colby Drive Trust Ledger showing that the funds advanced by Trigger were used to complete the purchase of Colby Drive.
114. Copies of the Colby Drive Bank Draft, the Colby Drive Trust Ledger, as well as the Clearflow Funding Account and the Trigger Operating Account statements showing the flow of funds are attached hereto as Appendix “27”.
115. It is clear that Trigger funds were used to purchase Colby Drive, using funding obtained from Clearflow.
116. The Receiver has received notice of a lien registration against Colby Drive. The Receiver continues to investigate the validity of this lien and will report thereon in a subsequent report to the Court.

Sale of Colby Drive

117. The Receiver has obtained an appraisal of Colby Drive (the “Colby Drive Appraisal”).
118. The Receiver also obtained listing proposals from four reputable commercial realtors. Three of the realtors provided suggested listing prices based on comparable sales, however one realtor provided the highest suggested listing price, but it was not supported by comparable sales. The Receiver has therefore disregarded the unsupported proposal.
119. Colliers International (“Colliers”) advised they have an interested purchaser who wished to perform a roof inspection on Colby Drive. The Receiver permitted the inspection to occur, after which Colliers provided the Receiver with a copy of the inspection report and authorized the Receiver to share this report with any other prospective purchasers. Colliers is aware that the Receiver is not currently marketing Colby Drive for sale, however their prospective purchaser submitted an offer to the Receiver to indicate their interest in the property.

120. The Receiver believes that Colliers provided a reasonable proposal, has saved the Receiver time and funds in providing the roof inspection report free of charge, and have a serious prospective purchaser. Therefore, the Receiver proposes to enter into a listing agreement with Colliers.
121. Attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “3” is the Colby Drive Appraisal together with a summary of the appraised value, the material terms of each listing proposal, their suggested listing prices, estimated selling price, and the Receiver's proposed listing price.

Old Post Road

122. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that she purchased Old Post Road using funds from her and Mr. Gdak's personal bank account. However, she did not know where the funds came from before they were deposited in their personal bank account (see questions 82 and 83 of the Examination Transcript).
123. The Receiver has obtained a copy of the Parcel Register from the Ontario Land Registry Office for Old Post Road which discloses that Old Post Road was transferred to Mrs. Gdak on September 21, 2018 for $437,500 (the “Old Post Road Register”).
124. The Receiver's investigation into the purchase of Old Post Road revealed that Clearflow advanced $774,555.72 to the Clearflow Funding Account on September 21, 2018. On the same day, Trigger transferred $800,000.00 to the Trigger Operating Account, from which Trigger then issued a bank draft payable to Kelly & Co. dated September 21, 2018 in the amount of $421,350.00. Without the advance from Clearflow, there would have been insufficient funds in Trigger's bank accounts to fund the purchase of Old Post Road.
125. Brian Kelly of Kelly & Co appears to have acted for Mrs. Gdak and registered the transfer. The Receiver requested that Kelly & Co provide its trust ledger (the “Old Post Road Trust Ledger”) showing the receipt and disposition of the funds received from Trigger. Kelly & Co has provided a copy of the Old Post Road Trust Ledger showing that the funds advanced by Trigger were used to complete the purchase of Old Post Road.

126. Copies of the Old Post Road Bank Draft, the Old Post Road Trust Ledger, as well as the Clearflow Funding Account and the Trigger Operating Account statements showing the flow of funds are attached hereto as Appendix “28”.
127. Contrary to Mrs. Gdak’s statement that Old Post Road was purchased with funds from her and Mr. Gdak’s personal bank account, it is clear that Trigger funds were used to purchase Old Post Road using funding obtained from Clearflow.
128. The Receiver has received notice of a lien registration against Old Post Road. The Receiver continues to investigate the validity of this lien and will report thereon in a subsequent report to Court.

Sale of Old Post Road

129. The Receiver understands that Old Post Road is currently occupied by Mrs. Gdak’s parents, William and Kathryn Clayton (the “Claytons”). In the Interim Receiver’s Report, the Interim Receiver reported that Mr. Gdak had advised Clearflow that Mrs. Gdak’s mother had passed away. During the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that the Claytons are both currently occupying Old Post Road.
130. Shortly after the Receiver’s appointment, Mr. Gdak advised the Receiver that there was a sale agreement for Old Post Road (the “Clayton Sale Agreement”). Despite the Receiver’s repeated requests to be provided with the Clayton Sale Agreement, Mr. Gdak did not provide a copy Clayton Sale Agreement until November 10, 2020.
131. In addition to the Old Post Road Sale Agreement, Mr. Gdak’s provided the Receiver with a Letter of Intent from the Claytons dated August 5, 2020 (the “Clayton LOI”) and a License Agreement with the Claytons dated April 18, 2020 (the “Clayton License Agreement”), with respect to the occupancy by the Claytons at Old Post Road.
132. The Clayton LOI simply states that the Claytons wish to purchase the Old Post Road, however, no sale price is stated therein.
133. The Clayton Sale Agreement states that the Claytons are permitted to occupy Old Post Road and are only responsible for payment of utilities, property taxes and condominium fees. No rent is payable under the Clayton License Agreement. There is also a requirement that Mrs. Gdak must give 180 days notice of cancellation of the Clayton License Agreement.

134. The Clayton Sale Agreement is dated September 1, 2020. The purchaser is not identified, however the agreement appears to be signed by the Claytons and Mrs. Gdak. A deposit of $10,000.00 was required to be paid to Kelly & Co. However, the name of Kelly & Co. has been stricken out and no replacement has been named. The Receiver is not aware of any deposit having been paid by the Claytons.
135. The Receiver has obtained an appraisal of Old Post Road (the “Old Post Road Appraisal”) which values Old Post Road at a much higher price than the price set in the Clayton Sale Agreement.
136. The Receiver does not believe that the consideration provided for in the Clayton Sale Agreement is adequate or commercially reasonable. Accordingly, the Receiver is seeking relief from the Court that the Receiver be free to market and sell Old Post Road, free and clear of any existing agreements or license agreements, such as the Clayton Sale Agreement and the Clayton License Agreement.
137. On February 5, 2021, counsel for Mrs. Gdak provided the Receiver with an email from Jim Clayton to Mr. Gdak advising that the Claytons would be vacating Old Post Road by July 31, 2021. A copy of this email is attached hereto as Appendix “29”.
138. The Receiver contacted numerous realtors about providing proposals to list Old Post Road for sale, however, several realtors declined to submit a proposal after reading about the Gdak’s activities in the Interim Receiver’s Report.
139. Three realtors provided listing proposals. The Receiver believes that RE/Max TwinCity provided a superior proposal. The Receiver proposes to list Old Post Road for sale with RE/Max TwinCity, free of clear of the Clayton Sale Agreement and the Clayton License Agreement, although the Receiver recommends that the closing of any sale occur after July 31, 2021 to allow the Claytons time to vacate Old Post Road.
140. Attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “4” is the Old Post Road Appraisal, Clayton Sale Agreement, and the Clayton License Agreement together with a summary of the appraised value, the material terms of each listing proposal, their suggested listing prices and the Receiver’s proposed listing price.

Saugeen Beach Road

141. In the Examination, Mrs. Gdak advised that she purchased Saugeen Beach Road using funds she thought came from her and Mr. Gdak's personal bank account (see questions 216 and 217 of the Examination Transcript).
142. The Receiver has obtained a copy of the Parcel Register from the Ontario Land Registry Office, which discloses that Saugeen Beach Road was transferred to Mrs. Gdak on April 12, 2018 for $600,000.00 (the "Saugeen Beach Road Register").
143. The Receiver's investigation into the purchase of Saugeen Beach Road revealed that Clearflow advanced $209,629.62, $253,961.11 and $223,389.38 to the Clearflow Funding Account on April 5, 10 and 11, 2018, respectively. On each of April 6, 10 and 11, 2018, Trigger transferred $250,000.00 to a Trigger bank account at CIBC (the "CIBC Account") from which it issued a bank draft payable to Kelly & Co. dated April 11, 2018 in the amount of $605,900.00. Without the advance from Clearflow, there would have been insufficient funds in Trigger's bank accounts to fund the purchase of Saugeen Beach Road.
144. Brian Kelly of Kelly & Co appears to have acted for Mrs. Gdak and registered the transfer. The Receiver requested that Kelly & Co provide its trust ledger (the "Saugeen Beach Road Trust Ledger") showing the receipt and disposition of the funds received from Trigger. Kelly & Co has provided a copy of the Saugeen Beach Road Trust Ledger showing that the funds advanced by Trigger were used to complete the purchase of Saugeen Beach Road.
145. Copies of the Saugeen Beach Road Bank Draft, the Saugeen Beach Road Trust Ledger, as well as the Clearflow Funding Account and the CIBC Account statements showing the flow of funds are attached hereto as Appendix "30".
146. Contrary to Mrs. Gdak's statement that Saugeen Beach Road was purchased with funds from her and Mr. Gdak's personal bank account, it is clear that Trigger funds were used to purchase Saugeen Beach Road, using funding obtained from Clearflow.
147. The Receiver has received two notices of liens registered against Saugeen Beach Road. The Receiver continues to investigate the validity of these liens and will report thereon in a subsequent report to the Court.

Sale of Saugeen Beach Road

148. The Receiver has obtained an appraisal for Saugeen Beach Road (the “Saugeen Beach Road Appraisal”).
149. The Receiver contacted numerous realtors about providing proposals to list Saugeen Beach Road for sale and three realtors provided listing proposals.
150. The two best listing proposals contain similar terms, however RE/Max Land Exchange was very helpful to the Receiver in taking possession of Saugeen Beach Road and Baker Road. Therefore, the Receiver proposes to list Saugeen Beach Road for sale with RE/Max Land Exchange.
151. Attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “5” is the Saugeen Beach Road Appraisal together with a summary of the appraised value, the material terms of each listing proposal their suggested listing prices, and the Receiver’s proposed listing price.

Real Property Conclusion

152. The Receiver’s investigation into the purchase of Baker Road, Colby Drive, Old Post Road and Saugeen Beach Road (collectively, the “Trigger Real Property”) revealed that while each of the Trigger Real Property is registered to either Mrs. Gdak or Jaimak, all of the funds used to purchase the Trigger Real Property came from Trigger bank accounts, using funds advanced by Clearflow.
153. The Receiver requests that the Court declare that the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger; are Transfers at Undervalue in accordance with the BIA and void as against the Receiver; or alternatively, are held by Mrs. Gdak and Jaimak, as applicable, pursuant to a constructive trust, for sole benefit of Trigger.
154. As canvassed above, the Receiver has now become aware of the existence of two parties claiming liens for work done to the Trigger Real Property.
155. By letter dated December 16, 2020, the Receiver was advised by counsel for Ace Lawn Care Services Inc. (“Ace Lawn Care”) that Ace Lawn Care had registered construction liens against each of Saugeen Beach Road, Old Post Road, Colby Drive and Lions Court.
156. By letter dated December 17, 2020, the Receiver was advised by counsel for J.B. Construction Inc. (“J.B. Construction”) that J.B. Construction had registered a construction lien against Saugeen Beach Road. By letters dated December 21, 2020, BLG responded to each of counsel for Ace Lawn Care and J.B. Construction, to advise that while the Receiver consents to a lifting of the stay of proceedings provided for in the Receivership Order, solely for the purpose of permitting each of Ace Lawn Care and J.B. Construction to perfect their lien claims. The Receiver did not consent to such parties taking any further steps without the consent of the Receiver or Order of the Court. The BLG correspondence of December 21, 2020 to counsel to each of Ace Lawn Care and J.B. Construction indicated that by providing the limited consent, the Receiver did not acknowledge the validity or quantum of any of the liens and that the Receiver reserved its rights and remedies to contest each of these liens, including without limitation, the validity and quantum of such liens. Attached hereto as Appendix “31” are copies of the letters dated December 16 and 17, 2020 from counsel to each of Ace Lawn Care and J.B. Construction, respectively, as well as the two letters dated December 21, 2020 delivered by BLG to counsel for each of Ace Lawn Care and J.B. Construction.

OTHER TRANSFERS

157. During the Receiver’s review of Trigger’s banking activity the Receiver identified the following three transactions whereby funds totalling $130,000.00 appear to have been paid directly or indirectly to the Claytons:

01/13/2017	E-TRANSFER000000265619 JimClayton 4506671	3,000.00
01/16/2017	E-TRANSFER000000263261 JimClayton 4506671	2,000.00
06/30/2020	Bank Draft payable to Jim Clayton	125,000.00
		130,000.00

158. The Receiver continues to investigate these payments.

THE TRIGGER INVENTORY

159. In the Interim Receiver’s Report, the Interim Receiver advised that it took possession of all the Debtors’ assets located at 588 Colby Drive, Waterloo, Ontario (the “Premises”).
160. The Receiver obtained an inventory listing from Trigger’s electronic accounting records (“Quickbooks”) which disclosed Trigger’s inventory value at $77,746,176.36.

161. Mr. Gdak previously advised the Receiver that Trigger did not properly maintain the inventory records in Quickbooks and provided the Receiver with an inventory schedule prepared in Excel which totalled $1,999,058.22.
162. Mr. Gdak also advised the Receiver that there was a shipment of inventory arriving at Toronto Pearson Airport, for which Trigger had already paid (the "Prepaid Inventory"). In order to obtain delivery of this shipment, duties, taxes and shipping costs would need to be paid. These costs were estimated to be approximately $74,800.39 (the "Import Costs"). The invoice price of the Prepaid Inventory was $140,110.50 US Dollars. Therefore, it appeared reasonable to pay the Import Costs as the value of the Prepaid Inventory greatly exceeded the Import Costs.
163. The Receiver did not have the funds required to pay the Import Costs. After the Receiver explained the economics of this transaction to Clearflow, it agreed to provide the funding to the Receiver to pay the Import Costs and obtain possession of the Prepaid Inventory. After receiving funding from Clearflow, the Receiver paid the Import Costs and arranged for the Prepaid Inventory to be delivered to the Premises. Accordingly, to date, the Receiver has issued one Receiver's Certificate on October 26, 2020, in the amount of $70,983.74 to Clearflow, pursuant to the Receivership Order.
164. Upon receipt of the Prepaid Inventory, the Receiver conducted an inventory count of the Prepaid Inventory to ensure that what was received matched what Trigger had paid to the supplier. The Receiver did not note any discrepancies.
165. Mr. Gdak advised that there were numerous other significant prepaid orders from other suppliers, however despite the Receiver's numerous requests for Mr. Gdak to provide details of the other prepaid orders, no further information has been provided by Mr. Gdak to the Receiver.
166. The Receiver made arrangements with the Chief Firearms Office to attend at the Premises to conduct a full inventory count of all restricted firearms. While certain discrepancies were initially noted, they were subsequently cleared.
167. The Receiver thereafter engaged an expert in firearms inventory counts to assist the Receiver in conducting a full inventory count of all non restricted firearms. The inventory listing provided by Mr. Gdak was updated to reflect the actual inventory at the Premises.

The Inventory Sales Process

168. The Receivership Order authorizes the Receiver to market for sale the Property, which includes inventory owned by Trigger (the “Inventory”). Therefore, the Receiver conducted a sales process to identify qualified purchasers for the inventory (the “Sale Process”).
169. The Receiver first requested that a liquidator provide a proposal to liquidate the inventory by selling it to Trigger’s existing customers. After reviewing the inventory and the customers list and consulting with former Trigger sale persons, the liquidator submitted a proposal which contemplated a three-month liquidation sale from the Premises and provided estimated gross and net proceeds from the sale.
170. After considering the proposal and consulting with Clearflow, the Receiver determined that it would not proceed with the proposal, as a better outcome could likely be obtained by selling the inventory en bloc. Clearflow supported the Receiver’s decision to reject the liquidator’s proposal.
171. The Receiver separated Trigger’s inventory into the following parcels (the “Parcels” and individually a “Parcel”):
 - a) ammunition;
 - b) archery;
 - c) handguns;
 - d) rifles;
 - e) surplus handguns and rifles;
 - f) parts; and
 - g) equipment.
172. The Receiver prepared a list of potential purchasers including:
 - a) parties who had participated in sale processes previously conducted by GTL in other receivership mandates;
 - b) parties that had contacted the Receiver to express an interest in the Inventory; and
 - c) the Debtors’ previous customers.
173. The Receiver prepared the following documents to support and advertise the Inventory and to advance the Sale Process:

- a) a notice of the Sale Process, which was published in the National Post on December 30, 2020 (the “Notice of Sales Process”);
- b) an introduction email highlighting the assets for sale, outlining the Sale Process and inviting recipients to express their interest in participating in the Sale Process (the “Solicitation Email”);
- c) an information memorandum (the “Information Memorandum”) describing the Inventory and the Sale Process in greater detail, which was made available to Prospective Bidders (as defined below);
- d) a form agreement of purchase and sale (the “Template Sale Agreement”); and
- e) an offer form (the “Offer Form”).

Copies of the Notice of Sale Process, the Solicitation Email, the Information Memorandum with the Offer Form and the Template Sale Agreement are attached hereto as Appendix “32”.

- 174. On December 22, 2020, the Receiver began contacting approximately 212 parties identified as potential purchasers, of which 105 requested a copy of the Information Memorandum (the “Prospective Bidders”).
- 175. The Sales Process allowed for Prospective Bidders to conduct due diligence over almost four weeks (the “Due Diligence Period”), with a deadline to submit offers on January 15, 2021 (the “Offer Deadline”).
- 176. The Receiver provided all Prospective Bidders with the opportunity to schedule a site visit to allow for the Prospective Bidders to tour the Premises and inspect the Inventory during the Due Diligence Period. Site visits were conducted by eleven Prospective Bidders.
- 177. The Receiver received twenty offers by the Offer Deadline. The Receiver allowed Prospective Bidders to submit offers for any single Parcel, or all Parcels. Offer submissions included the following:
 - a) seven offers for all of the Parcels;
 - b) twelve offers for a combination of Parcels; and
 - c) one offer to conduct a retail sale of the Parcels with on a commission basis;(collectively, the “Offers” and individually, an “Offer”). A summary of the Prospective Bidders and Offers are attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “6”.

178. The highest overall offer was for all of the Parcels made by Bullets & Broadheads Shooting Center Ltd. (the “Inventory Purchaser”). The Receiver contacted the Inventory Purchaser and requested to exclude certain Parcels, as there were other Prospective Bidders with higher offers on those Parcels. The Inventory Purchaser was however unwilling to allow the Receiver to remove any Parcels from their offer. The Receiver therefore negotiated an overall price increase with the Inventory Purchaser (the “Purchase Price”), which the Receiver believes is the highest price that can be obtained for the Inventory.
179. The Receiver and the Inventory Purchaser have entered into an Agreement of Purchase and Sale (the “Inventory APS”), which is subject to Court approval, a copy of which, redacted to remove the selling price, is attached hereto as Appendix “33”. An unredacted copy of the Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “7”. If the Court approves the proposed Inventory sale, the Receiver proposes to complete the sale to the Inventory Purchaser in accordance with the Inventory APS (the “Inventory Transaction”).
180. As part of its dealings with the Inventory Purchaser, the Receiver ascertained that the Inventory Purchaser currently owes the Debtors the aggregate amount of $12,000 (the “Inventory Purchaser AR”). In connection with the Inventory Transaction as contemplated in the Inventory APS, the Inventory Purchaser requested that the Inventory Purchaser AR be released upon the completion of the Inventory Transaction in exchange for the Inventory Purchaser releasing and discharging the Receiver and the Debtors from any and all claims, demands or obligations which the Inventory Purchaser has or hereafter may have against the Receiver or the Debtors. On account of the value to be obtained from the Inventory Transaction, the Receiver has agreed to such release of the Inventory Purchaser AR.
181. The Sale Process conducted by the Receiver has been robust with an extensive reach to the primary industry players. The Purchase Price is substantially higher than any other bid received and the Inventory Transaction contemplates the sale of all of the Inventory and not only specific and isolated Parcels.
182. The Receiver has advised Clearflow, which is the Debtors’ primary secured creditor, of the Purchase Price and Clearflow supports the Inventory Transaction.
183. Given the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Court issue an order approving the Inventory Transaction and authorizing and directing the Receiver to complete the Inventory Transaction and vesting the Debtors' right, title and interest in and to the Inventory, in the Inventory Purchaser, free and clear of all claims and encumbrances.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE COLLECTIONS

184. The Receiver obtained an accounts receivable ("AR") listing from Quickbooks which shows amounts owing to Trigger from customers totalling $1,510,458.14.
185. Mr. Gdak advised the Receiver that Trigger did not maintain accurate accounting records in Quickbooks and that the AR in Quickbooks was not accurate.
186. The Receiver also obtained an AR listing from Clearflow totalling $64,074,2258.69 (the "Clearflow AR Listing"), which Clearflow advised represented the accounts receivable that Clearflow had factored.
187. Mr. Gdak advised the Receiver that none of the AR on the Clearflow AR Listing were owing from customers.
188. Mr. Gdak provided the Receiver with an AR listing which was prepared in Excel showing $1,411,812.20 owing from customers, of which $467,738.44 was identified as being on consignment. Mr. Gdak advised that these were the only amounts owing from customers. It therefore appears that the actual amount owing from Trigger customers is $944,073.76 from 196 customers (the "Trigger AR").
189. The Receiver obtained invoices in support of the Trigger AR from Quickbooks, sent letters to all customers signifying the AR balances and requiring that customers remit payment to the Receiver.
190. Clearflow offered to assist the Receiver in responding to responses from customers. Therefore, the Receiver directed the customers to contact Clearflow with any questions. While Clearflow was authorized by the Receiver to speak with customers, the Receiver retained all decision making authority.
191. Many customers have disputed the amount owing according to the Trigger AR for reasons including, invoices having already been paid and inventory being on consignment. The Receiver has investigated each dispute and has adjusted the Trigger AR where appropriate.

192. As of January 31, 2021, the Receiver has collected AR totalling $274,294.71 and approximately $669,779.05 remains outstanding. The Receiver's continues its efforts to collect these outstanding amounts.

ACTIVITIES OF THE RECEIVER

193. Since its appointment, the Receiver's activities have included matters not otherwise described in the First Report and the Second Report, including, but not limited to:
- a) Preparing the First Report and Second Report to Court;

 - g) Corresponding with the Chief Firearms Office on regulations relating to the firearms.

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

194. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
195. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.
196. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from November 1, 2020 to January 31, 2021 amount to $336,008.87 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn February 12, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "34".

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

199. The interim statement of receipts and disbursements of the Interim Receiver and Receiver as at February 11, 2021 (the “SRD”, is attached hereto as Appendix “36”.

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

200. The Receiver believes that the Confidential Appendices should remain sealed until further order of the Court, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the sale of the Sea Ray and the Inventory. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer for the Sea Ray and the Inventory, should a transaction not close. Further, certain information is of a personal nature, which in the Receiver’s view, should not be disclosed.
201. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices are sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

202. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the Orders sought, in respect of the relief set out in paragraph 11 of this Second Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

INTRODUCTION

1. This supplemental report (“Supplemental Report”) is filed by Grant Thornton Limited (“GTL”) in its capacity as the receiver (the “Receiver”) over the property, assets and undertakings of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. (“Trigger”) and The En Cadre Group Inc. (“En Cadre”) (collectively, the “Debtors”), as well as certain real property owned by each of Jaimak Real Properties Inc. (“Jaimak”) or Jaimee Lynn Gdak (“J. Gdak”), pursuant to subsection 243(1) of the BIA and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, as amended.
2. The Receiver filed its second report to Court dated February 12, 2021 (the “Second Report”) in support of the Receiver’s request for various Orders, including an Approval and Vesting Order, approving the Inventory Transaction in connection with the sale of the Inventory and authorizing and directing the Receiver to complete the Inventory Transaction, and vesting in the Inventory Purchaser, all of the Debtors’ right, title and interest in and to the Inventory, free and clear of all encumbrances.
3. In accordance with the Court’s e-service protocol, all materials filed with the Court in this matter are available on the Receiver’s case website at www.GrantThornton.ca/TWI.

DISCLAIMER

4. In preparing this Supplemental Report, the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information related to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”) or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.
5. This Supplemental Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to approve the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Supplemental Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.

6. All references to dollar amounts in this Supplemental Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THIS SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

7. The purpose of this Supplemental Report is to provide information to the Court which has arisen subsequent to the Receiver completing the Second Report and to support the form of Approval and Vesting Order sought by the Receiver in connection with the Inventory Transaction.
8. Capitalized terms not defined in this Supplemental Report shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Second Report.

SALE OF INVENTORY

9. In the Second Report, the Receiver described the sales process in respect of the Inventory, which resulted in the Receiver and the Inventory Purchaser entering into the Inventory APS, in the form attached as Appendix "33" to the Second Report.
10. Paragraph 2.08 of the Inventory APS provides that the Inventory Purchaser shall undertake a physical count of the Inventory prior to the Closing Date and in the event of a discrepancy, the Inventory Purchaser shall provide written notice of such discrepancy to the Receiver prior to the Closing Date.
11. The Parties agreed that, in the event of such discrepancy, the Purchase Price would be adjusted on a proportionate basis (based on the percentage difference and the portion of the Purchase Price allocated to the relevant Purchased Assets), or in such other manner as the Parties may agree.
12. The Inventory Purchaser conducted a physical count of the Inventory between March 1, 2021 and March 5, 2021, in the presence of the Receiver.

13. On March 12, 2021 the Inventory Purchaser advised the Receiver of discrepancies between the count results and the listing of Inventory attached to the Inventory APS.
14. The discrepancies noted by the Inventory Purchaser, included:
 - a) Certain ammunition quantities noting the number of cases on the inventory listing were in fact the number of boxes, which significantly reduced the quantity of ammunition;
 - b) Certain rifles having the incorrect model on the inventory listing, where the correct model was of lower value; and
 - c) Certain rifles being damaged, but not indicated as such on the inventory listing.
15. The Receiver and the Inventory Purchaser have reached an agreement whereby the selling price has been reduced and certain firearms which were being used by Trigger for parts (the “Service Firearms”), which were not included in the Inventory APS, are now included in the sale. The Service Firearms were of nominal value. An Amending Agreement, amending the Inventory APS has been prepared, a copy of which, redacted to remove the selling price, is attached hereto as Appendix “1”. An unredacted copy of the Amending Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “1”.

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

16. The Receiver believes that the Confidential Appendix should remain sealed until further order of the Court, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the sale of the Inventory. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer for the Inventory, should a transaction not close.
17. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendix is sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

18. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver requests that the Court issue the Approval and Vesting Order in respect of the Inventory Transaction, in the form filed with the Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(the "Inventory Purchaser") dated February 11, 2021 and appended to the second report of the Receiver dated February 12, 2021 (the "Second Report") and the amending agreement dated March 16, 2021 (the "Amending Agreement") appended to the supplemental report to the Second Report dated March 16, 2021 (the “Supplemental Report”), and vesting in the Inventory Purchaser the Debtors’ right, title and interest in and to the assets described in the Inventory APS, as amended by the Amending Agreement (the “Inventory”), was heard via Zoom videoconference due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

ON READING the Second Report and the Supplemental Report and on hearing the submissions of counsel for the Receiver, counsel for Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp. and such other counsel as listed on the counsel slip, no one appearing for any other person on the service list, although properly served as appears from the affidavit of Mariela Adriana Gasparini sworn February 12, 2021 filed:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the time for service of the Notice of Motion and the Motion Record is hereby abridged and validated so that this motion is properly returnable today and hereby dispenses with further service thereof.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Inventory Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Inventory APS as amended by the Amending Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Inventory Transaction and for the conveyance of Inventory to the Inventory Purchaser.

3. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver’s certificate to the Inventory Purchaser substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the “Receiver's Certificate”), all of the Debtors’ right, title and interest in and to the Inventory described in the Inventory APS as amended by the Amending Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Inventory Purchaser, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the “Claims”) including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Gilmore dated October 13, 2020; (ii) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice McEwen dated October

22, 2020 (iii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or any other personal property registry system (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances") and, for greater certainty, this Court orders that all of the Encumbrances affecting or relating to the Inventory are hereby expunged and discharged as against the Inventory.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds from the sale of the Inventory shall stand in the place and stead of the Inventory, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Inventory with the same priority as they had with respect to the Inventory immediately prior to the sale, as if the Inventory had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DIRECTS the Receiver to file with the Court a copy of the Receiver's Certificate, forthwith after delivery thereof.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding:

- (a) the pendency of these proceedings;
- (b) any applications for a bankruptcy order now or hereafter issued pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) in respect of the Debtors and any bankruptcy order issued pursuant to any such applications; and
- (c) any assignment in bankruptcy made in respect of the Debtors;

the vesting of the Inventory in the Inventory Purchaser pursuant to this Order shall be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed in respect of the Debtors and shall not be void or voidable by creditors of the Debtors, nor shall it constitute nor be deemed to be a fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, transfer at undervalue, or other reviewable transaction under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, nor shall it constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

7. THIS COURT HEREBY REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada or in the United States to give effect to this Order and to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. Lawyers for Grant Thornton Limited, in its capacity as Court-appointed Receiver of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. and The En Cadre Group Inc.

Endorsement:

At the hearing, the Receiver brought three motions: i) seeking an Approval and Vesting Order respecting a SeaRay boat; ii) seeking an Approval and Vesting Order respecting the inventory of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. ("Trigger"); and iii) seeking advice and direction.

The respondent Jaimee Lynn Gdak brought a motion to vary the Order of Justice McEwen made on October 22, 2020 (the "Receivership Order") to remove reference to the real property municipally known as 250 Lions Court, in the City of Waterloo, Ontario ("Lions Court"). Lions Court is listed on Schedule "A" to the Receivership Order, together with four other real properties. By virtue of the Receivership Order, the Receiver has the authority to market and sell each of the properties on Schedule "A" in accordance with the Receivership Order.

The applicant Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp. ("Clearflow") brought a motion seeking judgment against the respondents Jaimee Lynn Gdak and Mark Gdak in respect of personal guarantees executed by each of them relating to indebtedness owed to Clearflow by Trigger.

The applicant's motion was not heard in full on March 17, 2021 and a return date was set for April 15, 2021, commencing at 10 am, via videoconference.

This endorsement addresses the Receiver's motions for the two Approval and Vesting Orders only. A separate endorsement will follow in respect of the Receiver's motion for directions and Jaimee Lynn Gdak's motion.

For the reasons that follow, an Approval and Vesting Order shall issue in respect of the SeaRay boat, and an Approval and Vesting Order shall issue in respect of the inventory.

The Approval and Vesting Orders are unopposed.

Based on the record and having heard the submissions of counsel, I am satisfied that the Receiver conducted a proper sales process, negotiated for a fair and reasonable price and chose the purchaser who made the best offer for the SeaRay boat. I am also satisfied that the Soundair principles have been met and the sale transaction for the boat should be approved.

Regarding the inventory of Trigger, based on the record and the submissions of counsel, I am satisfied that the Receiver conducted a proper sales process that involved twenty offers from prospective purchasers. It negotiated with the purchaser who made the highest overall offer for all the parcels and an agreement was reached on an overall price increase for the inclusion of all such parcels in the transaction. The result would be a sale of the inventory at a price substantially higher than any other bid. The applicant supports the proposed inventory transaction. I am satisfied that the Soundair principles have been met and the inventory transaction should be approved.

Each Approval and Vesting Order shall issue in the form attached hereto and signed by me. [Counsel to add the listing of "Inventory" to Schedule B to the Approval and Vesting Order re Inventory.]

Each such Approval and Vesting Order is effective as of March 17, 2021 and they do not need to be entered.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds from the sale of the Sea Ray shall stand in the place and stead of the Sea Ray, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Sea Ray with the same priority as they had with respect to the Sea Ray immediately prior to the sale, as if the Sea Ray had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DIRECTS the Receiver to file with the Court a copy of the Receiver's Certificate, forthwith after delivery thereof.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding:

the vesting of the Sea Ray in the Sea Ray Purchaser pursuant to this Order shall be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed in respect of the Debtors, Mark Gdak or Jaimee Gdak and shall not be void or voidable by creditors of the Debtors, Mark Gdak or Jaimee Gdak nor shall it constitute nor be deemed to be a fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, transfer at undervalue, or other reviewable transaction under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, nor shall it constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

7. THIS COURT HEREBY REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada or in the United States to give effect to this Order and to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. Lawyers for Grant Thornton Limited, in its capacity as Court-appointed Receiver of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. and The En Cadre Group Inc.

Further to my endorsement below dated March 18, 2021, this endorsement will address the Receiver's motion for directions and the respondent Jaimee Gdak's motion to remove any reference in the Receivership Order, including Schedule "A" thereto, to the real property municipally known as 250 Lions Court, in the City of Waterloo, Ontario ("Lions Court"). Both motions were heard on March 17, 2021.

The Receiver's motion for directions

The Receiver seeks an Order approving its Second Report and the Supplemental Report, and its activities described in the Reports. It also seeks approval of its Receipts and Disbursements as well as its fees and the fees of its counsel. I have reviewed the Reports and find that this relief should be granted. The Receipts and Disbursements appear to be appropriate and the fees appear to be fair and reasonable. This relief sought is unopposed.

The Receiver also seeks an Order: permitting the marketing and sale of the Trigger Real Property (as defined in the Second Report), which includes all real property, which, according to the Receiver's Report, was purchased using Trigger Wholesale, Inc. ("Trigger") funds; making a declaration that the use of Trigger funds to purchase Trigger Real Property was a transfer at undervalue within the meaning of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the BIA) and void as against the Receiver; and making a declaration that the respondents, as applicable, hold the Trigger Real Property as constructive trustee for the benefit of Trigger's creditors, among other relief related to the Trigger Real Property.

There was no opposition to this relief sought. Based on the evidentiary record before the court, I am not satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to determine whether the use of the Trigger funds to purchase the Trigger Real Property was a transfer at undervalue within the meaning of s. 96 of the BIA. If such a declaration is required, the determination would need to be made at a trial of this issue. The other relief should be granted.

The Receiver also seeks: an order that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) are owned by Trigger free of any claims of the other respondents, and that the respondents in possession of such Personal Property Assets deliver them forthwith to the Receiver; a declaration that the use of Trigger funds to purchase the Personal Property Assets is a transfer at undervalue within the meaning of the BIA and is void as against the Receiver, and if the Personal Property Assets have been disposed of, the respondents are directed to pay to the Receiver the difference between the value of the consideration received by Trigger and the value of the consideration given by Trigger in the use of the Trigger funds to purchase the Personal Property Assets; a declaration that the respondents, as applicable, hold the Personal Property Assets as constructive trustee for the benefit of Trigger's creditors; and an order permitting the Receiver to sell the Personal Property Assets in accordance with the Receivership Order, among other relief related to the Personal Property Assets.

There was no opposition to this relief sought. Based on the evidentiary record before the court, I am not satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to determine whether the use of the Trigger funds to purchase the Personal Property Assets was a transfer at undervalue within the meaning of s. 96 of the BIA. If such a declaration is required, the determination would need to be made at a trial of this issue. The other relief should be granted; however, it is acknowledged and agreed between the Receiver and Jaimee Gdak that she shall be given 60 days from the date of this endorsement to deliver to the Receiver the Range Rover, registered in her name, which forms part of the Personal Property Assets.

Lastly, the Receiver seeks an order permitting it to market and sell the Real Property (as defined in the Second Report) free and clear of any prior agreements to purchase the Real Property as well as any license agreements or rental agreements, which, if any, shall be nullified on the closing of the transaction in respect of the Real Property. The Real Property includes Lions Court. The relief sought should be granted except in respect of Lions Court.

Lions Court

Lions Court is the matrimonial home of the respondents Mark Gdak and Jaimee Gdak. The Receiver is not seeking an order that Lions Court is owned by Trigger. According to the record, it was purchased by, and registered in the names of, the respondents Mark Gdak and Jaimee Gdak, as joint tenants, in 2005. However, on July 2, 2019 Mark Gdak transferred his interest in Lions Court to Jaimee Gdak for natural love and affection. There is evidence to suggest that this transfer could be set aside as a fraudulent conveyance under the Fraudulent Conveyances Act.

None of the parties asserts that Lions Court was purchased with Trigger funds. However, the Receiver asserts that some or all of $136,320 of Trigger funds was used to discharge a mortgage on Lions Court that secured a loan made to Mark Gdak and Jaimee Gdak by Pedro Cuesta to finance the business of Trigger.

The Bank of Montreal has a mortgage on Lions Court and there is a construction lien registered on the title as well. The Receiver is investigating the lien. According to the Receiver's Report, there is likely to be equity in Lions Court. Initially, the Receiver agreed not to market Lions Court for sale until the earlier of March 17, 2021 and a breakdown in the negotiations between Mark and Jaimee Gdak and the Receiver. Those negotiations have ceased and the Receiver now seeks an order permitting it to market and list Lions Court. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver, would still need to return to court for approval to sell Lions Court.

Jaimee Gdak opposes the listing and sale of Lions Court and moves to vary the Receivership Order with the result that Lions Court would be removed from Schedule "A" and the Receiver would not have any authority to deal with it. Lions Court would nonetheless continue to be subject to the Mareva injunction. Mark Gdak did not file any material in support of Jaimee Gdak's motion but his counsel confirmed that Mark Gdak supports the motion.

The Receiver argues that Jaimee Gdak is making a late attempt to appeal the Receivership Order without the support of any statutory authority or rule of Civil Procedure. Specifically, she has not shown any error, fraud or new evidence with respect to the Receivership Order.

While Jaimee Gdak did not have legal counsel at the time the Receivership Order was made, she was served in that proceeding, and she did have legal representation soon after that Order was made. She did not take any steps to appeal or vary the Receivership Order at that time. Mark Gdak was represented at that time and he did not oppose the relief sought in the Receivership Order.

Jaimee Gdak asserts that the Lions Court property is hers and has nothing to do with Trigger. She denies any involvement with the mortgage from Pedro Cuesta. Further, she asserts that to permit the Receiver to sell Lions Court at this juncture would create real hardship for her and her minor children, one of whom has medical issues. She is a stay-at-home mother with no job.

I find that Jaimee Gdak has not provided the court with sufficient evidence or authority that would permit the variation of the Receivership Order that she requests. Accordingly, her motion is dismissed.

The extent of Jaimee Gdak's exposure to liability in this matter has not been determined. The principle creditor, Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp., asserts that she is a guarantor of the indebtedness owed by Trigger to it. That issue has yet not been determined. If it is determined that Jaimee Gdak is a guarantor, it is likely that Lions Court will need to be sold. It has also not yet been determined whether Mark Gdak's transfer of his interest in Lions Court was a fraudulent transfer that could be set aside. If that interest is set aside, it is, again, likely that Lions Gate will need to be sold. It appears that there is a dispute with respect to whether Trigger Funds were used to discharge some or all of the Pedro Cuesta mortgage. That dispute will need to be resolved as well. Accordingly, I decline to authorize the Receiver to list and market Lions Court at this time. This decision is without prejudice to the Receiver's right to renew its request to market and list Lions Court following the determination of one or more of these issues.

The Receiver seeks a sealing order with respect to Confidential Appendices to the Reports. I am satisfied that the Sierra Club test has been met for these commercially-sensitive materials. On the resumption of regular court operations, it will be the responsibility of counsel for the Receiver to ensure that the subject materials are properly identified and protected under seal in the court file.

Order giving directions to go in the form of the draft signed by me and attached hereto. The Order is effective as of today's date and it does not need to be entered.

If any party is seeking costs in respect of these motions, the parties are strongly encouraged to agree on the matter of costs. If they cannot agree, they may arrange a 9:30 am chambers appointment to schedule a hearing to deal with the matter of costs.

REASONS FOR JUDGMENT

DIETRICH J.

[1] The applicant ClearFlow Commercial Finance Corp. brings this motion to enforce guarantees executed by the respondents Mark Gdak and Jaimee Lynn Gdak in its favour.

[2] The applicant seeks a finding of liability against each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak in respect of separate, unlimited, continuing personal guarantees that each executed on April 30, 2015 in respect of the full amount of indebtedness of the respondent Trigger Wholesale, Inc. (“Trigger”) to the applicant (the “Guarantees”).

[3] Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak are shareholders, directors and officers of Trigger. This Court appointed Grant Thornton Limited, as an interim receiver over the assets and undertakings of Trigger on October 13, 2020, and as a full national receiver on October 22, 2020 (the “Receivership Order”).

[4] Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak are also shareholders, directors and officers of the respondent The En Cadre Group Inc. (“En Cadre”). It is an affiliate of Trigger, and also executed a guarantee of Trigger’s indebtedness on April 30, 2015 in favour of the applicant. The assets and undertakings of En Cadre are also subject to the Receivership Order.

[5] Mr. Gdak does not deny liability pursuant to his Guarantee. He has not filed any responding materials on this motion with respect to his Guarantee.

[6] Ms. Gdak denies liability on her Guarantee on the basis that there was an undisclosed material change in the principal amount of the indebtedness covered by the Guarantee, and because she did not have the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice. Alternatively, she asserts that the applicant, through its words and conduct, released her from her Guarantee.

[7] For the reasons that follow, I find that each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak is liable on his or her respective Guarantee in favour of the applicant, and the applicant is entitled to judgment with respect to that liability. The precise amount owing on the Guarantees remains to be determined.

Background Facts

[8] The applicant, a company incorporated pursuant to the laws of Canada, is in the business of providing financing to Ontario businesses, generally through the factoring of accounts receivable, and also by extending other types of credit facilities.

[9] Trigger is a company incorporated pursuant to the laws of Ontario, with an office in Waterloo, Ontario. Prior to the receivership, it was in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition throughout Canada.

[10] The applicant made loans to Trigger pursuant to three separate credit facilities: factoring of accounts; purchase order financing; and discrete advances for business purposes. The applicant holds security against all the personal property and assets for Trigger and En Cadre in the form of a General Security Agreement in respect of each company.

[11] Martin Nicholas Rees, a partner at the applicant, took the lead with respect to the financing arrangements between the applicant and the respondents in 2015. Following its due diligence, the applicant made a financing offer, which involved a Master Purchase and Sale Agreement (the “MPSA”), a Master Purchase Order Financing Agreement, and a Royalty Agreement, each dated April 30, 2015 (the “Credit Agreements”). The Credit Agreements set out the details of the financing arrangements as between the parties. Trigger accepted the offer.

[12] As part of the loan and security documentation executed by Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak, on behalf of Trigger, each of them executed a Guarantee of the full amount of the indebtedness of Trigger arising out of the Credit Agreements. Each of them, as officers of En Cadre, also signed a similar guarantee on behalf of En Cadre.

[13] Neither Mr. Gdak nor Ms. Gdak denies signing their respective Guarantees. Neither alleges that the Guarantee was signed under duress. Each Guarantee was witnessed by Brian Kelly, a lawyer who represented Trigger.

[14] At the time each Guarantee was signed, the total maximum principal indebtedness shown on the Credit Agreements was $1.4 million (though the applicant’s funding proposal letter dated April 23, 2015 mistakenly states the total to be $1.3 million).

[15] The applicant suffered losses through alleged schemes in which Trigger fabricated customer invoices and presented them to the applicant for purchase, and in which En Cadre forged documentation respecting a real property transfer.

[16] Pursuant to the terms of the MPSA, Trigger was obligated to provide to the applicant, monthly, a list of all outstanding invoices issued by it to its customers. The applicant could then choose to purchase some or all the accounts receivable and pay to Trigger 85 percent of the amount due and owing on the selected accounts receivable.

[17] When purchasing accounts receivable for factoring, the applicant would normally collect the receivables from the borrower’s customers directly. Customers would typically be required to remit payment within 30 to 60 days from the invoice date. Until the applicant received payment on its purchase orders, any funds advanced to the borrower would be considered loans from the applicant.

[18] In the case of Trigger, however, Mr. Gdak asked the applicant to deviate from its usual procedure. He told the applicant that because the regulations imposed by the RCMP and other federal agencies stipulated that only he, as a licensee permitted to sell firearms, could handle payments from purchasers for those firearms, he would need to collect the receivables. This was untrue.

[19] When the applicant purchased customer invoices from Trigger, it deposited the proceeds into an account held by Trigger. It is alleged that Trigger then drew cheques on that account payable to itself, which it then deposited into a “blocked account” at the Bank of Montreal (“BMO”). It then represented to the applicant that these funds were payments from customers, which the applicant and the Receiver believe to be fake customers. The applicant then swept the blocked account and applied the funds collected against the outstanding invoices it had purchased.

[20] Based on the results of the applicant's field audit of Trigger, and the Receiver's reporting, it appears that most of the invoices presented by Trigger to the applicant for factoring were falsified. Trigger provided the applicant with multiple purchase orders as evidence that Trigger was doing business with large retailers, such as Canadian Tire and Home Hardware Stores Limited, when, in fact, it was either doing no, or considerably less, business than the falsified purchase orders would suggest.

[21] It also appears that Mr. Gdak provided a forged real property transfer to the applicant designed to make it appear that En Cadre owned real property in the City of Waterloo, with an alleged value of $48 million, and that En Cadre was selling this property. In fact, En Cadre had no interest in such property.

[22] In the spring of 2019, before the applicant became aware of the alleged fraudulent activities, Mr. Gdak approached the applicant to restructure the then-existing credit facilities that would soon expire. Mike Nero, an employee of Trigger, and Mr. Gdak negotiated on behalf of Trigger. Mr. Rees led the negotiations on behalf of the applicant. As part of those negotiations, which took place over the course of thirteen months, Trigger sought to renegotiate the Credit Agreements and to have Ms. Gdak released from her Guarantee.

[23] In an April 9, 2019 email to Mr. Nero, Mr. Rees confirmed that the partners at the applicant would need to agree to any amendments to the applicant's offer letter respecting the credit restructuring. He also reminded Mr. Nero of the April 15, 2019 deadline for providing financial information to the applicant and the need for the applicant to assess the financial standing of Trigger.

[24] The preliminary negotiations resulted in the applicant issuing a proposal dated May 2, 2019 (the "Proposal"), which, among other things, contemplated the renewal of the MPSA and a release of Ms. Gdak from her Guarantee.

[25] As a condition of the restructuring, over the course of the negotiations, the applicant continued to seek financial statements for the 2019 fiscal year, in a specified form. As the negotiations wore on, the applicant requested current financial statements for the fiscal 2020 year as well.

[26] Mr. Rees sent documentation prepared in support of the proposed restructuring to Mr. Gdak on May 16, 2019, by email. The documentation included an "Acknowledgement re Existing Security" (the "Acknowledgement"), which included a reference to a personal guarantee from Mr. Gdak and a guarantee from En Cadre. No reference was made to a personal guarantee from Ms. Gdak.

[27] On June 27, 2019, Mr. Rees sent another email to Mr. Gdak seeking a report on the timeframe for Trigger to provide Review Engagement Financial Statements, and he reminded Mr. Gdak and Mr. Nero that this was "a requirement."

[28] On July 3, 2019, Mr. Gdak signed the documents, and Mr. Nero returned them to the applicant via email. In an email exchange on the same day, in response to a request by Mr. Nero for a release letter discharging Ms. Gdak from her obligations, Mr. Rees agreed to provide a “letter of confirmation that the Guarantee of Jamie (sic) has been cancelled.” In the same email, Mr. Rees stated: “We do need the Financial Statements to implement the documents-it’s a condition.”

[29] Mr. Rees never prepared a document confirming that Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee had been cancelled or released.

[30] Approximately one year later, in June 2020, negotiations were still ongoing between the parties. No documents had been executed by the applicant, and it was still waiting to receive financial statements for the 2019 fiscal year and, by this point, the 2020 fiscal period as well. Because the applicant had not received financial statements from Trigger on a timely basis, it imposed additional conditions precedent to the credit restructuring, including a satisfactory field audit.

[31] Mr. Gdak confirmed in an email to Mr. Rees dated June 11, 2020 that three conditions precedent to the restructuring, which the applicant had imposed, remained outstanding.

[32] On June 25, 2020, Mr. Gdak provided inaccurate financial statements for the 2019 fiscal year. On the following day, he provided internally generated monthly statements for the 2020 fiscal year, which were also inaccurate.

[33] By September 2020, Mr. Adler had, in the course of his field audit, discovered the existence of the alleged fraudulent activity involving falsified invoices, a forged transfer of real property, phony email addresses, falsified firearms storage inspection certificates, impersonations of Canadian Tire and Home Hardware Stores Limited executives and phony cheques.

[34] The applicant did not accept the late-delivered financial statements and, in any event, Trigger had not met the satisfactory field audit condition. The documents drafted in support of the restructuring of the credit facilities were never approved by the applicant’s credit committee or board and were never signed back to Trigger.

[35] As of October 6, 2020, according to the applicant’s records, Trigger was indebted to it in the amount of $48,543,931.75. Purchased accounts receivable and purchase orders accounted for $42,943,931.75 of that amount, and separate advances made by the applicant accounted for $5,600,000.

[36] The applicant cannot recover on the accounts receivable or the purchase orders because they appear to be forged documents. It cannot collect on the advances because it appears the advances were made based on forged real estate documentation.

[37] Following its discovery of these alleged fraudulent activities, the applicant issued a written demand for payment and Notices of Intention to Enforce Security to Mr. Gdak, Ms. Gdak, Trigger and En Cadre.

[38] Mr. Gdak has not denied his involvement in the alleged fraudulent activities. Ms. Gdak has denied any involvement in those activities. The parties agreed that this motion would be limited to the enforcement of the Guarantees and would not address allegations of fraud as against Ms. Gdak.

Positions of the Parties

[39] The applicant submits that the Guarantee signed by Ms. Gdak is a valid document, signed by her without duress, and witnessed by a lawyer, who was counsel to Trigger at the time the Credit Agreements and other financing arrangements were entered into. The applicant asserts that, given Ms. Gdak's direct involvement in Trigger as a director and officer, she had knowledge of Trigger's operations and obligations to the applicant, and she did not require independent legal advice with respect to the Guarantee.

[40] The applicant further submits that notwithstanding that there were discussions between representatives of Trigger and representatives of the applicant regarding Ms. Gdak's Guarantee, there was, in fact, no waiver of Ms. Gdak's Guarantee. The applicant asserts that it was consistent and clear that no restructuring of the credit facilities, including a waiver of Ms. Gdak's Guarantee, would be agreed to or implemented until certain conditions precedent were satisfied, including the delivery of financial statements by Trigger. Those conditions were never fulfilled, and Ms. Gdak was therefore never released from her Guarantee.

[41] Ms. Gdak submits that the Guarantee is not binding on her because there was an undisclosed material change to the principal indebtedness over the five years that followed her execution of the Guarantee. She asserts that her liability should be set aside based on unconscionability, or at least limited to $1.4 million. She further asserts that she was not given an opportunity to obtain independent legal advice respecting the Guarantee.

[42] Ms. Gdak further submits that, in any event, the Guarantee is not binding on her because the applicant released her from the Guarantee through its words and conduct during the credit restructuring process.

[43] Mr. Gdak takes no position on the applicant's motion with respect to his liability under his Guarantee. The applicant submits that, because Mr. Gdak has not responded to this motion with respect to his Guarantee, judgment in respect of his liability should issue on an unopposed basis.

The Guarantee

[44] The relevant paragraphs of the Guarantee, shown in part, are as follows:

2. OBLIGATIONS GUARANTEED

In consideration of ClearFlow Commercial Finance Corp. ... dealing with or continuing to deal with the Customer, you guarantee payment to us on demand, of all present and future lease payments and obligations, conditional sale instalments and obligations, and any other debts and liabilities (collectively, the "Obligations"), both direct and indirect, (whether incurred alone or jointly with others, whether absolute or contingent, whether matured or not matured, and whether for principal, interest or fees) payable to us by the Customer under any and all lease agreements, conditional sale contracts, credit facilities, overdrafts, guarantees, letters of credit, indemnities together with all costs and expenses, including fees and expenses, incurred by us in connection with its dealings with the Customer. ...

3. NATURE OF YOUR LIABILITY

Your liability under this Guarantee is CONTINUING, absolute and unconditional. It will not be limited, reduced, or otherwise affected by any one or more of the following events:

...

- any change in the terms or amount or existence of the Obligations

...

17. GENERAL

... No alteration or waiver of this Guarantee or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding on us unless expressly made in writing by us. ... [emphasis added]

Issues

[45] The issues on this motion are as follows:

- (1) Is Ms. Gdak released from liability under her Guarantee?
- (2) If Ms. Gdak is not released from liability on her Guarantee based on a material change in the contractual arrangement, did the applicant release Ms. Gdak from such liability through its words and conduct during the restructuring of Trigger's credit facilities?
- (3) Is Mr. Gdak liable pursuant to his Guarantee?

Is Ms. Gdak released from liability under her Guarantee because of a material change to the contractual arrangements?

[46] Ms. Gdak asserts that when she signed her Guarantee the applicant had agreed to provide funding to Trigger up to $1.4 million. The $1.4 million was comprised of three credit facilities described in the applicant's April 23, 2015 funding proposal letter as follows:

- a) $320,000 maximum to fund the cost of importation of firearms, accessories and ammunition to Canada for resale;
- b) $900,000 in respect of all eligible accounts receivable, for 24 months, automatically renewable; and
- c) $180,000 demand loan.

The funding proposal letter specifically refers to the “Corporate Guarantee of En Cadre and the Personal Unlimited Guarantee of Mark and Jamiee (sic) Gdak.”

[47] Ms. Gdak submits that she cannot be liable for anything in excess of $1.4 million. She says that five years after the Guarantee was executed, the applicant claims the amount owing by her is now $48,625,279.75 (as of October 6, 2020). Ms Gdak asserts that she had no part in any discussions relating to the restructuring of the credit facilities at any time. Therefore, she asserts that her liability must be capped at $1.4 million.

[48] Further, Ms. Gdak asserts that she had no opportunity to obtain independent legal advice. She asserts that if she had had the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice, the unconscionable exponential increase in the indebtedness, which arose as a consequence of the inequality of bargaining power between her and the applicant, could have been discovered by counsel and her improvident bargain could have been prevented.

[49] For the reasons that follow, I disagree that Ms. Gdak’s liability is limited to the $1.4 million referred to in the funding proposal letter of April 23, 2015. I also find that Ms. Gdak has not met her burden to show unconscionability, and I do not agree that she was denied an opportunity to obtain independent legal advice.

Material change

[50] It is not disputed that a guarantor will be released from liability where the creditor and the principal debtor agree to a material change in the terms of the contract of debt without the guarantor’s consent: Manulife Bank of Canada v. Conlin, [1996] 3 S.C.R. 415 at para. 2.

[51] However, it is also not disputed that it is open to parties to contract out of this protection, provided that any contracting out is clear: Conlin at para. 4, citing First City Capital Ltd. v. Hall (1993), 11 O.R. (3d) 792 (C.A.).

[52] In my view, the parties contracted out of this protection. The language of the Guarantee is unequivocal. It clearly states that Ms. Gdak’s liability would be continuing and unaffected by any change in the amount of the “Obligations.” In respect of her obligations, paragraph 2 reads: “you guarantee payment to us on demand, of all present and future lease payments and obligations, conditional sale instalments and obligations, and any other debts and liabilities (collectively, the “Obligations”).” [emphasis added]

[53] The extent of Ms. Gdak's liability is plainly stated in paragraph 3 of the Guarantee. There it states, in block capitals, that her liability is "CONTINUING" and that it will not be limited, reduced, or otherwise affected by "any change in the terms or amount or existence of the Obligations." [emphasis added] Ms. Gdak agreed to these terms.

Breach of Contract

[54] Ms. Gdak further asserts that a guarantor can be discharged if the creditor breaches the contract of guarantee: Pax Management Ltd. v. Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, [1992] 2 S.C.R. 998. She asserts that the applicant has done just that by making advances far in excess of the maximum amounts set out in the documents underlying the credit facilities. Ms. Gdak submits that these advances resulted in a materially different risk being imposed on her.

[55] The applicant submits that over the six-year period during which the applicant provided financing to Trigger, the terms and conditions of the credit facilities did not change in any material way that would impact on Ms. Gdak's risk. For example, none of the security for the debt was released and none of the other guarantors was released.

[56] The alteration to the exact wording of the financing terms was an increase in the total amount lent such that by 2020 the total loan exceeded the amounts shown in the financing agreements.

[57] I do not agree that the applicant breached the terms of the Guarantee by making the additional advances. The language of the Guarantee clearly contemplates the possibility of additional advances by referring explicitly to "any change in the amount ... of the Obligations", and to the guarantor's obligation to pay on demand "present and future" obligations under the Guarantee. The risk of an increase in the amount of Ms. Gdak's obligation was a risk that was in existence at the time she signed the Guarantee. Had the applicant released some of its security provided by Trigger, that action would have resulted in a materially different risk being imposed on Ms. Gdak, which would likely have altered her liability under the Guarantee. The subject advances, which were specifically contemplated in language of the Guarantee, do not, in my view, result in a materially different risk for Ms. Gdak than the one to which she agreed.

Contra preferentem

[58] In the alternative, Ms. Gdak asserts that where there has been a waiver of material change, as I have found in this case, the guarantee language must be read narrowly, to protect the guarantor where the guarantor is a family member and unsophisticated or vulnerable. Ms. Gdak relies on Conlin in support of this submission, and in particular para. 8 where Cory J. states that "if there is any ambiguity in the terms of the guarantee, the words of the documents should be construed against the party which drew it."

[59] Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak are husband and wife. However, Ms. Gdak is also a director, officer, employee and shareholder of Trigger. There is no evidence to support the theory that she signed the Guarantee as a matter of accommodation or a favour for her husband.

[60] When Mr. Rees, on behalf of the applicant, was discussing the original financing arrangements with Mr. Gdak, Mr. Gdak provided him with corporate charts for Trigger and En Cadre. The corporate chart for Trigger showed Ms. Gdak to be a “Co-Owner” and “SVP.” The notes to the corporate chart described Ms. Gdak as Mr. Gdak’s “wife and business partner” and “a 50% owner of the company (the new operations company and the holding company).” In my view, it is more likely than not that Ms. Gdak signed her Guarantee in the capacity of a business owner, and not as a family member.

[61] As a director, Ms. Gdak would have been required to sign off on the financial statements for these companies. The annual financial statements would have reflected the indebtedness to the applicant, which would have been easy for her to track year over year.

[62] Also, based on the record, I do not find Ms. Gdak to be unsophisticated. The only real evidence she submits in support of this assertion is that she did not finish high school. Lack of a high school diploma, in my view, does not equate to a lack of sophistication. Nor does it, in my view, indicate a lack of intelligence or an inability to read and comprehend a one-page guarantee, written in the second person. Based on the record, Ms. Gdak had significant involvement in Trigger’s day-to-day operations. She had responsibility for handling of accounts receivable, writing cheques and making bank deposits. She was in regular communication with the applicant regarding accounts receivable and the assignment of those accounts, as well as reporting on what funds were deposited into the blocked account and when.

[63] Accordingly, I find that a narrow interpretation of the terms of the Guarantee is not warranted in this case. Had I decided this point differently, I would nonetheless have rejected Ms. Gdak’s interpretation of the definition of “Obligations” in the Guarantee. “Obligations” is defined to include “all present, and future lease payments and obligations, conditional sale instalments and obligations, and any other debts and liabilities.” Ms. Gdak submits that the ejusdem generis interpretation maxim ought to apply such that “any other debts and liabilities” must be read narrowly to include only debts of the same class or kind, being debts of a similar nature to lease payments and conditional sale instalments, and that the applicant has led no evidence of indebtedness that falls into that class.

[64] I reject this highly technical interpretation. I agree with the applicant that the phrase “other debts and liabilities” covers each of the credit facilities that the applicant offered and provided to Trigger. It would have been obvious to the parties entering into the financing arrangements that the Guarantees were in respect of the funds being advanced in accordance with the April 23, 2015 funding proposal. That proposal specifically refers to the credit being advanced and the Guarantees of each of En Cadre, Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak. Trigger’s credit facilities did not include lease payments or conditional sale instalments. It is therefore apparent that the Guarantees were intended to cover other debts and liabilities, such as those described in the April 23, 2015 funding proposal and advanced by the applicant. This is the only logical interpretation of the Guarantee considering the factual matrix at the time the credit facility documentation, including the Guarantees, was executed.

Independent legal advice

[65] Ms. Gdak asserts that she should not be found to be liable on her Guarantee because she was not given an opportunity to obtain independent legal advice on the Guarantee, or any amendments to the credit arrangements. Notwithstanding that she signed the Guarantee in the presence of a lawyer, Mr. Kelly, who witnessed her signature, she asserts that Mr. Kelly was counsel to Trigger and not to her.

[66] Ms. Gdak further asserts that she had never consulted with the applicant, or its counsel, in respect of the Guarantee, and that there was an inequality of bargaining power to her disadvantage.

[67] The applicant asserts that, because Ms. Gdak was a director of Trigger, independent legal advice in respect of her Guarantee was not required.

[69] A party asserting unconscionability must make out an inequality of bargaining power and a resulting improvident bargain: Uber Technologies Inc. v. Heller, 2020 SCC 16, 3 B.L.R. (6th) 1 at para. 65.

[70] Ms. Gdak submits that there was an inequality of bargaining power between her and the applicant. As evidence of her lack of sophistication, she submits that she never completed high school and needed clarification during her examination by the Receiver that a “charge” was another word for “mortgage.” By contrast, she submits that the applicant purports to be in the business of providing financing to medium-sized businesses in Ontario, through factoring accounts receivable, and that the applicant’s point of contact, Mr. Rees, had 35 years of experience in banking and lending in Canada and the United Kingdom. Accordingly, Ms. Gdak submits that there is a significant gulf in sophistication. She submits that the improvident bargain is manifest in the growth of the debt from $1.4 million to over $48 million with no input or participation from her.

[71] As noted, I do not accept that Ms. Gdak was unsophisticated. On a balance of probabilities, I find that she was not entirely unaware of, or uninformed as to, the debt that Trigger was incurring. Ms. Gdak was a director and officer of each of Trigger and En Cadre when she signed the Guarantee. As a director she was responsible for signing off on the financial statements of these companies, which would have disclosed the companies’ indebtedness.

[72] Ms. Gdak is the sole director, officer and shareholder of the respondent Jaimark Properties Inc. (“Jaimark”), which owns or owned several valuable real properties. Based on the record, Ms. Gdak, either on behalf of Jaimark, or personally, has entered into agreements of purchase and sale and a licence agreement as part of transactions in respect of which she sought the advice of legal counsel.

[73] On examination, Ms. Gdak deposed that she did not know that she was a director of Trigger and En Cadre. She also deposed that she did not have a title and that at Trigger she took on jobs like taking photographs for marketing materials, building a website, and “administrative roles.”

[74] I do not accept Ms. Gdak’s evidence that she did not have a title at Trigger or that she took on only administrative roles there. At the time of the hearing, the applicant had not had an opportunity to review the large volume of emails retrieved by the Receiver from computers at Trigger. Even so, the record is replete with examples of Ms. Gdak’s involvement and responsibilities at Trigger, as evidenced by numerous emails.

[75] Apart from Mr. Gdak promoting Ms. Gdak as his “business partner”, her involvement in Trigger’s business was recognized by others at Trigger as well. In an email from Mr. Nero to Mr. Rees, dated May 13, 2015, in response to Mr. Rees’ concerns about accounts receivables and other matters, Mr. Nero stated: “As for the A/R, I understand the pressure point, Jaimee [Ms. Gdak] and I are going to be finally handling this moving forward.”

[76] Alexandra Kanichis, the Director of Operations at the applicant, and the partner who supervised the Trigger credit facilities, deposed that Ms. Gdak was involved with daily accounting operations at Trigger and that “literally hundreds of emails have been exchanged” between Ms. Gdak, Ms. Kanichis and the applicant’s administration team with respect to processing credit card payments, deposits made into the BMO blocked account and deposits made into a BMO account of non-factored payments, and funding requests to the applicant.

[77] Under examination, Ms. Gdak agreed that Ms. Kanichis’ statement about the number of emails exchanged between them “could be accurate.”

[78] Ms. Gdak also deposed that prior to 2020 she worked four or five hours a day at Trigger, but that she did not do much work for Trigger in 2020.

[79] However, in an email to Mr. Rees on June 11, 2020, Mr. Gdak notes that Ms. Gdak did not “facilitate the cashing of cheques”, as expected, because she was at the hospital, and that he would provide a solution for this concern of the applicant. In the same email, Mr. Gdak describes a “Process Change” at Trigger to “ensure future success/compliance” which involves a “signoff on the previous weeks activity (bank accounts, sales, shipping, purchases, transfers, expenses, etc.) on the Monday following the previous week from 830am-12 pm each week. This will be completed by Mark, Mike, Jaimee [Ms. Gdak], Amy and Phil (sic).” In an email to the applicant dated December 11, 2019, Mr. Gdak advises that “Mike, Jaimee [Ms. Gdak] and I are all at RLB [the accountants] today (working with them to close several projects) and then RLB is at our facility Thursday and Friday. We are scrambling to get our accounting up until current day.” In another report to the applicant, dated December 26, 2019, Mr. Gdak reports that Ms. Gdak is “mapping our payment for deposits” on five specified days between December 27, 2019 and January 3, 2020.

[80] Ms. Kanichis deposed that at a meeting at Trigger on October 1, 2020 between Mr. Gdak and Mr. Nero, from Trigger, and Ms. Kanichis and Glenn Peterson (president and director), from the applicant, Mr. Gdak advised that Ms. Gdak was working from home because of the global pandemic, but that she was making collection calls on all the past due accounts of independent stores.

[81] Ms. Kanichis' evidence includes several email exchanges between Ms. Gdak and the applicant, as well as a copy of an Assignment Schedule summarizing alleged sales of firearms to purchasers, totaling over $185,000. Ms. Gdak included the invoices in support of the alleged sales and alleged proof of delivery by courier for each sale. Together with these documents, Ms. Gdak sent an email to Ms. Kanichis confirming that these documents had been "successfully uploaded."

[82] I do not find Ms. Gdak's evidence that she did not know that she was a director of Trigger credible.

[83] There is reliable evidence to show that Ms. Gdak, in fact, held herself out as a vice president, which she noted when signing documents on behalf of Trigger or En Cadre.

[84] Ms. Gdak had authority to write and sign cheques on behalf of Trigger. Ms. Kanichis' evidence included copies of many cheques written and signed by Ms. Gdak on behalf of Trigger. Many of these cheques were in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

[85] Ms. Kanichis also deposed that Ms. Gdak was "deeply involved in the day-to-day financial administration of Trigger and takes an active part in managing the financial and accounts receivable side of Trigger's business. She is one of the individuals at Trigger whom I would describe as part of the senior management team." Ms. Kanichis adduced a series of update emails from Ms. Gdak to the applicant that show that Ms. Gdak was one of the primary persons responsible for collection of accounts receivable at Trigger; was one of the individuals who personally handled cheques as they were received by Trigger from its customers; and who deposited cheques into the BMO blocked account and reported to the applicant on the deposits. Mr. Rees deposed that Ms. Gdak served in a "senior accounts receivable collection capacity." Neither Ms. Kanichis nor Mr. Rees was cross-examined on their respective affidavits.

[86] Ms. Kanichis also deposed that Ms. Gdak had ready access to the status of Trigger's indebtedness. Ms. Kanichis deposed that the applicant used software called "Cadence", which allowed its customers, like Trigger, to upload documents, such as invoices to be factored, and to view and update their precise financial position vis-à-vis the applicant, including their indebtedness to the applicant. According to Ms. Kanichis' evidence, it was Ms. Gdak who frequently accessed Cadence to upload invoices and bills of lading until Mr. Nero took over this function in 2018. The applicant's records show that Ms. Gdak last logged on to Cadence on February 21, 2018 to upload a number of invoices and bills of lading. Later that same day, Ms. Gdak sent an email to Ms. Kanichis confirming a successful uploading of "invoices and POD's."

[87] Ms. Kanichis further deposed that, like any user of Cadence, Ms. Gdak would have seen a standard-form opening screen that showed the current balance of the account. According to Ms. Kanichis' evidence, on February 21, 2018, Trigger's balance stood at $8,404,091. In addition to the balance, the screen would have shown a bar chart showing Trigger's purchase and collection history. Accordingly, I find that it ought to have been apparent to Ms. Gdak on February 21, 2018, that her liability on her Guarantee exceeded the original $900,000 loan shown on the credit facility documents by a considerable margin.

[88] Ms. Gdak does not deny that she accessed the Cadence program, but she deposed that she used it on rare occasions and needed technical assistance with it. She deposed that she had "no recollection" of seeing the opening screen described by Ms. Kanichis. On a balance of probabilities, I find that while Ms. Gdak may not have known that Trigger's indebtedness had grown to over $48 million, it is more likely than not that she knew the indebtedness was considerably greater than $900,000. The information was readily available to her. Even if she did not choose to access the information using the Cadence system, she could have made inquiries of Ms. Kanichis with whom she was in regular contact. Ms. Gdak took no steps to try to limit her exposure on the Guarantee.

[89] The applicant argues that it had no duty to advise Ms. Gdak to obtain independent legal advice because she was a director of Trigger. It relies on the case of Meridian Credit Union Limited v. 2428128 Ontario Limited, 2017 ONSC 4578, 73 B.L.R. (5th) 262, in which the court found that independent legal advice is not required prior to the signing of a guarantee if the guaranteeing party is an officer and director of the corporation receiving the loan, citing Toronto-Dominion Bank v. 1503345 Ontario Ltd., [2006] O.J. No. 1960 (ONSC).

[90] I do not agree entirely with the applicant's conclusion. The analysis in Meridian was considered in the more recent decision of Glustein J. in Royal Bank of Canada v. 2414973, 2020 ONSC 6047, where the court held that the principle enunciated in Meridian only applies where a party pleads that the guarantee is "invalidated" because of a lack of independent legal advice at the time the guarantee was signed.

[91] Where a guarantor is raising the lack of independent legal advice to "invalidate" the guarantee, the fact that the guarantor was a director may be determinative. However, whether or not a party was a director of the corporation, the presence or absence of independent legal advice remains relevant where that party is raising the defence of unconscionability, and arguing that the party did not have an opportunity to review the guarantee with counsel who might have identified an inequality of bargaining power and a resulting improvident bargain.

[92] Where a guarantor relies on a lack of independent legal advice in raising a defence of unconscionability, non est factum, misrepresentation or the like, the fact that the guarantor is a director is only a factor to be considered. In such cases, merely holding the title of "director" does not necessarily alleviate the need for independent legal advice. Rather, the overriding question remains whether the guarantee is tainted by the presence of undue influence, unconscionability or similar circumstances of improper tactics, and whether the lender should have been put on notice of same. Where a spouse lacks sophistication or meaningful involvement with the corporation, the mere fact that he or she holds the title of "director" should not preclude the defence of unconscionability: see, for example, Royal Bank v. Hussain, [1997] 38 B.L.R. (2d) 92.

[93] In my view, Ms. Gdak was not a director in name only. Nor do I find that she performed only administrative tasks at Trigger or that she had no knowledge of the increase of the indebtedness of Trigger to the applicant, such that her dealings with the applicant are tainted by unconscionability.

[94] I am also not satisfied that Ms. Gdak did not have the opportunity to review her Guarantee with counsel. All the credit facility documents were signed in the presence of and witnessed by a lawyer, Mr. Kelly, of Kelly & Co. Ms. Gdak asserts that Mr. Kelly was the lawyer for Trigger and not her lawyer. However, in her examination, when questioned about documents relating to the sale of a condominium owned by her, in September 2020, and in particular about the reference to “Kelly & Co.” on the agreement of purchase and sale, Ms. Gdak stated that “they are our lawyers.” There is no documentary evidence before the court with respect to the nature and extent of Kelly & Co’s retainer vis-à-vis Trigger, En Cadre, Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak.

[95] Ms. Gdak has not met her onus to show an inequality of bargaining power and a resulting improvident bargain. I am not persuaded that Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee transaction was tainted by the presence of unconscionability or improper tactics such that the applicant ought to have been put on notice of such and encouraged her to obtain independent legal advice.

Did the applicant release Ms. Gdak from her Guarantee?

[96] Ms. Gdak asserts that the applicant released Ms. Gdak from her Guarantee through its words and conduct, and it is now estopped from asserting that the negotiations relating to Ms. Gdak’s release from her Guarantee were never consummated.

[97] For the reasons that follow, I find that the applicant did not conduct itself in a way that constituted a waiver of Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee. Paragraph 17 of the Guarantee clearly states that no waiver of the Guarantee or any of its terms or conditions shall be binding on the applicant unless expressly made in writing by the applicant. The applicant made no such express writing.

[98] As set out in Maracle v. Travellers Indemnity Co. of Canada, [1991] 2 S.C.R. 50, a party seeking to rely on promissory estoppel must show that:

- (a) the other party made a promise or assurance, through words or conduct, that was intended to affect the legal relationship between them and was to be acted on; and
- (b) in reliance on the representation, the representee changed her position.

[99] Ms. Gdak asserts that on multiple occasions the applicant represented that it had released her from her Guarantee. Ms. Gdak further asserts she changed her position in reliance on this conduct. For example, she deposed that, based on this reliance, she accepted a transfer of Mr. Gdak’s one-half interest in their family home to separate business assets from personal assets.

[100] In my view, Ms. Gdak has not made out promissory estoppel. She has not established that the applicant represented that it had released her from her Guarantee, nor that she relied on that representation to her detriment.

[101] In support of her argument that her Guarantee was released through the conduct of the applicant, Ms. Gdak relies primarily on the Proposal (dated May 2, 2019) sent by Mr. Rees to Mr. Gdak. The Proposal contemplates a renewal of the existing MPSA and a termination of the existing Royalty Agreement, among other things. Under the section “Additional Information and Agreement” it states: “No Personal Guarantees moving forward from Jaimee Gdak.” Below, in the same section, it states:

The foregoing Proposal does not constitute an offer, commitment or binding agreement to enter the Amended Credit Facilities unless and until approved by ClearFlow’s Credit Committee and/or Board in writing and execution of Documentation as described herein. ... Trigger Wholesale also authorizes ClearFlow to share this information with ClearFlow’s affiliates, assigns, lenders, designees or other third parties ClearFlow deems necessary to receive the appropriate approvals.

[102] Ms. Gdak asserts that, based on this provision, the only part of the Proposal, which was not a binding agreement, was the part that dealt specifically with the two credit facilities, being the MPSA and the Royalty Agreement. She further asserts that it naturally followed that the section dealing with Additional Information and Agreement, which followed the section dealing with the credit facilities, was binding and indeed an “agreement”, which included the agreement that there would be no personal guarantees moving forward from Ms. Gdak. Both Mr. Gdak and Mr. Rees signed the Proposal on May 6, 2019.

[103] I find this interpretation, too, to be highly technical, and neither correct nor commercially reasonable. Even if it could be said that the parties agreed to treat the Amended Credit Facilities as distinct from the Guarantees, and not as part of the same package of credit documents as presented to Trigger in 2019, the language in the Proposal nonetheless affirms that “moving forward” Ms. Gdak will not be asked to provide a personal guarantee. “Moving forward” anticipates the execution of the Amended Credit Facilities. It is implicit that if the Amended Credit Facilities were not approved by ClearFlow’s Credit Committee and/or its Board, in writing, the restructuring would not advance, and, in that case, Ms. Gdak would not be relieved of her Guarantee obligations. An agreement to relieve Ms. Gdak from entering into a fresh guarantee as part of the credit restructuring is not the equivalent of a waiver of her existing Guarantee. A waiver of the existing Guarantee, by its terms, must be in writing by the applicant.

[104] There is no evidence of any such waiver by the applicant. Further, based on the testimony of the president of the applicant, Mr. Peterson, in order to be binding on the applicant, the waiver would have had to be signed by the Board of Directors comprised Randy Rutherford and himself. Mr. Rees did not have the authority to waive Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee.

[105] Ms. Gdak confirmed that she was not involved in the negotiations regarding the credit restructuring. There is no evidence of any representation having been made to her by the applicant regarding her Guarantee. It was Mr. Gdak who was involved in the negotiations relating to the credit restructuring. Based on the evidentiary record, Mr. Gdak appreciated that Ms. Gdak's Guarantee had not been waived on May 6, 2020, when he accepted the Proposal. Mr. Petersen deposed that on May 6, 2020, he and others met with Mr. Gdak in Trigger's parking lot following their earlier meeting. Then and there, Mr. Gdak emphasized his desire that Ms. Gdak's Guarantee be released. Mr. Petersen's evidence is that he explained to Mr. Gdak that "that should be possible when the new expanded facility and MPSA agreements were finalized."

[106] Shortly thereafter, when Trigger's financial statements were not forthcoming, Mr. Rees sent Mr. Gdak an email advising him that the applicant was imposing an additional condition precedent to the credit restructuring – a third party field audit. Attached to Mr. Rees' email was a checklist of items that would need to be satisfied before the applicant would consider moving forward with the proposed restructuring of the credit facilities.

[107] Mr. Gdak's conduct after the May 6, 2019 meeting reinforces that he appreciated that Ms. Gdak's Guarantee had not been released.

[108] On May 16, 2019, Mr. Rees sent an email attaching draft documents to reflect the terms set out in the Proposal. Nowhere in his covering email does Mr. Rees state that the documents are in execution form or ready for signature. While he does not specifically state in his email that the documents are drafts, he does state that he will send copies of the existing signed documents "for Brian Kelly's reference/convenience." This statement suggests that the documents are drafts to be reviewed by Trigger's counsel, Mr. Kelly. In the same email, Mr. Rees provides the contact details for the applicant's counsel, which further reinforces that the attached documents are drafts to be negotiated and finalized between counsel. Mr. Rees does not ask Mr. Gdak to sign and return these documents. The documents do not include a waiver of Ms. Gdak's Guarantee. Mr. Rees later deposed that the documents he sent on May 16, 2019 were indeed drafts for review by legal counsel.

[109] A few months later, on July 2, 2019, Mr. Nero, of Trigger, on behalf of Mr. Gdak, returned the documents signed by Mr. Gdak to Mr. Rees via email.

[110] On July 3, 2019, Mr. Nero, on behalf of Mr. Gdak, wrote to Mr. Rees asking for copies of the documents signed by the applicant and "the release letter you confirmed would be sent discharging Jaimee's obligations." This inquiry confirms Mr. Nero's understanding that, as of July 3, 2019, Ms. Gdak's obligations under the Guarantee had not been discharged.

[111] Mr. Rees replied the same day stating that he "will prepare a letter of confirmation that the Guarantee of Jamie (sic) has been cancelled." I accept Mr. Rees' evidence that he never intended to indicate that the applicant had agreed to release Ms. Gdak's Guarantee, and that he neither had instructions from the applicant to release the Guarantee, nor any authority to do so. Mr. Rees knew that the release of the Guarantee was conditional on Trigger providing the requested financial statements. For that reason, he included this reminder in his email reply: “We do need the Financial Statements to implement the documents-it’s a condition.”

[112] On July 9, 2019, Mr. Rees sent an email to Mr. Gdak indicating that “Glenn will sign off the original legal documents when next in Toronto.” This statement can only be interpreted in the context of the entire transaction. At that time, both the applicant and Mr. Gdak were aware of the conditions precedent that needed to be fulfilled before the credit restructuring, including the release of Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee, would be approved. Those conditions included a review of Trigger’s financial statements for 2019 and 2020 in a form prescribed by the applicant as well as a satisfactory field audit.

[113] Mr. Gdak was fully aware of the conditions precedent to the proposed credit restructuring, which could have resulted in the release of Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee. Notwithstanding that Mr. Gdak returned signed documents to the applicant on July 2, 2019, he understood that the credit facilities would not be restructured until the conditions were met. Nearly a year later, on June 11, 2020, Mr. Gdak sent an email to Mr. Rees in which Mr. Gdak, himself, lists the “Conditions Precedent”, which include “Review Engagement Fiscal 2019”, “Management Prepared Financial Statement 2020” and “Field Audit by Steven Adler”, and he reports on the status of each with a commitment that Trigger will deliver the 2020 Review Engagement by July 31, 2020.

[114] Mr. Rees deposed that the draft “Acknowledgement” of the waiver of Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee, which had been included in the package of draft documents sent for review by counsel, was only sent to Mr. Gdak as an example of the type of acknowledgement that could be signed if there were agreement on all the other terms relating to the restructuring and all of the conditions precedent had been met. It was not an express waiver of Ms. Gdak’s existing Guarantee.

[115] Because financial statements in the form requested by the applicant were never delivered, and because Trigger failed the field audit, the conditions of the credit restructuring were never met. Neither the draft Acknowledgement, nor any other document expressly releasing Ms. Gdak from her Guarantee, was ever finalized, or signed by the applicant, and she was never released from her Guarantee by any means.

[116] It defies logic that Ms. Gdak or Mr. Gdak would have believed that the applicant would have agreed to the waiver of Ms. Gdak’s Guarantee or any other Guarantee in July 2019. At that time, Trigger had not provided its financial statements for fiscal 2019 and fiscal 2020, or met the condition for a satisfactory field audit. The applicant had not signed a single document to give effect to the restructuring of the credit facilities.

[117] On June 19, 2020, prior to the completion of the field audit, Mr. Gdak returned to the applicant a signed version of the MPSA, which he had unilaterally backdated to July 3, 2019. The applicant’s evidence is that it never considered that document to be legally binding because, not only had no one on behalf of the applicant signed the document, but also the MPSA was but one part of a package of documents the whole of which formed the basis for the restructuring and renewal of the credit facilities. Until all of them were approved and signed by both parties, Ms. Gdak's Guarantee would not be released.

[118] Mr. Gdak did not provide 2019 Review Engagement statements until June 25, 2020, 86 days following the fiscal year end, and he never produced the most recent 2020 financial statements on a Review Engagement basis, as requested by the applicant. Rather, he produced internal monthly statements for fiscal 2020. These financial statements were not accurate, and they were not acceptable to the applicant. By this time, the applicant was also aware that the field audit had uncovered extensive activities at Trigger that it believed to be fraudulent.

Is Mr. Gdak liable pursuant to his Guarantee?

[119] As noted above, Mr. Gdak did not deny liability pursuant to his Guarantee, and he did not file any responding materials on this motion with respect to his Guarantee. I agree with the applicant that judgment in respect of his liability should issue on an unopposed basis.

Disposition

[120] A Judgment shall issue declaring:

- (a) the personal Guarantee executed by the respondent, Mark Gdak, in favour of the applicant, ClearFlow Commercial Finance Corp., in respect of the indebtedness of Trigger Wholesale Inc., dated April 30, 2015, enforceable; and
- (b) the personal Guarantee executed by the respondent Jaimee Lynn Gdak in favour of the applicant, ClearFlow Commercial Finance Corp., in respect of the indebtedness of Trigger Wholesale Inc., dated April 30, 2015, enforceable.

The parties and the Receiver may arrange a case conference to address the quantum of the liability on the Guarantees.

Costs

[121] Any party seeking costs in this matter may serve and file written costs submissions not exceeding three pages in length (excluding a costs outline and offers to settle, if any) within ten days of these reasons. Any party wishing to respond to such written submissions shall serve and file similar written costs submissions within ten days thereafter.

10. The Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) and the Real Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report), with the exception of the real property identified municipally as 250 Lions Court, Waterloo, Ontario, are assets of Trigger.

11. In accordance with the Court's e-service protocol all materials filed with the Court in this matter are available on the Receiver's case website at www.GrantThornton.ca/TWI.

DISCLAIMER

12. In preparing this report, the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information related to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards ("GAAS") or International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.
13. This report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
14. All references to dollar amounts in this report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE THIRD REPORT

15. The purpose of this third report of the Receiver to Court (the "Third Report") is to advise the Court on the Receiver's activities since its appointment and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver's request for Orders:
 - a) approving the Third Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;
 - b) approving the Saugeen Beach Road sale transaction (the "Saugeen Beach Road Transaction") contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated April 28, 2021 and accepted as at April 30, 2021 (the "Saugeen Beach Road Sale Agreement") between Richard Arthur Garland and Lisa Lynne Garland (collectively, the "Purchasers") and the Receiver for the purchase and sale of a property located at 157 Saugeen Beach Road, Port Elgin, Ontario ("Saugeen Beach Road");

- c) authorizing the Receiver to take such steps and execute such documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Saugeen Beach Road Transaction;

- e) approving the Receiver's Statement of Receipts and Disbursements as at April 30, 2021 (the "SRD");
- f) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period from February 1, 2021 to April 30, 2021, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn May 7, 2021;
- g) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), legal counsel to the Receiver, for the period from February 1, 2021 to April 30, 2021, as set out in the Affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn May 6, 2021; and
- h) sealing the Confidential Appendices to the Third Report until a closing of the Saugeen Beach Road Transaction.

BACKGROUND

16. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Colby Drive Premises"). The directors of Trigger are Mark Gdak ("Mr. Gdak"), Jaimee Lynn Gdak ("Mrs. Gdak") and Brian Richard Kelly ("Brian Kelly"). Brian Kelly also acted as the Debtors' legal counsel. Brian Kelly resigned as director of the Trigger shortly after the Interim Receiver was appointed.
17. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.

18. In the Second Report the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) and the Trigger Real Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) were all purchased with Trigger funds which was obtained from Clearflow. The Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) and the Trigger Real Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) are property of Trigger.

SALE OF 157 SAUGEEN BEACH ROAD

19. The Trigger Real Property includes Saugeen Beach Road. In the Second Report, the Receiver detailed listing proposals obtained from several realtors for the sale of Saugeen Beach Road and the Receiver's recommendation that RE/Max Land Exchange ("RE/Max") be engaged to market Saugeen Beach Road for sale.
20. Subsequent to the Court issuing the Order for Directions, the Receiver engaged Re/Max to list Saugeen Beach Road for sale.
21. In order to encourage offers and to effectively canvass the market, RE/Max, together with guidance from the Receiver:
 - a) created a brochure containing key information on Saugeen Beach Road;
 - b) installed signage on-site at Saugeen Beach Road;
 - c) created a dedicated website, detailing the purchase opportunity, which included, among other things, property information, photographs, and a detailed virtual tour; and
 - d) posted the listing on MLS, Realtor.ca, the agent's own commercial website and other shared advertising websites.
22. The Receiver provided Re/Max a form of an Agreement of Purchase and Sale that the Receiver recommended interested parties use to submit their offers.
23. The online listings had 785 different agent views and 143 different client views.
24. RE/Max completed 13 physical showings of the Purchased Property.
25. The Receiver corresponded with RE/Max on a frequent basis to discuss the sale process, marketing efforts, interested parties, sales strategies, and eventually the submitted offers.

26. After numerous showings and fourteen (14) days on the market, a bid submission deadline was set for April 28, 2021. Five offers were received by the bid submission deadline. A summary of the five offers received is attached in Confidential Appendix “1”.
27. The Receiver identified the offer from the Purchasers as the best and highest offer. Between April 28, 2021 and April 30, 2021, the Receiver entered into negotiations with the Purchasers, which culminated in the completion of a Saugeen Beach Road Sale Agreement. A copy of the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Agreement which is redacted to remove the selling price is attached hereto as Appendix “12”. A full copy of the Saugeen Beach Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “2”.
28. The Saugeen Beach Road Sale Agreement is conditional upon the Receiver obtaining an Approval and Vesting Order from the Court.
29. Closing of the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Transaction is scheduled for 10 days following the Court issuing an Approval and Vesting Order.

The Mark Gdak Property Claim

30. The Receiver has been in possession of Saugeen Beach Road since shortly after the Receivership Order was issued on October 22, 2021.
31. While the building envelope of Saugeen Beach Road is complete, there remains a significant amount of interior and exterior finishing to be completed. Much of the building materials required to complete the construction, as well as interior furnishing, was present at Saugeen Beach Road when the Receiver took possession of the property.
32. In marketing Saugeen Beach Road for sale, the Receiver advised interested purchasers that the contents of Saugeen Beach Road were to be included as part of the sale, except for a boat, a trailer and two all terrain vehicles located in the garage.
33. As noted above, the Receiver set a deadline for submission of offers from interested purchasers of April 28, 2021, by which date 5 offers were received.

34. On April 29, 2021, Mr. Gdak sent a Property Proof of Claim to the Receiver in which he claims a lengthy listing of items at Saugeen Beach Road to be his personal assets (the “Gdak Property Claim”).
35. Upon receiving the Gdak Property Claim, the Receiver advised the Purchasers of the claim. The Receiver and the Purchasers agreed that the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Agreement would list the items claimed in the Gdak Property Claim as excluded chattels in order to avoid a conflict on closing should the Receiver need to turn over these items to Mr. Gdak.
36. The Receiver issued Notice of Disallowance of the Gdak Property Claim on May 5, 2021 on the basis that Mr. Gdak had not provided any proof of ownership of the items claimed.
37. On May 7, 2021, Mr. Gdak and the Receiver, with the consent of the Purchasers, reached an agreement whereby the Receiver would release certain items of nominal value to Mr. Gdak and that Mr. Gdak would withdraw the Gdak Property Claim (the “Gdak Personal Items”). A listing of the Gdak Personal Items is attached hereto as Appendix “13”.
38. On May 10, 2021, the Receiver met with Mr. Gdak at Saugeen Beach Road and allowed Mr. Gdak to retrieve the Gdak Personal Items.

Court Approval of the Sale of Saugeen Beach Road

39. The Receiver conducted an extensive marketing process, which widely exposed Saugeen Beach Road to the market.
40. In light of the sale process conducted by the Receiver, the opinion of value received by the Receiver and the offers that were received for Saugeen Beach Road, the Receiver is of the opinion that the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Transaction represents the highest and best price that can be obtained for Saugeen Beach Road.
41. The Receiver's sale process was fair and reasonable. The Receiver made sufficient effort to obtain the best price and has not acted improvidently. The Saugeen Beach Road Sale Transaction is supported by Clearflow.
42. Accordingly, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court approve the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Transaction, grant the Approval and Vesting Order and authorize the Receiver to take all steps necessary to complete the Saugeen Beach Road Sale Transaction.

ACTIVITIES OF THE RECEIVER

43. Since its appointment, the Receiver's activities have included matters not otherwise described in the First Report, the Second Report and the Third Report, including, but not limited to:
- a) Preparing this Third Report;
 - b) closing the Inventory Transaction;
 - c) closing the Sea Ray Transaction; and
 - d) taking possession of the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) and marketing them for sale.

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

44. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
45. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.
46. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from February 1, 2021 to April 30, 2021 amount to $239,607.69 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn May 7, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "14".
47. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver's counsel, BLG, from February 1, 2021 to April 30, 2021 amount to $256,095.36 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn May 6, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "15".
48. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

49. The interim statement of receipts and disbursements of the Interim Receiver and Receiver as at April 30, 2021 (the "SRD"), is attached hereto as Appendix "16".

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

50. The Receiver believes that Confidential Appendix "1" and "2" should remain sealed until further order of the Court, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the sale of Saugeen Beach Road. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer for Saugeen Beach Road, should the Saugeen Beach Road Transaction not close.
51. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices are sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

52. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 15 of this Third Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ON READING the Third Report and on hearing the submissions of counsel for the Receiver, counsel for Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp. and such other counsel as listed on the counsel slip, no one appearing for any other person on the service list, although properly served as appears from the affidavit of Mariela Adriana Gasparini sworn May 11, 2021 filed:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Sale Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and for the conveyance of the Purchased Property to the Purchasers.
2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchasers substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the "Receiver's Certificate"), all of the Debtors' or Jaimee Lynn Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property described in the Sale Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Purchasers, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Gilmore dated October 13, 2020; (ii) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020; (iii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security

3. THIS COURT ORDERS that upon the registration in the Land Registry Office for Land Titles Division of Bruce of an Application for Vesting Order in the form prescribed by the Land Titles Act and/or the Land Registration Reform Act, the Land Registrar is hereby directed to enter the Purchasers as the owner of the subject real property identified in Schedule B hereto (the "Real Property") in fee simple, and is hereby directed to delete and expunge from title to the Real Property all of the Claims listed in Schedule C hereto.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Property shall stand in the place and stead of the Purchased Property, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Property with the same priority as they had with respect to the Purchased Property immediately prior to the sale, as if the Purchased Property had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DIRECTS the Receiver to file with the Court a copy of the Receiver's Certificate, forthwith after delivery thereof.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding:

the vesting of the Purchased Property in the Purchasers pursuant to this Order shall be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed in respect of the Debtors or Jaimee Lynn Gdak, and shall not be void or voidable by creditors of the Debtors or Jaimee Lynn Gdak, nor shall it constitute nor be deemed to be a fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, transfer at undervalue, or other reviewable transaction under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, nor shall it constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

7. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Third Report of the Receiver and the activities of the Receiver, as described in the Third Report, be and are hereby approved; provided, however that only the Receiver, in its personal capacity and only with respect to its own personal liability, shall be entitled to rely upon or utilize in any way such approval.

16. In preparing this fourth report of the Receiver to Court (the “Fourth Report”), the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information relating to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”) or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.

17. This Fourth Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Fourth Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
18. All references to dollar amounts in this Fourth Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE FOURTH REPORT

19. The purpose of this Fourth Report is to advise the Court on the Receiver’s activities since its appointment and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver’s request for Orders:
 - a) approving the Fourth Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;
 - b) approving the 652 Colby Drive sale transaction (the “652 Colby Drive Transaction”) contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated May 13, 2021 and accepted as at May 20, 2021 (the “652 Colby Drive Sale Agreement”) between Baka Properties Holdings Ltd. - h) sealing the Confidential Appendices to the Fourth Report until a closing of the 652 Colby Drive Transaction.

BACKGROUND

- 20. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Colby Drive Premises"). The directors of Trigger are Mr. Gdak, Ms. Gdak and Brian Richard Kelly ("Brian Kelly"). Brian Kelly also acted as the Debtors' legal counsel. Brian Kelly resigned as director of the Trigger shortly after the Interim Receiver was appointed.
- 21. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
- 22. The Second Report the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property Assets are property of Trigger.

ACTIVITIES OF THE RECEIVER

23. The Second Report the Receiver described that Mr. Gdak created fictitious email addresses in order to impersonate Canadian Tire and Home Hardware employees for the apparent purpose of providing false information to Clearflow with respect to Trigger's business operations.
24. The Second Report also details how Mr. Gdak created fictitious email correspondence between himself and representatives of Clearflow for the apparent purpose of providing false information to Bank of Montreal ("BMO") with respect to Trigger's operational dealings with Clearflow.
25. The Receiver has now learned that Mr. Gdak also prepared fictitious documentation which Mr. Gdak provided to Clearflow for the apparent purpose of seeking to convince Clearflow that Trigger was holding millions of dollars in a reserve account at BMO. Copies of the emails and BMO banking documents are attached hereto as Appendix "16".
26. The Receiver has presented these documents to BMO, who advised the Receiver that same are forged and that the bank accounts referenced in the documents have never existed.

SALE OF SAUGEEN BEACH ROAD

27. The Third Report the Receiver described the marketing and sale process in respect of the Saugeen Beach Road Transaction. Subsequently, the Court issued an approval and vesting order in respect of the Saugeen Beach Road Transaction.
28. The Saugeen Beach Road Transaction is scheduled to close on June 10, 2021.

SALE OF 652 COLBY DRIVE

29. The Trigger Real Property includes 652 Colby Drive. In the Second Report, the Receiver detailed listing proposals obtained from several realtors for the sale of 652 Colby Drive and the Receiver's recommendation that Colliers International ("Colliers") be engaged to market 652 Colby Drive for sale.

30. The Court approved the Receiver's listing recommendation in the March 31, 2021 Order for Directions. Therefore, the Receiver engaged Colliers to list 652 Colby Drive for sale.
31. In order to encourage offers and to effectively canvass the market, Colliers, together with guidance from the Receiver:
 - a) created a brochure containing key information on 652 Colby Drive;
 - b) installed signage on-site at 652 Colby Drive;
 - c) created a dedicated website, detailing the purchase opportunity, which included, among other things, property information, and photographs; and
 - d) posted the listing on MLS, Realtor.ca, and other shared advertising websites.
32. The Receiver provided Colliers with a form of an Agreement of Purchase and Sale that the Receiver recommended interested parties use to submit their offers.
33. Colliers received 21 inquiries about 652 Colby Drive and completed 14 physical showings.
34. The Receiver corresponded with Colliers on a frequent basis to discuss the sale process, marketing efforts, interested parties, sales strategies, and eventually, the submitted offers.
35. After numerous showings and twenty-seven (27) days on the market, a bid submission deadline was set for May 11, 2021. Five offers were received by the bid submission deadline. A summary of the five offers received is attached in Confidential Appendix "1".
36. The Receiver identified the offer from the 652 Colby Drive Purchaser as the best and highest offer. Between May 11, 2021 and May 20, 2021, the Receiver entered into negotiations with the 652 Colby Drive Purchaser, which culminated in the completion of the 652 Colby Drive Sale Agreement. A copy of the 652 Colby Drive Sale Agreement, which is redacted to remove the selling price is attached hereto as Appendix "17". A full copy of the 652 Colby Drive Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix "2".
37. The 652 Colby Drive Sale Agreement is conditional upon the Receiver obtaining an Approval and Vesting Order from the Court.

38. Closing of the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction is scheduled for 10 days following the Court issuing an Approval and Vesting Order.

Court Approval of the Sale of 652 Colby Drive

39. The Receiver conducted an extensive marketing process, which widely exposed 652 Colby Drive to the market.
40. In light of the sale process conducted by the Receiver, the opinion of value received by the Receiver and the offers that were received for 652 Colby Drive, the Receiver is of the opinion that the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction represents the highest and best price that can be obtained for 652 Colby Drive.
41. The Receiver's sale process was fair and reasonable. The Receiver made sufficient effort to obtain the best price and has not acted improvidently. The 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction is supported by Clearflow.
42. Accordingly, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court approve the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction, grant the Approval and Vesting Order and authorize the Receiver to take all steps necessary to complete the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSETS

43. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) are property of Trigger. The Personal Property Assets include the following assets, all as defined in the Second Report:
- a) The Scarab;
 - b) The ATVs;
 - c) The SeaDoos;
 - d) The Trailer;
 - e) The Range Rover;
 - f) Rolex Watch Diamond Dial Watch;
 - g) Breitling Watch;
 - h) Omega Watch;
 - i) Ladies 18 Karat Paladium Diamond Necklace; and
 - j) Rolex Datejust Diamond Dial Watch.

The Scarab, ATVs and SeaDoos

44. In the Second Report, the Receiver detailed that Trigger funds totalling $141,398.98, plus HST, were used to purchase these assets as follows:

a) The Scarab	$ 82,500.00
b) The ATVs	$ 28,316.00
c) The SeaDoos	$ 30,582.98
TOTAL	$141,398.98

45. The Receiver received two offers to purchase all of these assets as follows:

a) Team Vincent	$124,465.00
b) Scott Boldt	$125,000.00

The Receiver negotiated with both interested purchasers, which resulted in the Receiver concluding the sale of these assets to Scott Boldt for $145,000.00, plus HST, which is slightly greater than the original price paid by Trigger for these assets. As the purchase price for these assets was less than the monetary limit provided for at paragraph 5(k) of the Receivership Order, Court approval was not required in respect of same. A copy of the bill of sale is attached hereto as Appendix “18”.

46. The Receiver also arranged to pay storage fees owing to Team Vincent in the amount of $1,784.50 for the SeaDoos.

The Trailer

47. The Receiver obtained an appraisal of the Trailer from Platinum Asset Appraisals which valued the Trailer at between $5,000 and $6,500. The Receiver sold the Trailer for $6,500 plus HST. As the purchase price for the Trailer was less than the monetary limit provided for at paragraph 5(k) of the Receivership Order, Court approval was not required in respect of same. Copies of the Trailer Appraisal and the Trailer Bill of Sale are attached hereto as Appendix “19” and “20” respectively.

The Ranger Rover

48. Ms. Gdak requested that the Receiver permit her to retain the Range Rover until May 31, 2021 to allow her sufficient time to find alternative transportation. The Receiver agreed to Ms. Gdak's request. On May 31, 2021, Ms. Gdak arranged for the Range Rover to be delivered to the Receiver.

49. The Receiver is in the process of having the Range Rover appraised and arranging for its sale.

 - e) Ladies 18 karat Paladium and Diamond necklace; and 52. The Ladies Rolex Oyster Perpetual Datejust Diamond Dial white gold watch was appraised at $28,000 inclusive of HST. Mr. Spillman arranged to sell the watch for $30,000 inclusive of HST. The Receiver paid Mr. Spillman a 15% selling commission on the sale.

PROPOSED INTERIM DISTRIBUTION

Secured Creditors

54. Based on a review of registrations made under the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario), as of November 2, 2020, the following parties have registered financing statements against Trigger's personal property:
- a) Clearflow, with a Master Purchase and Sale Agreement and General Security Agreement against Trigger's personal property ("Clearflow Security");
 - b) De Lage Landen Financial Services Canada Inc. ("De Lage Landen"), with a specific security interest over one (1) Konica Accuriopress Printer together with all parts and accessories ("De Lage Security");
 - c) Ford Credit Canada Company ("Ford Credit"), with a specific security interest over a 2018 Ford F150 VIN: 1FTFW1E13JFD46719 and a 2017 Ford F150 VIN: 1FTEW1EF6HFC54487 ("Ford Security");

- d) Mark Gdak, with a General Security Agreement against Trigger's personal property, subordinate to the Clearflow Security; and
 - e) The En Candre Group Inc., with a General Security Agreement against Trigger's personal property, subordinate to the Clearflow Security.
55. The Receiver's independent legal counsel, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("Receiver's Counsel") conducted a review of the Clearflow Security to confirm whether it was properly perfected and enforceable as against a trustee in bankruptcy.
56. Receiver's Counsel has issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over Trigger's personal property other than the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report), such personal property consisting of inventory and accounts receivable, dated May 21, 2021 (the "Inventory and AR Security Opinion"). The Inventory and AR Security Opinion states that, subject to customary caveats and qualifications, Clearflow's security interest over such personal property is valid and enforceable.
57. In reviewing the De Lage Security, the Receiver noted that the security was registered for certain leased equipment and that there did not appear to be any equity in the leased equipment. The Receiver subsequently disclaimed its interest in the subject leased equipment on December 14, 2020 and the leased equipment has since been repossessed by De Lage Landen.
58. In reviewing the Ford Security, the Receiver noted that the security was registered against specific leased vehicles, which appeared to have significant equity. The Receiver subsequently authorized Ford Credit to repossess the leased vehicles, provided that any equity resulting from the sale of the vehicles was paid to the Receiver. Ford Credit has subsequently repossessed the vehicles and has paid equity resulting from their sale in the amount of $54,899.75 to the Receiver.

Priority Claims

59. The Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") finalized its trust examination of Trigger's source deductions which resulted in CRA filing a proof of claim dated March 21, 2021 in the amount of $456,633.56 of which $394,582.82 is claimed in priority to all other secured claims (the "CRA Priority Claim"), with the remaining $62,050.74 being unsecured. A copy of the claim is attached hereto as Appendix "21".

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

60. The Receiver proposes to pay the CRA Priority Claim.
61. The Receiver further proposes to make an interim distribution to Clearflow in the amount of $1,000,000 from the Receiver's realization from Trigger's inventory and accounts receivable.
62. The Receiver's interim statement of receipts and disbursements as at May 31, 2021 (the "SRD"), including the proposed distributions is attached hereto as Appendix "22".

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

63. The Receiver believes that Confidential Appendices "1" and "2" should remain sealed until the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction has closed, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer for 652 Colby Drive Sale Transaction not close.
64. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices "1" and "2" are sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

65. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 19 of this Fourth Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and for the conveyance of the Purchased Property to the Purchaser.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchaser substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the "Receiver's Certificate"), all of the Debtors' and Jaimak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property described in the Sale Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Purchaser, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Gilmore dated October 13, 2020; (ii) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020; (iii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or any other personal property registry system; and (iv) those Claims listed on Schedule C hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances", which term

A copy of the Fourth Report is attached hereto as Appendix “17” without appendices.
16. On June 14, 2021, the Court issued an approval and vesting order in respect of the 652 Colby Drive Transaction and an order authorizing the Receiver to distribute the proceeds of realization from the Inventory and Accounts Receivable, as defined in the Second Report, (the “Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order”). Copies of the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order, along with the Endorsement of Justice Cavanagh, are attached hereto as Appendix “18”.

17. In accordance with the Court’s e-service protocol all materials filed with the Court in this matter are available on the Receiver’s case website at www.GrantThornton.ca/TWI.

DISCLAIMER

18. In preparing this fifth report of the Receiver to Court (the “Fifth Report”), the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information relating to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”) or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.
19. This Fifth Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Fifth Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
20. All references to dollar amounts in this Fifth Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE FIFTH REPORT

21. The purpose of this Fifth Report is to advise the Court on the Receiver’s activities since the date of the Fourth Report and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver’s request for Orders:
 - a) approving the Fifth Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;

- b) approving the Receiver's proposed sale of 265 Old Post Road (the "Old Post Road Transaction") contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated June 29, 2021 and accepted as at June 30, 2021 (the "Old Post Road Sale Agreement") between Maria Elana Andrusiak Morland and Paul Arthur Alain Lemieux (collectively, the "Old Post Road Purchasers") and the Receiver for the purchase and sale of a property located at 265 Old Post Road, Waterloo, Ontario ("Old Post Road");
- c) authorizing the Receiver to take such steps and execute such documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Old Post Road Transaction;
- d) vesting in the Old Post Road Purchasers all of the Receiver's and Ms. Gdak's right, title and interest in and to Old Post Road, free and clear of all encumbrances, except certain permitted encumbrances;
- e) approving a distribution to Clearflow in the amount of $5,300,000 from the proceeds of the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report;
- f) approving a distribution to Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 in the amount of $3,467 from the proceeds arising from the Old Post Road Transaction;
- g) authorizing and directing the Receiver and any third party in possession or control of any information obtained from the computers or cell phones for each of Mark Gdak and J. Gdak (the "Information") to provide the Information, or access to the Information, to Clearflow;
- h) approving the Receiver's Interim Statement of Receipts and Disbursements as at July 31, 2021 (the "SRD");
- i) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period May 1, 2021 to July 31, 2021, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn August 12, 2021;
- j) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), legal counsel to the Receiver for the period May 1, 2021 to July 31, 2021, as set out in the affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn August 6, 2021;
- k) sealing the Confidential Appendices to the Fifth Report until a closing of the Old Post Road Transaction.

BACKGROUND

22. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Colby Drive Premises"). The directors of Trigger are Mr. Gdak, Ms. Gdak and Brian Richard Kelly ("Brian Kelly"). Brian Kelly also acted as the Debtors' legal counsel. Brian Kelly resigned as director of the Trigger shortly after the Interim Receiver was appointed.
23. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
24. In the Second Report the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger.

GDAK ELECTRONIC RECORDS

25. Upon taking possession of the Trigger premises the Receiver noticed computer wires and accessories at the desks of Mr. and Ms. Gdak, however the computers were missing.
26. The Receiver demanded that Mr. and Ms. Gdak turn over these computers to the Receiver. Counsel for Mr. and Ms. Gdak refused to turn over the computers on the basis that they may contain privileged communications.
27. The Receiver and counsel for each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak agreed that counsel for Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak would engage a forensic expert to copy the data on Mr.

- Gdak and Ms. Gdak's computers and cell phones, review and redact any communications they considered privileged, and provide the remaining data to the Receiver.
28. The Receiver followed up numerous times and the data was finally provided to the Receiver by counsel for each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak.
 29. Clearflow has requested that the Receiver provide it with access to the Information. The Receiver believes that Clearflow is entitled to review the Information. The Receiver understands that counsel for each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak do not oppose Clearflow gaining access to the Information. While counsel for Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak have not opposed the Receiver providing the Information to Clearflow, they have also not provided their consent.
 30. The Receiver therefore requests that the Court authorize and direct the Receiver and any third party in possession or control of any Information obtained from the computers or cell phones for each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak, to provide the Information, or access to the Information, to Clearflow.

SALE OF 652 COLBY DRIVE

31. Subsequent to the Court issuing the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order the Receiver made arrangements to complete the sale of 652 Colby Drive. The 652 Colby Drive Transaction closed on June 28, 2021.

SALE OF OLD POST ROAD

32. In the Second Report, the Receiver detailed how Ms. Gdak was the registered owner of Old Post Road and that payment to purchase the property was made entirely by Trigger, with funds it obtained from Clearflow.
33. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions subsequently declared Trigger to be the owner of Old Post Road.
34. In the Second Report, the Receiver reported that Old Post Road was occupied by Ms. Gdak's parents, William and Kathryn Clayton (the "Claytons"), pursuant to the Clayton License Agreement, as defined in the Second Report. The Second Report also stated that the Receiver had received a copy of an email from William Clayton to Mr. Gdak, advising that the Claytons intended to vacate Old Post Road by July 31, 2021.

35. In the Second Report the Receiver detailed listing proposals obtained from several realtors for the sale of Old Post Road and the Receiver's recommendation that RE/Max Twin City Realty Inc. ("RE/Max") be engaged to market Old Post Road for sale.
36. The Court approved the Receiver's listing recommendation in the March 31, 2021 Order for Directions. The Receiver intended to wait to list Old Post Road for sale until the Claytons had vacated the property, however, on May 27, 2021 the Receiver received an email from William Clayton requesting that the Receiver allow the Claytons to remain at Old Post Road until August 31, 2021. The Receiver agreed to this request on the basis that the Claytons would provide full cooperation with the Receiver listing Old Post Road for sale and with any attendances required by RE/Max to show the property to interested purchasers. The Claytons agreed to the Receiver's terms of the extension.
37. The Receiver thereafter engaged RE/Max to list Old Post Road for sale.
38. In order to encourage offers and to effectively canvass the market, RE/Max, together with guidance from the Receiver, took the following steps:
 - a) created a brochure containing key information on Old Post Road;
 - b) created a dedicated website, detailing the purchase opportunity, which included, among other things, property information and photographs; and
 - c) posted the listing on MLS, Realtor.ca and other shared advertising websites.
39. The Receiver provided RE/Max with a form of an Agreement of Purchase and Sale that the Receiver recommended interested parties use to submit their offers.
40. The Old Post Road listing received 355 unique viewings online and 8 physical showings were completed by RE/Max.
41. The Receiver corresponded with RE/Max on a frequent basis to discuss the sale process, marketing efforts, interested parties, sales strategies, and eventually, the submitted offer.
42. After seven (7) days of "coming soon" advertising, 8 showings and seven (7) days on the market, a bid submission deadline was set for June 29, 2021. One offer was received by the bid submission deadline. RE/Max inquired with all the other parties that attended the property for a viewing and determined that no other offers would be submitted in the near future by these parties.

43. Between June 29, 2021 and June 30, 2021, the Receiver entered into negotiations with the Old Post Road Purchasers, which culminated in the completion of the Old Post Road Sale Agreement. A summary of the offers received, and the appraised value of Old Post Road is attached in Confidential Appendix “1”. A copy of the Old Post Road Sale Agreement, which is redacted to remove the selling price, is attached hereto as Appendix “19”. A full copy of the Old Post Road Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “2”.
44. The Old Post Road Sale Agreement was conditional upon the Old Post Road Purchasers arranging for financing by way of a new first charge/mortgage, which condition was subsequently satisfied. Attached hereto as Appendix “20” is a copy of the Notice of Fulfillment.
45. The Old Post Road Sale Agreement was also conditional upon the Receiver obtaining an Approval and Vesting Order from the Court. Closing of the Old Post Road Transaction is scheduled for the later of September 2, 2021 or 10 days following the Court issuing an Approval and Vesting Order, but no later than September 30, 2021.

Court Approval of the Sale of 265 Old Post Road

46. The Receiver conducted an extensive marketing process, which widely exposed Old Post Road to the market.
47. In light of the sale process conducted by the Receiver, the opinion of value received by the Receiver and the offer that was received for Old Post Road, the Receiver is of the opinion that the Old Post Road Transaction represents the highest and best price that can be obtained for Old Post Road.
48. The Receiver’s sale process was fair and reasonable. The Receiver made sufficient effort to obtain the best price and has not acted improvidently. The Old Post Road Transaction is supported by Clearflow.

49. Accordingly, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court approve the Old Post Road Transaction, grant the Approval and Vesting Order and authorize the Receiver to take all steps necessary to complete the Old Post Road Transaction.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSETS

50. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) are property of Trigger. The Personal Property Assets include the following assets, all as defined in the Second Report:

- a) The Scarab;
- b) The Sea Ray;
- c) The ATVs;
- d) The Sea Doos;
- e) The Trailer;
- f) The Range Rover;
- g) Rolex Watch Diamond Dial Watch;
- h) Breitling Watch;
- i) Omega Watch;
- j) Ladies 18 Karat Paladium Diamond Necklace; and
- k) Rolex Datejust Diamond Dial Watch.

51. As described in the Fourth Report, collection and monetization efforts of the Personal Property Assets have been ongoing. To date, the Receiver has been able to monetize the Scarab, the Sea Ray, the ATVs, the Sea Doos, the Trailer, the Ladies Rolex Oyster Perpetual Datejust Diamond Dial white gold watch, the Omega Watch and the Breitling Watch.

The Range Rover

52. As described in the Fourth Report, the Receiver is in possession of the Range Rover. The Receiver has engaged Manheim Auctions Inc., to complete the sale of the Range Rover and will report to the Court once a sale is complete.

The Jewelry

53. As reported in the Fourth Report and in this Fifth Report, the Receiver completed the sale of some of the jewelry and the following jewelry remains to be sold:
- a) Rolex Oyster Perpetual Datejust Two Tone Diamond Dial watch;

- b) Breitling Bentley 18k Rose Gold Crocodile Strap watch (the “Breitling Watch”);
 - c) Omega Seamaster Planet Ocean GMT watch (the “Omega Watch”);
 - d) Ladies gold and diamond necklace; and
 - e) Ladies 18 Karat Paladium and Diamond necklace.
54. The Receiver has now also sold the Breitling Watch and the Omega Watch with the assistance of a watch broker.
55. The Receiver will continue to advance its efforts to sell the remaining Personal Property Assets and will report on the outcome of these efforts in a future report to the Court.

PROPOSED INTERIM DISTRIBUTION

Secured Creditors

56. In the Fourth Report, the Receiver outlined the various registrations made under the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario). As of November 2, 2020, the following parties have registered financing statements against Trigger’s personal property:
- a) Clearflow, with a Master Purchase and Sale Agreement and General Security Agreement against Trigger’s personal property (“Clearflow Security”);
 - b) De Lage Landen Financial Services Canada Inc. (“De Lage Landen”), with a specific security interest over one (1) Konica Accuriopress Printer, together with all parts and accessories (“De Lage Security”);
 - c) Ford Credit Canada Company (“Ford Credit”), with a specific security interest over a 2018 Ford F150 VIN: 1FTFW1E13JFD46719 and a 2017 Ford F150 VIN: 1FTEW1EF6HFC54487 (“Ford Security”);
 - d) Mark Gdak, with a General Security Agreement against Trigger’s personal property, subordinate to the Clearflow Security; and
 - e) The En Candre Group Inc., with a General Security Agreement against Trigger’s personal property, subordinate to the Clearflow Security.

Security Opinions

57. The Receiver's independent legal counsel, BLG, conducted a review of the Clearflow Security to confirm whether it was properly perfected and enforceable as against a trustee in bankruptcy.

Inventory and Accounts Receivable

58. As noted in the Fourth Report, the Receiver's counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over Trigger's personal property, other than the Personal Property Assets, (as defined in the Second Report), such personal property consisting of inventory and accounts receivable, which security opinion was dated May 21, 2021 (the "Inventory and AR Security Opinion"). The Inventory and AR Security Opinion states that, subject to customary caveats and qualifications, Clearflow's security interest over such personal property is valid and enforceable.
59. As a result of the Inventory and AR Security Opinion, the Court granted the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order, which provided for, inter alia, a distribution to Clearflow in the amount of $1,000,000.

Personal Property Assets

60. On June 18, 2021, the Receiver's counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over the Personal Property Assets, as defined in the Second Report, (the "Personal Property Assets Opinion"). As the realization of the Personal Property Assets is ongoing at this time, the Receiver will report on the review of the Clearflow Security with regard to the Personal Property Assets in a future report to the Court.

Real Property Assets

61. On June 30, 2021, the Receiver's counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report, (the "Real Property Opinion"). The Real Property Opinion states that, subject to customary caveats and qualifications, Clearflow has a security interest and an equitable mortgage in respect of the Trigger Real Property that is valid and enforceable. A copy of the Real Property Opinion is attached hereto as Appendix "21".

62. The Real Property Opinion mentions a number of liens that are filed against the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report. The liens are summarized as follows:

Property	Registration	Type of Lien	Amount
157 Saugeen Beach Road	Ace Lawn Care Inc. (" Ace ")	Construction	$425,383
157 Saugeen Beach Road	J.B. Construction Inc. (" JBC ")	Construction	$51,701
652 Colby Drive	Ace	Construction	$9,388
652 Colby Drive	JBC	Construction	$90,171
265 Old Post Road	Ace	Construction	$50,544
		TOTAL	$627,187

63. The Receiver and Receiver's counsel are reviewing the liens. The Receiver proposes to hold the amount of $783,983.75 from any distribution calculated, being the total amount of the liens, plus 25% ($156,796.75), which the Receiver understands is the amount typically required under the Construction Act to vacate a lien.
64. The realizations from the Trigger Real Property and the proposed amount to be held for future lien resolution has been summarized and attached hereto as Confidential Appendix "3". This summary is included as a Confidential Appendix as it includes the proposed sale price for Old Post Road.
65. There is one additional lien registered against Old Post Road as follows:

Property	Registration	Type of Lien	Amount
265 Old Post Road	Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9	Condominium	$3,467

66. The Receiver has investigated this lien and believes it to be valid and enforceable and proposes to pay this lien on closing of the Old Post Road Transaction from the sale proceeds.

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

67. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
68. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.
69. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from May 1, 2021 to July 31, 2021 amount to $130,481.73 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn August 12, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “22”.
70. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver’s counsel, BLG, from May 1, 2021 to July 31, 2021 amount to $291,246.51 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn August 6, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “23”.
71. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

72. The SRD, including the proposed distributions, is attached hereto as Appendix “24”.

Proposed Distribution

73. The Receiver proposes to retain the proceeds from sale of Personal Property Assets in the amount of $843,093.
74. The Receiver also proposes to retain $783,983, on account of the above noted liens, as allocated to the proceeds from the sale of each of the Trigger Real Property, as detailed in Confidential Appendix “3”.
75. The Receiver also proposes to retain the amount of $500,000 pending completion of the Receivership.

76. The Receiver proposes to make a distribution to Clearflow from the realizations derived from the Trigger Real Property in the amount of $5,300,000.
77. The Receiver proposes to pay the lien registered by the Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 in the amount of $3,467 from the proceeds of the sale of Old Post Road.

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

78. The Receiver believes that Confidential Appendices "1", "2" and "3" should remain sealed until the Old Post Road Transaction has closed, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the Old Post Road Transaction. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer, should the Old Post Road Transaction not close.
79. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices "1", "2" and "3" are sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

80. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 21 of this Fifth Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

("Jaimak") or Jaimee Lynn Gdak, for an order approving the sale transaction (the "Transaction") contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated June 29, 2021 and accepted on June 30, 2021 (the "Sale Agreement") between the Receiver and Maria Elana Andrusiak Morland and Paul Arthur Alain Lemieux (collectively, the "Purchasers") for the purchase and sale of a property located at 265 Old Post Rd, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Purchased Property") and appended to the fifth report of the Receiver dated August 12, 2021 (the "Fifth Report"), and vesting in the Purchasers the Debtors' and Jaimee Lynn Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property, was heard this day by Zoom videoconference due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

ON READING the Fifth Report and on hearing the submissions of counsel for the Receiver, counsel for Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp., counsel for the Purchasers and such other counsel as listed on the counsel slip, no one appearing for any other person on the service list, although properly served as appears from the affidavit of Mariela Adriana Gasparini sworn August 13, 2021 filed:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Sale Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and for the conveyance of the Purchased Property to the Purchasers.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchasers substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the "Receiver's Certificate"), all of the Debtors' and Jaimee Lynn Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property described in the Sale Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Purchasers, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Gilmore dated October 13, 2020; (ii) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020; (iii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or any other personal property registry system; and (iv) those Claims listed on Schedule C hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances", which term shall not include the permitted encumbrances, easements and restrictive covenants listed on Schedule D) and, for greater certainty, this Court orders that all of the Encumbrances affecting or relating to the Purchased Property are hereby expunged and discharged as against the Purchased Property.

3. THIS COURT ORDERS that upon the registration in the Land Registry Office for Land Titles Division of Waterloo (LRO#58) of an Application for Vesting Order in the form prescribed by the Land Titles Act and/or the Land Registration Reform Act, the Land Registrar is hereby directed to enter the Purchasers as the owner of the subject real property identified in Schedule B hereto (the "Real Property") in fee simple, and is hereby directed to delete and expunge from title to the Real Property all of the Claims listed in Schedule C hereto.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Property shall stand in the place and stead of the Purchased Property, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Property with the same priority as they had with respect to the Purchased Property immediately prior to the sale, as if the Purchased Property had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DIRECTS the Receiver to file with the Court a copy of the Receiver's Certificate, forthwith after delivery thereof.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding:

- (a) the pendency of these proceedings;
- (b) any applications for a bankruptcy order now or hereafter issued pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) in respect of the Debtors, or Jaimee Lynn Gdak, or any bankruptcy order issued pursuant to any such applications; and Lawyers for Grant Thornton Limited, in its capacity as Court-appointed Receiver of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. and The En Cadre Group Inc.

Endorsement of Justice Conway dated August 20, 2021:

The Receiver seeks various relief as set out in its motion materials and the Fifth Report, including approval of the sale and an AVO for the Old Post Road transaction; sealing the confidential appendices to the report; authority for the Receiver to provide to Clearflow the information the Receiver received from the Gdaks' cell phones and computers; approval of a distribution to Clearflow from the Trigger real property sales of $5.3 million on top of the $1 million previously distributed to it; approval of a minor distribution to Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9; approval of receipts and disbursements; and approval of fees and disbursements for the Receiver and its counsel.

The relief sought is unopposed.

I am satisfied that the sale transaction for Old Post Road meets the Soundair test and should be approved. I am granting the AVO.

The request for a sealing order for the confidential appendices to the Receiver's report pending completion of the sale transaction meets the Sierra Club test and is granted.

With respect to the information from the cell phones and computers, counsel for Gdaks have modified the order so that it applies only to information that has been produced to the Receiver.

With respect to the distribution to Clearflow, I note that this is the second distribution and will, in the aggregate, amount to $6.3 million. While there may be a question as to the exact quantum of Trigger's debt to Clearflow, the Receiver's counsel has satisfied me that, based on the record, it is well in excess of the combined distributions. No one in attendance today suggested otherwise or opposed the distribution of an additional $5.3 million to Clearflow. There are no other secured creditors on the Trigger real property in question and provision has been made to cover outstanding liens.

With respect to Clearflow's security over the Trigger Real Property, the Receiver's counsel provided a lengthy and detailed opinion, included in the motion materials, that Clearflow has a security interest and equitable mortgage on those properties. Again, no one has challenged or opposed a distribution based on the validity of Clearflow's security.

The remaining ancillary relief is straightforward and acceptable.

I have signed two orders today – the AVO for the Old Post Road property and the ancillary order with the remaining relief. I have attached the orders to this email endorsement. The orders are effective from today's date and are enforceable without the need for entry and filing.

The Debtors’ customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the “Colby Drive Premises”). The directors of Trigger are Mr. Gdak, Ms. Gdak and Brian Richard Kelly (“Brian Kelly”). Brian Kelly also acted as the Debtors’ legal counsel. Brian Kelly resigned as director of the Trigger shortly after the Interim Receiver was appointed.
- 25. Clearflow provided accounts receivable (“AR”) factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver’s Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
- 26. In the Second Report, the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger.

CANADA REVENUE AGENCY

27. The Receiver has previously reported that Trigger falsified its revenues and expenses, such that false financial statements, income tax returns and HST filings, were prepared and filed with CRA.
28. CRA conducted a trust examination on Trigger's HST reporting. CRA examined all HST filings made by Trigger from July 2017 to December 2019, during which time, Trigger reported the following:
- a) Sales - $200,982,935
 - b) HST Collectible on Sale - $16,873,251
 - c) Input Tax Credits - $14,834,815
 - d) Total HST owing to CRA - $2,038,422
29. CRA requested that the Receiver provide supporting documentation for all Input Tax Credits ("ITCs") claimed by Trigger. The Receiver reviewed Trigger's books and records and was only able to obtain supporting documentation for all HST paid to Canada Border Services Agency ("CBSA") for the importing of firearms and ammunition. The HST paid to CBSA totalled $477,633. CRA therefore disallowed ITCs totalling $14,357,194, thereby increasing Trigger's indebtedness to CRA by this amount.
30. In CRA's letter to the Receiver dated August 26, 2021 (the "August 26 Letter from CRA") advising of the trust examination results, CRA advised as follows:
- "Potential Overstatement of Sales and GST/HST Collectible
Based on the audit findings from the documentation obtained from the CBSA it was determined sales and GST/HST collectible figures as reported on lines 101 and 105 of the GST/HST returns for the audit period may have been overstated."
- A copy of the August 26 Letter from CRA is attached hereto as Appendix "21".
31. The Receiver has reviewed Trigger's books and records and has been able to identify which sales were real and which sales were falsified. In general, false sales were recorded to large retailers such as Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, which the Receiver has verified were not customers of Trigger and the invoices for false sales did not include firearm serial numbers, whereas real sales included serial numbers.

32. The Receiver has been unable to determine which purchases recorded by Trigger were real or false. However, since all firearms and ammunition were imported, the CBSA records likely correctly reflect the inventory purchased by Trigger, which would represent the vast majority of Trigger's purchasers. The Receiver has therefore accepted CRA's assessment and the taxes paid to CBSA are the only allowable ITCs.
33. Based on this review, the Receiver has determined that sales, HST charged to customers, ITCs and total taxes owing should have been reported as follows:

	SALES	GST/HST ON SALES	ITCs	NET TAX
As Reported	200,982,935.00	16,873,251.00	14,834,815.00	2,038,422.00
Actual Amounts	9,710,752.37	770,581.93	467,770.51	466,886.43
Overstatement	191,272,182.63	16,102,669.07	14,367,044.49	1,571,535.57

34. On November 17, 2018, the Receiver replied to the August 26 Letter from CRA (the "November 17 Letter to CRA"), requesting that CRA accept amended HST returns filed by the Receiver that report Trigger's actual sales, GST/HST on sales and ITCs based on CBSA records. A copy of November 17 Letter to CRA is attached hereto as Appendix "22".
35. It is reasonable that adjusted GST/HST returns be filed and accepted by CRA to reflect Trigger's actual business activity. It is unreasonable for CRA to disallow false ITCs claimed and not accept the Receiver's amended returns removing false sale and GST/HST thereon.
36. During the assessed period, CRA applied payments totalling $ $2,509,888.48 to Trigger's GST/HST liability. If the amended returns are accepted, the Receiver will be seeking a refund of $2,043,002 from CRA for overpayment of GST/HST liability, calculated as follows:

GST/HST Paid	$	2,509,888
Actual GST/HT Liability	$	466,886
Refund	$	2,043,002

SALE OF 265 OLD POST ROAD

37. Subsequent to the Court issuing the Old Post Road Approval and Vesting Order, the Receiver made arrangements to complete the sale of 265 Old Post Road (the

38. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver disclosed that the Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 had registered a lien in the amount of $3,467 (the “Old Post Road Condominium Lien”). The Receiver proposed to pay this lien with proceeds from the sale of Old Post Road. The Old Post Road Approval and Vesting Order authorized the Receiver to pay the Old Post Road Condominium Lien from the proceeds from the sale of Old Post Road.
39. Subsequent to closing the Old Post Road Transaction, the Receiver paid the Old Post Road Condominium Lien. Thereafter, counsel for Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 advised that they had not included their costs related to the Old Post Road Condominium Lien in the amount claimed and requested that the Receiver also pay their costs in the amount of $4,058 (the “Old Post Road Condominium Lien Costs”).
40. The Receiver’s counsel has advised that the Old Post Road Condominium Lien Costs are also lienable and should have been included in the Old Post Road Condominium Lien. The Receiver therefore proposes to pay the Old Post Road Condominium Lien Costs from the proceeds of the sale of Old Post Road, in full and final settlement of the Old Post Road Condominium Lien.

REAL PROPERTY LIENS

41. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver details that there are a number of liens that are filed against the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report. The liens are summarized as follows:

Property	Claimant	Type of Lien	Amount
157 Saugeen Beach Road	Ace Lawn Care Inc. (“Ace”)	Construction	$425,383
157 Saugeen Beach Road	J.B. Construction Inc. (“JBC”)	Construction	$51,701
652 Colby Drive	Ace	Construction	$9,388
652 Colby Drive	JBC	Construction	$90,171
265 Old Post Road	Ace	Construction	$50,544
		TOTAL	$627,187

42. In accordance with the Fifth Report, the Receiver has retained $783,983, being the total amount of the liens, plus 25% ($156,796), which the Receiver understands is the amount typically required under the Construction Act to vacate a lien.

JBC Lien

43. The Receiver reviewed the supporting documentation provided by JBC in support of its liens totalling $141,872 and offered to settle all JBC liens for $74,271. After further discussions, the Receiver and JBC entered into Minutes of Settlement with respect to JBC's liens on the Saugeen Beach Road Property and Colby Drive Property, wherein the Receiver has agreed to pay $80,000 in full and final settlement of both JBC liens (the "JBC Settlement Agreement"). JBC has also signed Consents to Orders discharging both liens and dismissing their lien actions (the "JBC Consents"). The JBC Settlement Agreement is subject to Court approval. Copies of the JBC Settlement Agreement and the JBC Consents, together with the draft Orders, are attached hereto as Appendix "23".

Ace Lien

44. The Receiver also reviewed the supporting documentation provided by Ace in support of its liens and has advanced an offer to settle all of the Ace liens. Despite numerous efforts by counsel for the Receiver to advance those discussions, counsel for Ace has not provided any substantive response to the Receiver's settlement offer.
45. The Receiver proposes to hold the amount of $606,644 from any distribution calculated, being the total amount of the Ace liens in the amount of $485,315, plus 25% ($121,329), which the Receiver understands is the amount typically required under the Construction Act to vacate a lien.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY ASSETS

46. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) are property of Trigger. The Personal Property Assets include the following assets, all as defined in the Second Report:

- a) The Scarab;
 - b) The Sea Ray;
 - c) The ATVs;
 - d) The Sea Doos;
 - e) The Trailer;
 - f) The Range Rover;
 - g) Rolex Watch Diamond Dial Watch;
 - h) Breitling Watch;
 - i) Omega Watch;
 - j) Ladies 18 Karat Paladium Diamond Necklace; and
 - k) Rolex Datejust Diamond Dial Watch.
47. As described in the Fifth Report, collection and monetization efforts of the Personal Property Assets have been ongoing. The Receiver has now completed the sale of all of the Personal Property Assets and is now holding total sale proceeds of $919,317, plus HST, where applicable (the “Personal Property Assets Proceeds”).

SECURITY OPINIONS

48. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver listed all the parties with security registrations under the PPSA. The creditor with a first ranking general security agreement is Clearflow.
49. The Receiver’s independent legal counsel, BLG, conducted a review of the Clearflow Security, to advise whether it was properly perfected and enforceable, as against a trustee in bankruptcy.

Inventory and Accounts Receivable

50. As noted in the Fourth Report, the Receiver’s counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow’s security interest over Trigger’s personal property, other than the Personal Property Assets, (as defined in the Second Report), such personal property consisting of inventory and accounts receivable, which security opinion was dated May 21, 2021 (the “Inventory and AR Security Opinion”). The Inventory and AR Security Opinion states that, subject to customary caveats and qualifications, Clearflow’s security interest over such personal property is valid and enforceable.

51. As a result of the Inventory and AR Security Opinion, the Court granted the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order, which provided for, inter alia, a distribution to Clearflow in the amount of $1,000,000.

Real Property Assets

52. On June 30, 2021, the Receiver's counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report, (the "Real Property Opinion"). The Real Property Opinion states that, subject to customary caveats and qualifications, Clearflow has a security interest and an equitable mortgage in respect of the Trigger Real Property that is valid and enforceable. A copy of the Real Property Opinion is attached hereto as Appendix "24".
53. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver requested that the Court issue an Order authorizing a distribution in the amount of $5,300,000 to Clearflow, from the proceeds of the sale of the Trigger Real Property, based on the Real Property Opinion. The Court issued the August 20, 2021 Distribution Order, authorizing the requested distribution to Clearflow.

Personal Property Assets

54. On June 18, 2021, the Receiver's counsel issued a security opinion in respect of Clearflow's security interest over the Personal Property Assets, as defined in the Second Report, (the "Personal Property Assets Opinion"). BLG has opined that while Clearflow holds a valid a perfected security interest in Trigger's personal property, the Personal Property Assets must be classified as "consumer goods", as defined in the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) ("PPSA") ("Consumer Goods"). While Clearflow's general security agreement provides Clearflow with a security interest in the Personal Property Assets, Clearflow does not have a perfected security interest in the Personal Property Assets, since Clearflow's PPSA registration does not identify Consumer Goods, as part of Clearflow's collateral. A copy of the Personal Property Assets Opinion is attached hereto as Appendix "25".

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

55. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
56. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge (the “Receiver’s Charge”) was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.
57. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from August 1, 2021 to October 31, 2021 amount to $82,392.93 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn November 26, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “26”.
58. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver’s counsel, BLG, from August 1, 2021 to October 31, 2021 amount to $91,190.65 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn November 19, 2021, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “27”.
59. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

PROPOSED DISTRIBUTION

Proceeds from sale of Trigger Real Property

60. The Receiver proposes to pay the Old Post Road Condominium Lien Costs in the amount of $4,058 from the proceeds of the sale of Old Post Road.
61. The Receiver also proposes to retain $606,644 on account of the Ace liens.
62. The Receiver also proposes to retain the amount of $500,000 pending completion of the Receivership.
63. Paragraph 9 of the Interim Receivership Order states that Mark Gdak, Jaimee Gdak and Jaimak Real Properties Inc. shall not transfer, alienate, deplete or encumber any of their real or personal property with a value over $5,000 in any one transaction and $20,000 in the aggregate of all such transactions, except for the purpose of providing retainers to legal counsel.

64. The Receiver understands that Lerner's LLP ("Lerner's"), counsel for Mark Gdak, and the Debtors, has been able to access certain insurance coverage to pay their legal fees and disbursements throughout the receivership proceedings. However, the Receiver has been advised by Lerner's that the insurer does not pay an amount equivalent to the standard rates of Lerner's. Accordingly, Lerner's has advised the Receiver that they may seek an Order directing the Receiver to pay to Lerner's the difference between the hourly rates paid by the insurer and the Lerner's standard hourly rates, which Lerner's advises is in the range of between $130,000 to $200,000. As of the date of this Sixth Report, Lerner's has not brought a motion seeking this relief from the Court.
65. The Receiver has completed its realization of all of Trigger's assets, save and except, as noted below. The only matters that remain are:
- a) to resolve the claims of Ace in respect of its liens;
 - b) correspond with CRA in respect of the amended GST/HST returns filed by the Receiver;
 - c) the potential sale of Lions Court, pending the outcome of Jaimee Lynn Gdak's appeal of Clearflow's judgment; and
 - d) Other matters ancillary to the receivership proceedings.
66. The Receiver believes that the proposed retention of $500,000 is sufficient to address the ongoing costs of these proceedings, having regard to paragraph 65 of this Sixth Report, and to pay the amounts claimed by Lerner's, should Lerner's bring their motion and if the Court grants the relief sought by Lerner's.

Personal Property Assets Proceeds

67. In paragraphs 29 to 84 of the Second Report the Receiver, the Receiver sets out the details of how Mark and Jaimee Lynn Gdak paid for the purchase of each of the Personal Property Assets, with funds taken directly from the Trigger bank accounts and that immediately prior to each purchase, Trigger received funding from Clearflow from the factoring of fake accounts receivable invoices. Based on this evidence, the Court issued the March 31 Order for Directions, which declared that the Personal Property Assets are the property of Trigger.

68. The Receiver's independent legal counsel, BLG, conducted a review of the Clearflow Security to confirm whether Clearflow held security that was valid and enforceable, as against a trustee in bankruptcy, with respect to the Personal Property Assets and the proceeds derived therefrom.
69. BLG has opined that while Clearflow holds a valid a perfected security interest in Trigger's personal property, the Personal Property Assets constitute "consumer goods", as defined in the PPSA, ("Consumer Goods") and that while Clearflow's general security agreement provides Clearflow with a security interest in the Personal Property Assets, Clearflow does not have a perfected security interest in the Personal Property Assets, since Clearflow's PPSA registration against Trigger does not specifically identify Consumer Goods, as part of Clearflow's collateral.
70. Clearflow had no reason to believe that the funds provided to Trigger under its lending agreement would be used to purchase Consumer Goods, since this funding was intended to be used to support Trigger's business operations. Clearflow did not have confirmation that its funding was used to purchase Consumer Goods, until the Receiver identified this in the Second Report.
71. Trigger became bankrupt on November 27, 2020, after which time Clearflow was unable to amend its Financing Statement under the PPSA to include Consumer Goods, on account of Section 20(1)(b) of the PPSA.
72. It is clear that Clearflow funds were used to purchase the Personal Property Assets. The Receiver's Charge granted by the Receivership Order attaches to the Personal Property Assets. The Receiver therefore proposes to apply the Personal Property Assets Proceeds towards payment of the past and future fees and disbursements of the Receiver and its counsel, BLG, which amounts are secured by the Receiver's Charge. This would permit the proceeds from the sale of other Trigger assets to be distributed to Clearflow, in accordance with Clearflow's perfected security interest in Trigger's personal property (other than the Personal Property Assets) and in the Trigger Real Property. The Receiver believes that this will result in a fair and equitable outcome given that Clearflow's funds were specifically used to purchase the Personal Property Assets, without Clearflow's knowledge or consent, and in violation of Trigger's lending arrangements with Clearflow. A copy of an Enquiry Response Certificate, with a file currency of November 2, 2020, in respect of a PPSA search against Trigger, is attached hereto as Appendix "28".

73. In the event that the Personal Property Assets Proceeds are not applied towards payment of the fees and disbursements of the Receiver and its counsel, then the funds would typically be paid to Trigger's trustee in bankruptcy.
74. Trigger's original bankruptcy statement of affairs lists 18 unsecured creditors with debt totalling $45,432,808, including Clearflow's claim in the amount of $45,214,409.
75. Mark Gdak has advised that the claims of unsecured creditors, excluding Clearflow are overstated and has provided a listing of 10 unsecured creditors, who are collectively owed $218,373 as follows:

4 Office Automation Ltd.	$	20
Waste Management of Canada Corporation		495
The Co-Operators		564
The Co-Operators		579
United Rentals		3,250
Graham Scott Enns LLP		3,284
The Co-Operators		4,839
Canpar, A TransForce Company		5,028
The Canadian Gun Vault Incorporated		35,200
TC Industrial Supply		55,125
Capri Insurance		110,009

76. The bankruptcy trustee has received proofs of claim totalling $11,260,835, which are as follows:

DeLage Landen	$	63,681
Guardian Security		47,464
TC Industrial Supply		38,759
CRA - Corporate Taxes		11,048,880
CRA - Source Deductions		62,050

77. Should there be funds available for a distribution in the bankruptcy, the Trustee will need to assess each of the claims filed.

- a) The DeLage Landen claim was in respect of a photocopier, which was returned to DeLage Landen by the Receiver. This claim will therefore be significantly reduced to account for the value obtained for the copier by DeLage Landen.
- b) The Gardian Security claim is for services provided to Jaimak. The Trustee will therefore disallow this claim.
- c) The TC Industrial Supply claim is for equipment provided to Jaimak, although the invoices are addressed to Trigger. The Trustee will disallow this claim.

- d) The CRA claim for corporate taxes was assessed on financial statements and tax returns filed by Trigger that were based on falsified accounting records for its fiscal 2017, 2018 and 2019 years. In order to properly assess this claim the Trustee will need to undertake a significant accounting exercise to prepare corrected financial statements and tax returns. Trigger was extremely unprofitable. Therefore, the result of restated financial statements will show net losses for each year and no income taxes owing. The Receiver has requested assistance from the external accounting firm engaged by Trigger to prepare these restated financial statements and tax returns, however, the external accountant has advised that they are not interested in assisting with this exercise.
 - e) We anticipate that CRA will file an unsecured claim for HST owing in the amount of the disallowed ITCs of approximately $14,000,000. The Trustee will disallow this claim on the basis that the refiled GST/HST returns not only offset CRA's claim, but result in a refund owing from CRA.
78. Should the Personal Property Assets Proceeds be paid to the Trustee for a distribution to unsecured creditors, the Trustee will incur significant costs in assessing the claims of unsecured creditors, which when completed, will result in Clearflow being the only significant remaining unsecured creditor. Further, a distribution in the bankruptcy, will attract the Superintendent's Levy, which is a tax upon the distributions made in an estate. Since Clearflow funds were used to inappropriately purchase the Personal Property Assets, the Receiver believes that it is equitable for Clearflow to benefit from the funds recovered through the sale of these assets. Applying the Personal Property Assets Proceeds to the fees and expenses of the Receiver, which are secured by the Receiver's Charge, will accomplish this equitable result.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURESEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

79. The SRD, including the proposed distributions, is attached hereto as Appendix "29".

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

80. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 23 of this report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Endorsement:

The Receiver moves for certain relief in three requested orders as set out in paragraph one of the Notice of Motion. The requested orders are for (a) approval of the Sixth report of the Receiver and the activities of the Receiver described therein; (b) approving the Receiver's interim statement of receipts and disbursements as at October 31, 2021; (c) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period August 1, 2021 to October 31, 2021; (e) approving the fees and disbursements of legal counsel to the Receiver for the period August 1, 2021 to October 31, 2021; (f) approving a distribution to Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp. ("Clearflow") in the amount of $2,400,000 from the proceeds of the Trigger Real Property (as defined in the Sixth Report); (g) approving a distribution to Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 in the amount of $4,058.52 solely from the proceeds arising from the sale of property located at 265 Old Post Road, Waterloo, Ontario in full and final settlement of all claims that this entity may have against the Respondents or within the receivership proceeding; (h) declaring that all of the proceeds realized from the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report), shall be applied to satisfy the amounts that have been paid, or will be paid, to the Receiver and its counsel, on account of their fees and disbursements, as secured by the Receiver's Charge established by the Appointment Order of Mr. Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020; and (i) approving the settlement of certain claims advanced by J.B. Construction Inc. under the Construction Act in respect of the supply of services and/or materials to certain properties.

The Receiver has served all interested parties and the motion is not opposed.

I am satisfied that the requested orders should be granted. With respect to the relief claimed in item (h) above, I exercise my discretion to approve the proposed allocation of the proceeds from the sale of the Personal Property Assets to satisfy the reasonable fees and disbursements of the Receiver and counsel to the Receiver, as secured by the Receiver's Charge. I accept the Receiver's submission that this is the most practical method to proceed. The transfer of proceeds realized from the Personal Property Assets to the bankruptcy estate of Trigger for distribution to the creditors of Trigger would result in the occurrence of additional administrative costs, as well as the levy payable to the Superintendent of Bankruptcy, pursuant to section 147 of the BIA. The Receiver's Charge would be primarily borne by Clearflow in the within receivership proceedings in any event. In the Receiver's Sixth Report, at para. 77, the Receiver addresses the six proofs of claim that the trustee has received. CRA is the largest claimant (other than Clearflow which is by far the largest claimant with a claim in excess of $45 million). The Receiver explains that the net result of restated financial statements will show net losses for each year and no income taxes owing. CRA has not appeared to oppose the requested order. I am satisfied that the requested allocation is proper in the circumstances.

Orders to issue in forms of attached orders signed by me.

On appeal from the order of Justice Bernadette Dietrich of the Superior Court of Justice, dated May 26, 2021, with reasons reported at 2021 ONSC 3421.

REASONS FOR DECISION

[1] This appeal arises from an order enforcing a Guarantee executed by the appellant, Jaimee Lynn Gdak. Ms. Gdak guaranteed the full amount of the indebtedness of Trigger Wholesale Inc. (“Trigger”) in favour of Clearflow Commercial Finance Corp. (“Clearflow”). The motion judge found that the Guarantee was valid, binding and enforceable. Ms. Gdak appeals this order.

[2] At the conclusion of the hearing, we dismissed the appeal with reasons to follow. These are our reasons.

Background

[3] Clearflow provides financing services to Ontario businesses. Trigger, one of Clearflow’s clients, was in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition in Canada. Mark and Jaimee Lynn Gdak are the sole shareholders, directors, and officers of Trigger. Clearflow alleges that Mr. Gdak orchestrated a massive fraud over a number of years against Clearflow, amounting to tens of millions of dollars in losses. The proceedings below and this appeal relate solely to the enforceability of the Guarantee.

[4] In April 2015, Clearflow extended three separate credit facilities to Trigger: factoring of accounts receivable (Clearflow’s main method of financing); purchase order financing; and discrete advances for business purposes. The details were set out in three Credit Agreements. As part of this arrangement, on April 30, 2015, Mr. and Ms. Gdak jointly executed an unlimited and continuing Guarantee of the full amount of the indebtedness of Trigger in favour of Clearflow. The Gdaks are also officers and directors of The En Cadre Group – they both signed similar guarantees on behalf of En Cadre.

[5] When Ms. Gdak executed her guarantee, the total maximum indebtedness shown on the Credit Agreements was $1.4M. By 2020, the actual debt had skyrocketed to $48M.

[6] In 2019, before the allegedly fraudulent activities of Mr. Gdak and Trigger came to light, Mr. Gdak, on behalf of Trigger, approached Clearflow to restructure the then-existing credit facilities that would soon expire. He sought to renegotiate the Credit Agreements and have Ms. Gdak released from the Guarantee. As a result of the negotiations, Clearflow issued a proposal that would see Ms. Gdak released from the Guarantee. This was also reflected in drafts of the proposed financing documentation. However, this was all contingent on Mr. Gdak providing current financial statements. The negotiations dragged on into late 2020. The statements that were produced were not acceptable to Clearflow. Moreover, a field audit conducted on behalf of Clearflow uncovered the alleged fraudulent activities. Consequently, the deal fell apart. Clearflow refused to sign back the re-financing documents prepared by Trigger. Clearflow issued a written demand for all amounts owing. In the end, Clearflow never signed a document confirming that Ms. Gdak's Guarantee had been cancelled or released.

[7] In October 2020, Clearflow brought an application to recover $48.6M it alleges it lost as a result of a fraudulent scheme engineered by Mr. Gdak and Trigger. Clearflow sought the appointment of a receiver over the assets, property, and undertakings of Trigger, En Cadre, and the Gdaks' real property, as well a Mareva injunction restraining the Gdaks from disposing of their property. The Mareva injunction was granted and Grant Thornton Ltd. was appointed as receiver in October 2020. While Mr. Gdak did not dispute the fraud claims, Ms. Gdak denies knowledge or participation in the scheme.

[8] Within the context of its application, Clearflow brought a motion to enforce the Guarantee and sought a finding of liability against both Mr. and Ms. Gdak. Mr. Gdak did not dispute liability pursuant to the Guarantee; he did not file any materials on the motion. Ms. Gdak vigorously resists enforcement.

[9] The Guarantee in question is a single-page document. It was signed by Mr. Gdak as "President" of Trigger; Ms. Gdak signed as "V.P." Under the heading "THE NATURE OF YOUR LIABILITY", the following condition is found:

Your liability under the Guarantee is CONTINUING, absolute and unconditional. It will not be limited, reduced, or otherwise affected by any one or more of the following events:

...

- any change in the terms or amount or existence of the Obligations.

...

- any event whatsoever that might be a defence available to the Customer for its obligation or a defence to you under this Guarantee, all of which are hereby waived.

[10] Ms. Gdak does not dispute signing the guarantee. Nor does she allege duress. Moreover, a lawyer who represented Trigger at the time, Brian Kelly, witnessed Ms. Gdak's signature on the Guarantee.

The Motion Judge's Decision

[11] Ms. Gdak resisted the enforcement of the Guarantee on a number of bases. As the motion judge said in para. 6 of her reasons:

Ms. Gdak denies liability on her Guarantee on the basis that there was an undisclosed material change in the principal amount of the indebtedness covered by the Guarantee, and because she did not have the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice. Alternatively, she asserts that the applicant, through its words and conduct, released her from her Guarantee.

[13] The motion judge held that Ms. Gdak was not released from liability under the Guarantee as a result of a material change to the contractual arrangements between Clearflow and Trigger (i.e., the increasing extension of credit to Trigger, growing to $48M). She rejected Ms. Gdak's claim that her liability was limited to $1.4M.

[14] The motion judge recognized that a guarantor will be released from liability where the creditor and the principal debtor agree to a material change in the terms of the contract of debt without the guarantor's consent: see Manulife Bank of Canada v. Conlin, [1996] 3 S.C.R. 415. However, it is equally clear that it is open to parties to contract out of this protection. The motion judge found that Ms. Gdak did just that – she contracted out of this protection. The one-page document states in capital letters that her liability is "CONTINUING" and will not be limited, reduced, or otherwise affected by any change in the terms or the amount of the debt. The motion judge found that the advances were specifically contemplated and did not result in a materially different risk than the one to which Ms. Gdak agreed.

[15] The motion judge did not accept the submission that the Guarantee must be read narrowly to protect Ms. Gdak because she was a family member (the wife of Mr. Gdak) and because she was unsophisticated or vulnerable. There was no evidence that she signed the Guarantee as a matter of accommodation or as a favour for Mr. Gdak. The motion judge found that Ms. Gdak signed in her capacity as an officer and shareholder of Trigger.

[16] The only argument advanced by Ms. Gdak in support of her claim of unsophistication was that she did not finish high school. The motion judge held that, "[I]ack of a high school diploma, in my view, does not equate to a lack of sophistication. Nor does it...indicate a lack of intelligence or an inability to read and comprehend a one-page guarantee." The motion judge further found that Ms. Gdak was significantly involved in running the business.

[17] The motion judge found that, even if she had found that the Guarantee should be interpreted narrowly, this would not assist Ms. Gdak. She found that the definition of the word "Obligations" in the Guarantee ought not to be limited in the manner submitted by Ms. Gdak. It was clear that she guaranteed debts arising from all three credit facilities, and in particular, the factoring of accounts receivable (the credit facility that generated the vast majority of the outstanding debt to Clearflow).

[18] The motion judge rejected Ms. Gdak's claim that the Guarantee was unenforceable because she did not receive independent legal advice. The motion judge observed that the Guarantee was signed in the presence of (indeed, witnessed by) Trigger's lawyer, and Ms. Gdak was a director of Trigger. Moreover, the motion judge found that there was no evidence of undue influence, unconscionability, fraud, or misrepresentation. Again, this aspect of Ms. Gdak's position amounted to a claim of a lack of sophistication, already rejected by the motion judge. She rejected Ms. Gdak's claim that she did not know that she was a director of Trigger. The motion judge engaged in a detailed review of Ms. Gdak's day-to-day involvement in the business in reaching this conclusion.

[19] Lastly, the motion judge did not accept Ms. Gdak's submission that Clearflow released her from her Guarantee through its words and conduct and was thereby estopped from asserting that the negotiations were never consummated. The motion judge found that the Guarantee provides that it shall be binding unless a release of the guarantor is expressly made in writing by Clearflow and authorized by its Board of Directors. It was not. The negotiated release was conditional on Trigger providing the requested financial statements. They were not provided in an acceptable form; moreover, the field audit revealed alleged fraud. The motion judge found that Ms. Gdak was not released.

Discussion

[20] On appeal, Ms. Gdak repeats the same arguments that were made before the motion judge in the hope of a different result. However, she has failed to identify an error of law or principle, nor any palpable and overriding error of fact.

The Standard of Review

[21] The appellant insists that the Guarantee is a standard form contract that must be interpreted on a standard of correctness: see Ledcor Construction Ltd. v. Northbridge Indemnity Insurance Co., 2016 SCC 37, [2016] 2 S.C.R. 23.

[22] The respondent disputes this characterization, submitting that, in order for the correctness standard to apply, the following three requirements must be met: (i) the appeal must involve the interpretation of a standard form contract; (ii) the interpretation at issue is of precedential value; and (iii) there is no meaningful factual matrix that would assist in the interpretation of the contract: see Ledcor, at para. 24.

[23] We agree with the respondent that elements (ii) and (iii) are not satisfied in this case. The motion judge's interpretation of the Guarantee will have no precedential value, mainly because the factual matrix between the parties was critical to the motion judge's interpretation of the Guarantee. Consequently, the appellant cannot justify the application of the exception to the Supreme Court's holding in Sattva Capital Corp. v. Creston Molly Corp., 2014 SCC 53, [2014] 2 S.C.R. 633, that contractual interpretation is a question of mixed fact and law and subject to deferential review on appeal. Even if it could be said that the correctness standard is applicable, we see no error in the motion judge's analysis.

No Independent Legal Advice

[24] The appellant submits that the motion judge erred by casting the onus of proof on her to establish that she did not receive independent legal advice. The appellant submits that she was put in the impossible position of having to prove a negative. We do not accept this submission. The appellant sought to resist the enforcement of the Guarantee based on a number of putative defences, one being her failure to receive independent legal advice. Clearly, she carried the onus on this issue.

[25] In any event, the motion judge found that independent legal advice was not required in the circumstances. She found that Ms. Gdak was an officer and director of Trigger and that she signed the Guarantee in that capacity. Ms. Gdak had the opportunity to consult with a lawyer, Mr. Kelly, who witnessed the signatures of both Mr. and Ms. Gdak. She could have asked him for advice about the Guarantee.

Lack of Sophistication and Unconscionability

[26] The appellant submits that the motion judge erred in failing to find that the appellant lacked sophistication and that this resulted in a serious inequality of bargaining power in relation to Clearflow. In making this submission, counsel placed great emphasis on the fact that Ms. Gdak did not complete high school.

[27] We do not accept this submission. We agree with the motion judge that a failure to complete high school does not equate with a lack of sophistication. In any event, the motion judge took into account a number of circumstances in rejecting the submission that Ms. Gdak lacked sophistication, including evidence that demonstrated the extensive and important roles she played in the day-to-day operation of the business. Although Martin Rees (the partner of Clearflow with whom the Gdaks were dealing) may have had considerable experience in commercial transactions, this did not render Ms. Gdak unsophisticated. Moreover, we see no basis to disturb the motion judge's conclusion that Ms. Gdak had failed to establish unconscionability or undue influence.

"Inscrutability" of the Document

[28] The appellant submits that the motion judge paid no attention to the "inscrutability" of the Guarantee. In other words, she submits that the print on the document was too small.

[29] In our view, this is not a legitimate basis to render the document unenforceable. The document is a single page in length. Although the print is small, it is readable. This is self-evident. There was no expert evidence adduced on the application on this issue. In the absence of evidence of improper tactics on the part of Clearflow, and there is none, the size of the print of the document is not a basis for refusing to enforce the Guarantee.

Error as to the Appellant's Role in the Company

[30] The appellant submits that the motion judge erred in making the following statement, at para. 61: "[a]s a director, Ms. Gdak would have been required to sign off on the financial statements for these companies. The annual financial statements would have reflected the indebtedness to the applicant, which would have been easy for her to track year over year." As the appellant points out, s. 159(1) of the Ontario Business Corporations Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. B.16 ("the OBCA") requires that the financial statements of an Ontario company be "approved by the board of directors and the approval shall be evidenced by the signature at the foot of the balance sheet of any director authorized to sign" (emphasis added).

[31] Mr. and Ms. Gdak were the sole directors of the company. Whether or not Ms. Gdak provided the signature evidencing the approval of the board, she was obliged by the OBCA to exercise "the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances" (s. 134(1)) and she was required to comply with all provisions of that act (s. 134(2)).

[32] In our view, the motion judge made no error in concluding that Ms. Gdak had legal obligations as one of two directors of Trigger. This was merely one factor that informed the motion judge's conclusion that she was aware of Trigger's ballooning indebtedness to Clearflow.

Insufficient Reasons

[33] The appellant submits that the reasons of the motion judge are insufficient in that they fail to explain why she preferred the evidence of Clearflow over that of Ms. Gdak. We disagree.

[34] The motion judge provided comprehensive reasons that are more than sufficient to permit appellate review. She evaluated Ms. Gdak's evidence against the whole of the evidence. The motion judge found her evidence lacking on many points, either because it was contradicted by other evidence, or because it was simply not credible. The appellant's complaint is more in the nature of a disagreement with the motion judge's credibility assessments, rather than the manner in which she explained the conclusions that she reached.

Clearflow's Breach of the Agreement

[35] The appellant submits that the motion judge erred in how she addressed the argument that the Guarantee was unenforceable against her because Clearflow breached the agreement. Essentially, the submission is that Clearflow breached the agreement by extending financing facilities in excess of the original projected amounts of $1.4M (i.e., giving Trigger more money than they originally requested). We do not accept this submission.

[36] As noted in para. 14 above, the motion judge found that Ms. Gdak had contracted out of any protection to which she may have been entitled at common law. By its very terms, the Guarantee was a "continuing guarantee" for all obligations and indebtedness in favour of Clearflow. The terms and conditions of the credit facilities extended to Trigger never changed in a way that was not contemplated by the Guarantee. The motion judge also found that Ms. Gdak knew or ought to have known that her liability had increased over time.

Contra Proferentem and the Eiusdem Generis Rule

[37] Lastly, the appellant submits that the terms of the Guarantee should be construed against the drafter of the document (i.e., Clearflow). However, the contra proferentem rule is only applied in the face of an ambiguity in the impugned contract: Manulife Bank of Canada v. Conlin, [1996] 3 S.C.R. 415. As Cory J. held at p. 425, "if there is any ambiguity in the terms used in the guarantee, the words of the documents should be construed against the party which drew it." We agree with trial judge's refusal to apply the contra proferentem rule. The appellant is unable to identify any ambiguity in the Guarantee.

[38] The appellant submits that she should be released from her liability by virtue of the eiusdem generis principle. She submits that the motion judge ought to have applied this principle when interpreting the term "Obligations" in the Guarantee. The term is described as "all present and future lease payments and obligations, conditional sale installments and obligations, and any other debts and liabilities." The appellant contends that the debts arising from the credit facilities extended to Trigger, especially the factoring of accounts receivable, are of a different nature than the specific "Obligations" described in the Guarantee. As the reasoning goes, she should not be liable under the Guarantee for these debts.

[39] We do not accept this submission. The factoring of accounts receivable was at the core of the financing relationship between Clearflow and Trigger. It accounts for the lion's share of Trigger's indebtedness to Clearflow, of which all parties, including the appellant, were well aware. We adopt the following passage from paras. 63-64 of the motion judge's reasons:

Accordingly, I find that a narrow interpretation of the terms of the Guarantee is not warranted in this case. Had I decided this point differently, I would nonetheless have rejected Ms. Gdak's interpretation of the definition of "Obligations" in the Guarantee. "Obligations" is defined to include "all present, and future lease payments and obligations, conditional sale instalments and obligations, and any other debts and liabilities." Ms. Gdak submits that the ejusdem generis interpretation maxim ought to apply such that "any other debts and liabilities" must be read narrowly to include only debts of the same class or kind, being debts of a similar nature to lease payments and conditional sale instalments, and that the applicant has led no evidence of indebtedness that falls into that class.

I reject this highly technical interpretation. I agree with the applicant that the phrase "other debts and liabilities" covers each of the credit facilities that the applicant offered and provided to Trigger. It would have been obvious to the parties entering into the financing arrangements that the Guarantees were in respect of the funds being advanced in accordance with the April 23, 2015 funding proposal. That proposal specifically refers to the credit being advanced and the Guarantees of each of En Cadre, Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak. Trigger's credit facilities did not include lease payments or conditional sale instalments. It is therefore apparent that the Guarantees were intended to cover other debts and liabilities, such as those described in the April 23, 2015 funding proposal and advanced by the applicant. This is the only logical interpretation of the Guarantee considering the factual matrix at the time the credit facility documentation, including the Guarantees, was executed.

Disposition

[40] The appeal is dismissed. As agreed by the parties, the respondent is entitled to its costs on a partial indemnity basis in the amount of $16,250, inclusive of taxes and disbursements.

10. Pursuant to an a consent Endorsement dated April 15, 2021, Justice Dietrich ordered the amount of $3,000 per month, on account of the personal living expenses, shall be paid to each of Mark Gdak (“Mr. Gdak”) and Jaimee Lynn Gdak (“Ms. Gdak”), from the receivership estate, for a total of $6,000 on a monthly basis, retroactive to the date of the Mareva Order, net of amounts already advanced. A

11. On May 26, 2021, Justice Dietrich released the Reasons for Decision in respect of the motion brought by Clearflow to enforce the guarantees executed by Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak in its favour. The Court issued a Judgment on May 26, 2021 (the “Gdak Judgment”) declaring that the guarantees executed by each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak in favour of Clearflow are enforceable. The issue of the quantum of the liability on the guarantees is to be addressed at a case conference at a future date. Ms. Gdak appealed the Judgment to the Court of Appeal for Ontario, which appeal was heard on February 17, 2022, while Mr. Gdak did not take steps to pursue an appeal of the Judgment. 12. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, with the exception of the real property municipally known as 250 Lions Court, Waterloo, Ontario, are assets of Trigger.

A copy of the Fourth Report is attached hereto as Appendix “17” without appendices.

16. On June 14, 2021, the Court issued an approval and vesting order in respect of the 652 Colby Drive Transaction and an order authorizing the Receiver to distribute the proceeds of realization from the Inventory and Accounts Receivable, as defined in the Second Report, (the “Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order”). Copies of the Colby Drive Approval and Vesting Order and Initial Distribution Order, along with the Endorsement of Justice Cavanagh, are attached hereto as Appendix “18”.
17. The Receiver issued its fifth report to Court dated August 12, 2021 (the “Fifth Report”) which, amongst other things, requested an order authorizing and directing the Receiver to complete the sale of 265 Old Post Road, Waterloo, Ontario (the “Old Post Road Transaction”) and authorizing the Receiver to make an interim distribution to Clearflow. A copy of the Fifth Report is attached hereto as Appendix “19” without appendices.
18. On August 20, 2021, the Court issued an approval and vesting order in respect of the Old Post Road Transaction and an order authorizing the Receiver to make an interim distribution to Clearflow from the proceeds of realization from the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report, (the “Old Post Road Approval and Vesting Order and August 20, 2021 Distribution Order”). Copies of the Old Post Road Approval and Vesting Order and the August 20, 2021 Distribution Order, along with the Endorsement of Justice Conway, are attached hereto as Appendix “20”.
19. The Receiver issued its sixth report to Court dated November 26, 2021 which, amongst other things, requested an order authorizing and directing the Receiver to complete a settlement with J.B. Construction Inc. (the “JBC Settlement”); to apply the proceeds from the sale of the Personal Property Assets (as defined in the Second Report) against the fees and expenses of the Receiver and its counsel; and, to make an interim distribution to Clearflow from the proceeds of realization from the Trigger Real Property, as defined in the Second Report. A copy of the Sixth Report is attached hereto as Appendix “21” without appendices.
20. On December 6, 2021, the Court issued an order authorizing the Receiver to complete the JBC Settlement; apply the proceeds from the sale of the Personal Property Assets against the fees and expenses of the Receiver and its counsel; and, to make an interim distribution to Clearflow from the proceeds of realization from the Trigger Real Property (the “December 6, 2021 Distribution Order”). Copies of the December 6, 2021 Distribution Order, along with the Endorsement of Justice Cavanagh, are attached hereto as Appendix “22”.

21. Ms. Gdak’s appeal of the Gdak Judgement was heard by the Court of Appeal for Ontario on February 17, 2022. The Appeal was dismissed. A copy of the Reasons from the Court of Appeal for Ontario are attached hereto as Appendix “23”.
22. In accordance with the Court’s e-service protocol, all materials filed with the Court in this matter are available on the Receiver’s case website at www.GrantThornton.ca/TWI.

DISCLAIMER

23. In preparing this seventh report of the Receiver to Court (the “Seventh Report”), the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information relating to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”), or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.
24. This Seventh Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Seventh Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
25. All references to dollar amounts in this Seventh Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE SEVENTH REPORT

26. The purpose of this Seventh Report is to advise the Court on the Receiver's activities since the date of the Sixth Report and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver's request for Orders:
- a) approving the Seventh Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;
 - b) authorizing the Receiver to market and list Lions Court for sale;
 - c) approving the Receiver's Interim Statement of Receipts and Disbursements as at March 31, 2022 (the "SRD");
 - d) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period November 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn April 20, 2021; and
 - e) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), legal counsel to the Receiver, for the period November 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn April 8, 2022.

BACKGROUND

27. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario (the "Colby Drive Premises").
28. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
29. In the Second Report, the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger.

SALE OF 250 LIONS COURT

30. The Second Report was filed with the Court in support of the Receiver's request for an Order authorizing the Receiver to market for sale the Real Property (as defined in the Second Report) including Lions Court.
31. Ms. Gdak filed a cross motion seeking to remove Lions Court from the within receivership proceedings.
32. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions refused Ms. Gdak's request to remove Lions Court from the receivership, however it did not authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court in furtherance of a sale of Lions Court.
33. In the Endorsement of Justice Dietrich dated March 31, 2021, Her Honour reasoned that the decision not to authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court for a possible sale, was due to the issue of Ms. Gdak's liability on her personal guarantee not having been determined, at that time.
34. On May 26, 2021, Justice Dietrich released her Reasons for Decision (the "Guarantee Decision"), which found Ms. Gdak liable on her personal guarantee.
35. As previously noted, Ms. Gdak appealed the Guarantee Decision, which appeal was dismissed by the Court of Appeal for Ontario on February 17, 2022. Ms. Gdak has not sought leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.
36. In light of Guarantee Decision and the disposition of the appeal by Ms. Gdak on her personal guarantee, the Receiver is now seeking direction from the Court to market Lions Court, in furtherance of a sale of Lions Court at a future date, now that the issue of Ms. Gdak's liability has been determined. Any proposed transaction for a sale of Lions Court will be the subject of a future motion for an Approval and Vesting Order, in accordance with paragraph 5(k) of the Receivership Order.
37. The Receiver understands that Clearflow supports the relief sought with respect to the marketing and subsequent sale of Lions Court in the within receivership proceedings.

Lions Court Lien

38. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver detailed that there are a number of liens that are filed against the Real Property, including against Lions Court. There was one lien filed against Lions Court, which is summarized as follows:

Property	Claimant	Type of Lien	Amount
250 Lions Court	Ace Lawn Care Inc. (“ Ace ”)	Construction	$21,228

39. The Receiver and its counsel have had discussions with counsel for Ace, with a view to resolving the liens filed by Ace. In the event that the lien filed by Ace against Lions Court is not resolved by the time Lions Court is sold, the Receiver intends to seek Court authorization to hold back sufficient funds on account of this lien, prior to making any distribution from the proceeds of the sale of Lions Court.

TRIGGER INDEBTEDNESS

40. The Clearflow Affidavits state the amount owing from Trigger is $48,252,279.75.
41. The Receiver completed a reconciliation of this balance to Trigger’s records in order to determine if the amount reported by Clearflow was correct.
42. As part of Clearflow’s 2020 year end audit process, Clearflow sent three letters to Trigger asking that Trigger confirm the amounts owing to Clearflow as at June 30, 2020 for three separate borrowing facilities. Mark Gdak signed these letters on behalf of Trigger confirming the amounts owing (the “Clearflow Debt Confirmations”). Copies of the Clearflow Debt Confirmations are attached as Appendix “24”.
43. The Receiver used this as a starting point to reconcile the amount owing to Clearflow by Trigger and then reviewed the Trigger bank statements from July 1, 2020 onwards to identify all advances and repayments to and from Clearflow and compared these transactions to Clearflow’s records. These transactions all matched Clearflow records.

44. Clearflow provided the Receiver with details of the fees charged by Clearflow from July 1, 2020 onwards, which the Receiver added to the amount owing. The following table summarizes the Receiver's reconciliation.

Balance Confirmation as at June 30, 2020
Accounts Receivable Factoring Facility	$ 58,760,172.28
Less: Cash Reserves	(20,507,958.89)
Net Factoring Advances	$ 38,252,213.39
Purchase Order Financing Loan	6,000,000.00
Loan	1,500,000.00
Total Confirmed Loan Balance as at June 30, 2020	$ 45,752,213.39
Activity after July 1, 2020
Clearflow Advances	42,224,351.87
Repayments to Clearflow	(43,802,969.13)
Clearflow Fees	4,008,935.62
Clearflow Fees	360,000.00
Service Charges	1,200.00
Total Balance Owing	$ 48,543,731.75

45. This balance is $81,548 less than the amount stated in the Clearflow Affidavits. This difference represents an advance that was authorized to be advanced to Trigger on October 2, 2022, but was stopped by Clearflow.
46. The amount owing to Clearflow by Trigger, as at the date of the Receiver's appointment is therefore $48,543,731.75.
47. The Receiver provided this reconciliation to counsel for the Respondents on February 25, 2022 and has not received any questions regarding this reconciliation.

PAYMENTS TO JIM CLAYTON

48. In the Second Report, the Receiver advised that during its review of Trigger's banking activity, the Receiver identified the following three transactions whereby funds totalling $130,000.00 appear to have been paid to Jim Clayton ("Mr. Clayton"), who is Ms. Gdak's father.

01/13/2017	E-TRANSFER000000265619 JimClayton 4506671	3,000.00
01/16/2017	E-TRANSFER000000263261 JimClayton 4506671	2,000.00
06/30/2020	Bank Draft payable to Jim Clayton	125,000.00
		130,000.00

49. During Mr. Gdak's examination on April 20, 2021, Mr. Gdak advised that these payments represented repayments of a loan advanced by Jim Clayton to Trigger.
50. On February 2, 2022 the Receiver's counsel wrote to Mr. Clayton and requested that he provide all documentation in respect of this loan.
51. On February 16, 2022 Mr. Clayton replied and advised that a $125,000 loan was advanced to Mr. Gdak in two bank drafts; $100,000 on June 5, 2020; and, $25,000 on June 8, 2020. Mr. Clayton also advised that the loan was repaid on June 30, 2020.
52. On February 16, 2022 Mr. Clayton further replied that while the bank drafts were payable to Mr. Gdak, Mr. Gdak had advised him that the funds were needed by Trigger.
53. The Receiver requested that Mr. Clayton provide copies of these bank drafts. On March 11, 2022, Mr. Clayton provided the drafts which were payable to Mr. Gdak on the dates previously advised by Mr. Clayton.
54. The Receiver reviewed the bank account details for Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak's personal bank account and was able to verify that the two bank drafts were deposited to this account. The Receiver also noted that there was a $100,000 cheque issued on the same day as the $100,000 deposit and two transfers of $10,000 each on the same day as the $25,000 deposit as shown below. The remaining $5,000 of the $25,000 loan advance remained in Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdaks' personal bank account.

Jun 05	Deposit	100,000.00	101,800.95
Jun 05	Cheque, NO.29	100,000.00	1,800.95
Jun 08	Deposit	25,000.00	28,411.07
Jun 08	Transfer, 3056-1996-271 3587	10,000.00	18,411.07
Jun 08	Transfer, 3056-1996-271 3587	10,000.00	8,411.07

55. The Receiver obtained a copy of Cheque No. 29 in the amount of $100,000 and noted that it was payable to Peak Realty Ltd., with a notation that it is Jaimak's second deposit for 652 Colby Drive ("Colby Drive"). The proceeds of this loan advance were therefore converted to equity in Colby Drive. The Receiver sold Colby Drive and the sale proceeds were distributed to Clearflow, with Court approval.

56. The two transfers of $10,000 went to Trigger's operating account and Trigger immediately made a $10,000 payment to Ace. This payment will have reduced the amount owing to Ace and thereby the value of the Ace lien claims. The reduction of the Ace lien claims will also benefit Clearflow.
57. It therefore appears that despite the loan being advanced to Mr. Gdak, $120,000 of the $125,000 loan was paid to Jaimak and Trigger and the Clearflow received a direct benefit of $110,000, through distributions in the receivership proceedings.
58. The Receiver therefore does not intend to take any further steps in connection with this issue and the payments to Mr. Clayton, as noted in paragraph 48 above.

TERMINATION OF THE MAREVA INJUNCTION

59. The Interim Receivership Order includes certain Mareva Injunction terms, including paragraph 9, which states:

9. THIS COURT ORDERS that pending the return of the within Application, the Respondents Mark Gdak, Jaimee Gdak and Jaimak Real Properties Inc. shall not transfer, alienate, deplete or encumber any of their real or personal property with a value over $5,000 in any one transaction and $20,000 in the aggregate of all such transactions, except for the purpose of providing retainers to legal counsel.

60. The Mareva Injunction was continued by virtue of paragraph 11 of the Receivership Order, which states:

11. THIS COURT ORDERS that paragraphs 8, 9, 10 and 11 of the Interim Receivership Order are hereby continued until further Order of this Court.

61. Clearflow has served a Motion Record returnable April 22, 2022 in which Clearflow seeks to have the Mareva Injunction terminated.
62. On April 15, 2021, Justice Dietrich issued the following Endorsement (the "April 15, 2021 Endorsement").

On consent of the Receiver and of Clearflow, it is ordered nunc pro tunc that the amount of $3,000 per month on account of personal living expenses (the "Personal Allowance Payments") shall be paid by the Receiver to each of Mark Gdak and Jaimee Lynn Gdak from the proceeds of the Receivership, for a total of $6,000 on a monthly basis, retroactive to the date of the Mareva order (October 13, 2020), net of amounts already advanced.

63. The April 15, 2021 Endorsement was made to provide for living expenses for each of Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak, as a result of the Mareva provisions in the Interim Receivership Order and the Receivership Order, which prevented Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak from dealing with their personal assets.
64. The Receiver has made payments totalling a combined $6,000 to Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak each month in accordance with the April 15, 2021 Endorsement.
65. The Receiver intends to cease making monthly payments to Mr. Gdak and Ms. Gdak if the relief sought by Clearflow in connection with the Motion on April 22, 2022 is granted, such that the Mareva Injunction provided for in the Interim Receivership Order and the Receivership Order is terminated.
66. In the Sixth Report the Receiver advised that it understands that Lerner's LLP ("Lerner's"), counsel for Mark Gdak, and the Debtors, has been able to access certain insurance coverage to pay their legal fees and disbursements throughout the receivership proceedings. Lerner's also advised that the insurer does not pay an amount equivalent to the standard rates of Lerner's. Accordingly, Lerner's has advised the Receiver that it may seek an Order directing the Receiver to pay to Lerner's the difference between the hourly rates paid by the insurer and the Lerner's standard hourly rates. Lerner's advises the Receiver that this differential is in the range of between $130,000 to $200,000. As of the date of this Seventh Report, Lerner's has not brought a motion seeking this relief from the Court.

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

67. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees.
68. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge (the "Receiver's Charge") was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.

69. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from November 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022 amount to $87,122.33 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn April 20, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "25".
70. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver's counsel, BLG, from November 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022 amount to $102,963.35 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn April 8, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix "26".
71. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

72. The SRD, including the proposed distributions, is attached hereto as Appendix "27".

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

73. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 26 of this Seventh Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

INTRODUCTION

1. Grant Thornton Limited (“GTL”) was appointed as Interim Receiver (the “Interim Receiver”) of Trigger Wholesale, Inc. (“Trigger”) and The En Cadre Group Inc. (“En Cadre”) (collectively, the “Debtors”) by order of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) dated October 13, 2020 (the “Interim Receivership Order”). Copies of the Interim Receivership Order and the Endorsement of the Honourable Madam Justice Gilmore are attached hereto as Appendix “1”.
2. DISCLAIMER

25. In preparing this eighth report of the Receiver to Court (the “Eighth Report”), the Receiver has reviewed certain unaudited financial information and certain financial information relating to the Debtors. While the Receiver has performed a preliminary review of available books and records of the Debtors, such review does not constitute an audit or verification of such information for accuracy, completeness or compliance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (“GAAS”), or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”). Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance pursuant to GAAS or IFRS with respect to such information.

26. This Eighth Report has been prepared for the use of this Court as general information to assist the Court in making a determination of whether to grant the relief sought by the Receiver. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Eighth Report may not be appropriate for any other purpose.
27. All references to dollar amounts in this Eighth Report are in Canadian currency, unless otherwise noted.

PURPOSE OF THE EIGHTH REPORT

28. The purpose of this Eighth Report is to advise the Court on the Receiver's activities since the date of the Seventh Report and to provide information to the Court pertaining to the Receiver's request for Orders:
 - a) approving the Eighth Report and the activities of the Receiver described therein;
 - b) approving the sale transaction (the "Lions Court Transaction") contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale dated June 9, 2022 and an amendment to agreement of purchase and sale dated June 15, 2022 (the "Lions Court Sale Agreement") between Li-Ling Chien (the "Lions Court Purchaser") and the Receiver for the purchase and sale of Lions Court;
 - c) approving the settlement of certain claims advanced by Ace Lawn Care Inc. ("Ace") under the Construction Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.30, in respect of the supply of services and/or materials to Saugeen Beach Road, Colby Drive, Old Post Road and Lions Court, in accordance with the terms of Minutes of Settlement dated July 7, 2022 (the "Settlement Agreement") between the Receiver and Ace;

- f) approving the Receiver's Interim Statement of Receipts and Disbursements as at June 30, 2022 (the "SRD");
- g) approving the fees and disbursements of the Receiver for the period April 1, 2022 to June 30, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe, sworn July 11, 2022;
- h) approving the fees and disbursements of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), legal counsel to the Receiver, for the period April 1, 2022 to June 30, 2022, as set out in the affidavit of Christine Mason, sworn July 7, 2022; and
- i) sealing the Confidential Appendices to the Eighth Report until a closing of the Lions Court Transaction.

BACKGROUND

- 29. The Debtors are incorporated in Ontario and were in the business of importing and distributing firearms and ammunition to customers throughout Canada. The Debtors' customers allegedly included Canadian Tire and Home Hardware, as well as many small gun shops, outdoor stores, police forces and the Canadian military. The registered address for the Debtors is 588 Colby Drive, Suite #1, Waterloo, Ontario.
- 30. Clearflow provided accounts receivable ("AR") factoring services to Trigger. As described in the Interim Receiver's Report, the First Report and the Second Report, Trigger did not conduct any business with the customers on the AR listings provided to Clearflow for factoring and all the invoices factored by Clearflow were false. While Trigger represented to Clearflow that its AR totalled $64,074,258 as at October 13, 2020, the actual AR was $944,073 and none of the real customer invoices were factored by Clearflow.
- 31. In the Second Report, the Receiver described how the Personal Property Assets and the Real Property Assets, all as defined in the Second Report, were all purchased with Trigger funds, which were obtained from Clearflow. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions declared that the Personal Property Assets and the Trigger Real Property are property of Trigger.
- 32. In the Second Report the Receiver requested an Order authorizing the Receiver to market for sale the Real Property (as defined in the Second Report) including Lions Court which was owned by Ms. Gdak, but which was not purchased with Trigger Funds.

33. Ms. Gdak filed a cross motion seeking to remove Lions Court from the within receivership proceedings.
34. The March 31, 2021 Order for Directions refused Ms. Gdak's request to remove Lions Court from the receivership, however it did not authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court in furtherance of a sale of Lions Court.
35. In the Endorsement of Justice Dietrich dated March 31, 2021, Her Honour reasoned that the decision not to authorize the Receiver to market Lions Court for a possible sale, was due to the issue of Ms. Gdak's liability on her personal guarantee not having been determined, at that time.
36. On May 26, 2021, Justice Dietrich released her Reasons for Decision (the "Guarantee Decision"), which found Ms. Gdak liable on her personal guarantee.
37. As previously noted, Ms. Gdak appealed the Guarantee Decision, which appeal was dismissed by the Court of Appeal for Ontario on February 17, 2022. Ms. Gdak has not sought leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.
38. The April 29, 2022 Lions Court Order authorized the Receiver to market Lions Court for sale.

SALE OF 250 LIONS COURT

39. Mr. and Ms. Gdak (the "Gdaks") advised that they would fully cooperate with the Receiver's sale of Lions Court if the Receiver agreed that any sale transaction would not close prior to June 30, 2022 to allow their children to finish the school year before moving. The Receiver agreed with this request.
40. In the Second Report the Receiver advised that it obtained an appraisal of Lions Court which was effective as at December 4, 2020 (the "Lions Court Appraisal").
41. Subsequent to the April 29, 2022 Lions Court Order, the Receiver obtained listing proposals from three realtors in Waterloo. The proposed listing prices were much higher than the value in the Lions Court Appraisal.

42. The Receiver thereafter engaged RE/Max Twin City Realty Inc. (“RE/Max”) to list Lions Court for sale for $1,599,900.
43. In order to encourage offers and to effectively canvass the market, RE/Max, together with guidance from the Receiver, took the following steps:
 - a) created a brochure containing key information on Lions Court;
 - b) created a dedicated website, detailing the purchase opportunity, which included, among other things, property information and photographs; and
 - c) posted the listing on MLS, Realtor.ca and other shared advertising websites.
44. The Receiver provided RE/Max with a form of an Agreement of Purchase and Sale that the Receiver recommended interested parties use to submit their offers.
45. The Receiver corresponded with RE/Max on a frequent basis to discuss the sale process, marketing efforts, interested parties and sales strategies.
46. On May 31, 2022 the first offer was received (the “First Offer”). RE/Max inquired with all the other parties that attended the property for a viewing and determined that no other offers would be submitted in the near future by these parties. The First Offer was unacceptable to the Receiver and the Receiver therefore did not respond to the offer.
47. On June 1, 2022, another offer was received which was also unacceptable to the Receiver (the “Second Offer”). The Receiver did not respond to the Second Offer.
48. RE/Max continued to show the property to interested purchasers and the general feedback was that the asking price was too high. The Receiver therefore cancelled the listing on June 7, 2022 and relisted Lions Court for sale with an asking price of $1,499,900.
49. On June 8, 2022 a third offer was received which was also unacceptable to the Receiver (the “Third Offer”). The Receiver did not respond to the Third Offer.
50. On June 10, 2022 a fourth offer was received. The Receiver believed that the value of this offer was reasonable and asked Clearflow if they were supportive of the Receiver accepting this offer. Clearflow responded that they were supportive, therefore the Receiver entered into negotiations with the Lions Court Purchaser, which culminated in the completion of the Lions Court Sale Agreement. A summary of the offers received and the appraised value of Lions Court are attached as Confidential Appendix “1”. A copy of the Lions Court Sale Agreement, which is redacted to remove the selling price, is attached hereto as Appendix “26”. A full copy of the Lions Court Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix “2”.

51. The Lions Court Sale Agreement was conditional upon the Lions Court Purchaser’s counsel reviewing the Lions Court Sale Agreement. Certain minor revisions were subsequently made which resulted in amendment to the Lions Court Sale Agreement (the “Amendment to the Lions Court Sale Agreement”). A copy of the Amendment to the Lions Court Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Appendix “27”.
52. The Lions Court Sale Agreement was also conditional upon the Receiver obtaining an Approval and Vesting Order from the Court. Closing of the Lions Court Transaction is scheduled for the later of August 16, 2022 or 10 days following the Court issuing an Approval and Vesting Order, but no later than September 30, 2022.
53. The Receiver understands that Clearflow supports the relief sought with respect to the marketing and subsequent sale of Lions Court.
54. On June 16, 2022 counsel for Ms. Gdak requested that the Receiver permit the Gdaks to remain at Lions Court until closing of the Lions Court Transaction. The Receiver and Ms. Gdak thereafter agreed that the Gdaks could remain at Lions Court until August 9, 2022, on the following conditions:
 - a) The Gdaks agree to pay the mortgage, utilities, insurance, property taxes, property and maintenance costs, including lawns, gardens, pool, hot tub, etc. until and including August 9, 2022.
 - b) The Gdaks agree to pay all costs associated with the pool opening expenses.
 - c) The Gdaks agree to fully cooperate with the Receiver in connection with any requests that the Receiver might make involving the sale of the Lions Court property, including visits to the Lions Court property by the perspective purchaser, as is currently contemplated by the Lions Court Sale Agreement. Further, the Order of Mr. Justice McEwen dated April 29, 2022, provides at paragraph 7 of that Order that Mark and Jaimee Gdak shall cooperate and facilitate the efforts of the Receiver in connection with the marketing and sale of Lions Court.

55. Counsel for Ms. Gdak has advised the Receiver that the Gdaks have agreed to the above noted terms.

Court Approval of the Sale of Lions Court

56. The Receiver conducted an extensive marketing process including 5 days of “coming soon” advertising and 3 open house events completed by RE/Max which resulted in the Lions Court listing received 379 unique online viewings online, 14 private physical showings and 4 offers.
57. In light of the sale process conducted by the Receiver and the offers that were received for Lions Court, the Receiver is of the opinion that the Lions Court Transaction represents the highest and best price that can be obtained for Lions Court.
58. The Receiver’s sale process was fair and reasonable. The Receiver made sufficient effort to obtain the best price and has not acted improvidently. The Lions Court Transaction is supported by Clearflow.
59. Accordingly, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court approve the Lions Court Transaction, grant the Approval and Vesting Order and authorize the Receiver to take all steps necessary to complete the Lions Court Transaction.

REAL PROPERTY LIENS

60. In the Fifth Report, the Receiver detailed that there are several liens filed against the Real Property, including against Lions Court. These liens are summarized in the following table.

Property	Registration	Type of Lien	Amount
Saugeen Beach Road	Ace Lawn Care Inc.	Construction	$ 425,383
Colby Drive	Ace Lawn Care Inc.	Construction	$ 9,388
Old Post Road	Ace Lawn Care Inc.	Construction	$ 50,544
Lions Court	Ace Lawn Care Inc.	Construction	$ 21,228
			$ 506,543
Colby Drive	J.B. Construction Inc. ("JBC")	Construction	$ 90,171
Saugeen Beach Road	J.B. Construction Inc.	Construction	$ 51,701
			$ 141,872
Old Post Road	Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9	Condominium	$ 3,467

JBC Liens

61. It the Sixth Report the Receiver advised that the Receiver and JBC entered into Minutes of Settlement with respect to JBC's liens (the "JBC Settlement Agreement"). The JBC Settlement Agreement was approved by the Court in the December 6, 2021 Distribution Order. The Receiver thereafter made payment to JBC in accordance with the JBC Settlement Agreement and arranged for the JBC liens to be discharged.

Condominium Lien

62. The Waterloo North Condominium Corporation No. 9 lien was paid from the proceeds of the sale of Old Post Road, pursuant to the August 20, 2021 Distribution Order and the December 6, 2021 Distribution Order.

Ace Liens

63. The Receiver reviewed the supporting documentation provided by Ace in support of its liens totalling $506,543. The Receiver and Ace have entered into the Settlement Agreement with respect to all of Ace's liens, wherein the Receiver has agreed to pay $423,734.46, in full and final settlement of the Ace liens. Ace has also signed Consents to Orders discharging all liens and dismissing their lien actions (the "Ace Consents"). The Settlement Agreement is subject to Court approval. Copies of the Settlement Agreement and the Ace Consents, together with the draft Orders, are attached hereto as Appendix "28".

DISTRIBUTION TO BANK OF MONTREAL

64. BMO holds a first mortgage that is registered on title to Lions Court (the “BMO Security”). BLG conducted a review of the BMO Security to confirm whether it was properly perfected and enforceable as against a trustee in bankruptcy.
65. BLG has issued a security opinion in respect of BMO’s Security in Lions Court, which states that, subject to the customary caveats and qualifications, BMO’s Security is valid and enforceable.
66. Based on certain enquiries with BMO, the Receiver understands that the amount owing to BMO as at June 15, 2022 was $189,536.93, plus per diem interest of $9.66. Accordingly, the Receiver is seeking the Court’s approval to make a distribution from the proceeds of the Lions Court Transaction, to BMO, in the amount of $189,536.93, plus per diem interest of $9.66, up to the date of payment to BMO (the “BMO Secured Indebtedness”).

APPROVAL OF PROFESSIONAL FEES

67. In the Sixth Report, the Receiver advised that it understands that Lerner’s LLP (“Lerner’s”), counsel for Mark Gdak, and the Debtors, has been able to access certain insurance coverage to pay their legal fees and disbursements throughout the receivership proceedings. Lerner’s also advised that the insurer does not pay an amount equivalent to the standard rates of Lerner’s. Accordingly, Lerner’s has advised the Receiver that it may seek an Order directing the Receiver to pay to Lerner’s the difference between the hourly rates paid by the insurer and the Lerner’s standard hourly rates. Lerner’s advises the Receiver that this differential is in the range of between $130,000 to $200,000. As of the date of this Eighth Report, Lerner’s has not brought a motion seeking this relief from the Court.
68. The Receiver and its counsel have maintained detailed records of their professional fees and disbursements.
69. Pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Receivership Order, the Receiver and its counsel shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements and a charge (the “Receiver’s Charge”) was granted on the Property (as defined in the Receivership Order), as security for such fees and disbursements.

70. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver from April 1, 2022 to June 30, 2022 amount to $55,785.02 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Jacob Wiebe sworn July 11, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “29”.
71. The total fees and disbursements of the Receiver’s counsel, BLG, from April 1, 2022 to June 30, 2022 amount to $54,121.02 inclusive of disbursements and HST and are more particularly described in the affidavit of Christine Mason sworn July 7, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “30”.
72. The Receiver believes that the fees described in the fee affidavits are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve same.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

73. The SRD, including the proposed distributions, is attached hereto as Appendix “31”.

CONFIDENTIAL APPENDICES

74. The Receiver believes that Confidential Appendices “1”, “2” and “3” should remain sealed until the Lions Court Transaction has closed, as the information contained therein is commercially sensitive and could prejudice the Lions Court Transaction. In the absence of a sealing order, potential purchasers would have access to information obtained by the Receiver, which may impact the price that interested purchasers are willing to offer, should the Lions Court Transaction not close.
75. The Receiver does not believe that any party will suffer any prejudice if the information in Confidential Appendices “1”, “2” and “3” are sealed in this manner.

SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATION

76. Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully requests that this Honourable Court grant the relief sought, as detailed in paragraph 28 of this Eighth Report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

1. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Sale Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and for the conveyance of the Purchased Property to the Purchaser.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchaser substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the "Receiver's Certificate"), all of Jaimee Lynn Gdak's right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Property described in the Sale Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Purchaser, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Gilmore dated October 13, 2020; (ii) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice McEwen dated October 22, 2020; (iii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or any other personal property registry system; and (iii) those Claims listed on Schedule C hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances", which term shall not include the permitted encumbrances, easements and restrictive covenants listed on Schedule D) and, for greater certainty, this Court orders that all of the Encumbrances affecting or
